

of behaviour problems, especially those of children and young people. Account will be taken of experience of residential institutions and homes for children, of boarding out, of work in child guidance clinics, and of family case work including health visitor work.

(iii) Probation Inspector, Grade II.

A University degree, preferably in sociology or a kindred subject, or a diploma or certificate in social science, or other recognised training in educational or social work. Candidates should have a wide knowledge of social conditions in this country, practical experience of family case work, and understanding of behaviour problems. Experience in probation work will be a recommendation.

5. Successful candidates must satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners as to their health and character.

The Civil Service Commissioners reserve the right to give such preference to disabled persons or to particular classes of disabled persons as may be necessary in order to give effect to any general policy regarding the employment of such persons which may be adopted by His Majesty's Government, provided that the disability is not of a nature to interfere with the discharge of the duties required.

6. No person who is undergoing a course of study with the aid of a grant from public funds shall be eligible to compete under these Regulations before the completion of the course, unless he has previously obtained permission to do so from the authority which administers the grant.

7. Application for admission to the Competition must be made to the Home Office on the appropriate form within the time and in the manner of which notice is given by that Department.

8. Candidates who, from the information given on their application forms, are recommended by the Home Office and are accepted by the Civil Service Commissioners as having the best qualifications, will be summoned to an interview before a Selection Board who will recommend to the Commissioners for appointment to each grade the candidates who appear to them to be the most suitable. The Selection Board may also recommend that a certain number of candidates shall be classed as reserves to be considered by the Commissioners for appointment in conjunction with the results of later interviews. The Selection Board will then take into consideration a candidate's record of experience and education, any recommendations that they may receive from persons named by candidates as having direct knowledge of their work in the past, and the personal qualities of the candidates as shown at the interview; and on their estimate of the above evidence they will frame their recommendations. The decision of the Commissioners shall be final.

9. Persons upon whose training for the occupation of teacher public money has been spent, cannot be appointed until the consent of the appropriate central education authority (e.g. the Ministry of Education, the Scottish Education Department, the Ministry of Education for Northern Ireland) has been notified to the Commissioners.

10. Every successful candidate will be required to pay the appropriate fee of £1 before the issue of a certificate of qualification for appointment.

11. Any attempt on the part of candidates to enlist support for their applications through Members of Parliament or other influential persons, except as referees to be named by them in their Application Forms, will disqualify them for appointment. The Selection Board will disregard recommendations from persons who are not personally acquainted with the candidate's work, whether at school, at the University, or otherwise.
