St. James's, May 2. The following Address was presented to Her Majesty by the Rt. Rev. the Lord Bishop of Lichfield and Coventry.

To the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, our Sovereign Lady ANNE, by the Grace of God, Queen of England, Scotland, France and Ireland, Defender of the Faith, &c.

Most Gracious Sovereign,
WE Your Majesties most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Archdeacon, and Clergy of the Archdiocese of Derby, do humbly beg leave to Console with Your Majesty, the great Loss of our late Sovereign Lord King William, of Glorious Memory; and at the same time with all Thankfulness to Adore the Divine Providence, that hath been graciously pleased to preserve Your Majesty till this day in Mercy to the Reformed Churches, and particularly to the Church of England as by Law Established, and to place your Sacred Person upon the Throne of Your Mighty Ancestors.

Your Majesties unparallel'd Bounty to Your Subjects, in Your late Royal Gift, Your Gracious Declaration of preserving our Legal Settlements in Church and State, Your Royal Proclamation for the Encouragement of True Religion and Virtue, and for the Suppressing of Vice and Immorality; These are such glorious Beams of Goodness and Piety, streaming from your Royal Heart, as raise in us great Expectations from so Good and Gracious a Princess.

We do therefore humbly beg Your Majesty to believe, that in our several Places and Stations, we shall daily offer up to God, by whom Kings and Queens Reign, our Sacrifice of Prayer for the Preservation of Your Sacred Person from all Dangers, and the Establishment of your Throne against all Pretenders and Opposers whatsoever; and that He would continue Your Majesty a Nursing Mother to our Church, that he would make Your Reign long and prosperous, and so direct Your Councils, and prosper Your Armies and Allies, that You may overcome all Your Enemies, and afterwards Crown Your Sacred Person with Crowns of Immortal Life and Glory.

The following Addresses from the Counties of Denbigh and Montgomery were presented to Her Majesty by Sir Joseph Jekyll, Chief Justice of Chesler.

To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty.

The Humble Address of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, and Justices of the Peace, of the County of Denbigh, at Her Majesties Great Sessions held at Wrexham for the said County, upon Friday (to wit) the Tenth Day of April, in the First Year of Her Majesties Reign, Anno Dom. 1702.

WE Your Majesties most dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave to Congratulate Your Majesties happy Accession to the Throne of Your Ancestors, which alone could Support us, under the deep Sense of the Nation's Loss, by the Death of our late Sovereign Lord King William III. of Blessed memory.

The Experienced Zeal of Your Majesty for the Established Religion, Laws and Liberties of your Country, gives us a full Assurance in your Protection and Defence of them, and we humbly acknowledge your Generous Bounty to your Subjects, and beg the Liberty to assure Your Majesty, That we will, with unshaken Loyalty, adhere to and defend Your Majesties Sacred Person, Crown and Dignity, and the Succession in the Protestant Line, as by Law Established, against all your Enemies whatsoever.

And will, by a Cheerful Submission and Obedience to Your Majesties Legal and Rightful Authority, (so far as in us lies) assist Your Majesty in the Supporting your Allies, for the Preservation of the Liberties of Europe, and abating the Excessive Power of France, and whatever else may conduce to the making Your Majesties Reign over us Glorious and Happy.

The humble Address of Your Majesties most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Justices of the Peace, and other Freeholders, assembled together at the Great Sessions held for Your Majesties County of Montgomery, at the Town of Pasle in the County aforesaid, the 16th day of April, in the First Year of Your Majesties Reign.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

NO sooner were we (with the rest of our Fellow Subjects) almost overwhelmed with Grief at the amazing News of the Loss of our late glorious Monarch, King William the Third, of ever blessed Memory, but that Divine Providence was pleased to wipe all Tears from our Eyes, by placing Your Majesty on the Throne of your Royal Ancestors: We unfeignedly Congratulate the same, with the Assurance of an immutable Fidelity to your Sacred Person, Title, and Government, against the pretended Prince of Wales, his Abettors, and all your Enemies whatsoever.

That Your Majesty may enjoy an uninterrupted State of Health, thereby a long and prosperous Reign over us; and that no Design formed against your Person or Government prosper, is our hearty Prayer.

In Testimony whereof, we Your Majesties most dutiful and loyal Subjects hereunto set our Hands.

The following Address from the Borough of Adborough in the County of Suffolk was presented to Her Majesty by Sir Henry Johnson and William Johnson Esq; their Representatives in Parliament.

To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Bayliff, Burgesses, and Freemen, of the ancient Borough of Adborough in the County of Suffolk

Most Gracious Sovereign,
Heaven's Blessings which are now sustained by the Death of the Heroick and most Renowned King William (the Third our late Deliverer) of ever blessed Memory, could not but affect our Minds with a Grief (suitable to so great and respectable a Misfortune; and obliges us humbly to beg Leave to Console with Your Majesty upon that unhappy Occasion; and at the same time to assure You, Your nothing could so fully and entirely have dispersed our Fears, and alleviated our Sorrows proceeding therefrom, as Your Majesty's Sacred Majesty's happy Accession to the Imperial Crowns of these Kingdoms, from whose most Gracious Government and Protection we are sure to receive whatever is Good and Beneficial to us, which obliges us in Gratitude, as well as in a deep Sense of our Duty, most humbly to join with the rest of Your Loyal and Dutiful Subjects in our hearty and sincere Congratulation: of Your Most Sacred Majesty upon Your quiet Possession of the Throne of Your Royal Ancestors.

And (as dutiful Subjects) we most humbly beg Leave further to assure Your Majesty, that nothing shall be wanting on our Parts that may contribute to the Security and Happiness of Your Majesty's most Royal Person, and Preservation of Your Government; And that we are willing and ready to Sacrifice whatsoever is dear and valuable to us in defence thereof, against the pretended Prince of Wales, and the Power of the French King, and all other Enemies of Your Majesty's most undoubted Right, and Your open and secret Enemies: And may the Blessings of the Divine Providence make Your Life and Reign long and happy. Given under our Common Seal the Tenth Day of April, in the First Year of Your Majesty's Reign, Anno Dom. 1702.

The following Address from the Borough of Great Marlow was presented to Her Majesty by Sir James Etheridge, and James Chace Esq; their Representatives in Parliament; and by George Bruer Esq;

The humble Address of the Constables, Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Great Marlow, in the County of Bucks, at a Court Leet, and Court Baron, there held on Your Majesties Coronation-day, in the First Year of Your Majesties

Most Gracious Sovereign,
WE Your Majesties most dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly crave leave to Congratulate your Majesties happy Accession to the Throne, which alone could repair that Loss the Nation has sustained, by the Death of our late Sovereign King William the Third of glorious Memory; and to offer our most hearty Thanks, for the tender affection your Majesty has been pleased to express, for the Ease of your People, under their great (tho' no more than necessary) Taxes, and the gracious Allowances of Support you have vouchsafed to the Church, and Constitution of England, which to us are invaluable Proofs, that your Royal Heart is entirely English.

We do with all humility assure your Majesty, of our constant and sincere Loyalty to your Person and Government, and that we will, to the utmost of our Power, endeavour to maintain your Majesties Right and Title to the Imperial Crown of these Kingdoms, against the pretended Prince of Wales, and all other your Enemies whatsoever.

That your Majesty may long continue a Blessing to these Nations, in a happy and prosperous Reign over us, and be a joyful Mother of Children to Rule our Posterity as long as Ages last, is the fervent and hearty Prayer of Your Majesties most loyal and dutiful Subjects.

The following Address from the Borough of Arundel was presented to Her Majesty by John Cooke Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament.

To the High and Mighty Princess ANNE, by the Grace of God, of England, Scotland, France and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith, &c.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Burgesses, and the rest of the Inhabitants of your ancient Borough of Arundel, in the County of Suffex.

May it please Your most Excellent Majesty,
WE the Mayor, Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the said Borough, presume, with the rest of your good Subjects, heartily to Congratulate your Majesties Accession to the Throne, as the Rightful, Legal, and worthy Successor of our late glorious Deliverer and Sovereign, of Immortal Memory; not doubting but that as the Princess of Denmark ran the same Risk embarked on the same Bottom, and espoused the same Noble Cause of Religion and Civil Liberty with the Prince of Orange; so Queen Anne will equal, if not exceed, King William, by the Governing these mighty Nations; (together with the Interest of the Church of England as by Law Established) at Home in Wealth and Peace, and by extending their Renown abroad, in making England the Support of the Balance of Europe, as well as the Head and Protector of the Protestant Interest over the World.

We cannot enough express our Thankfulness for your Majesties Gracious Speech and Declaration, your Resolution to Maintain the Succession of the Crown in the Protestant Line, and the unparallel'd retrenching of your own personal Expences, which is both an Ease to your People, as also an Example of Frugality to the Nation at this juncture; when all Men's Purposes ought to be as ready as their Hands and Councils to promote the Common Cause.

That God Almighty may prosper your generous Designs with answerable Success, prolong your precious Life, and make the Benefits of your Reign as lasting as your Name in these Kingdoms, shall be our unfeigned and continual Prayers, &c.

The

The following Address from the County of Salop was presented to Her Majesty.

To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, and Grand Jury, at the Quarter-Sessions held at Salop the 14th day of April, 1702. for the County of Salop.

May it please Your Royal Majesty,

When we think of the great Loss of our late Gracious Sovereign King William, our Hearts are fill'd with a deep Sense of Sorrow; but when we consider that Your Majesty succeeds upon the Royal Throne, this Thought both eases our Grief, and turns our Mourning into Rejoicing. We presume therefore to Congratulate Your Excellent Majesty on this Occasion, and return you our humble Thanks for the Gracious Assurances you have been pleas'd to give your People by your Declaration in Council, and from the Throne.

We humbly beg Leave to assure Your Majesty, That we will in our several Sessions before your Government, and will defend your undoubted Title against the Power of France, and all Pretenders whatsoever, and always use our best Endeavours to preserve the Church of England as by Law established.

My most Obedient Power, by whom Kings and Queens Govern, protect your Royal Person, grant you a long, peaceable, and prosperous Reign, and we wish we may never want a Royal Issue from your Loins to sway the English Scepter.

The following Address from the Corporation of Morpeth was presented to Her Majesty.

The humble Address of the Bayliffs, Aldermen, Freemen, Gentlemen, and other Inhabitants of the Right Honourable the Earl of Carlisle's ancient Corporation of Morpeth in the County of Northumberland.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

We cannot look back upon those great Things which were done by our late Sovereign King William the Third of Glorious Memory, in Preservation of our Religion, Laws and Liberties, but we must be under the deepest Sorrow and Affliction at his Death, and with Your Majesty and the whole Nation sincerely and heartily Condole so great a Loss.

A Loss which nothing could have mitigated, nothing could have made repairable to us, if Divine Providence had not fill'd the Throne with so Excellent a Successor as your most Sacred Majesty, whose Accession to the Imperial Crown of these Realms, we do with unfeign'd Duty and Affection Congratulate and Rejoice in, nor only as it is Your undoubted Right, but as Your Majesty is adorn'd with all those Graces and Endowments, which (if we had view'd the Royal and repeated Assurances, which your Majesty has lately given to Your People) are sufficient to convince us, that our Constitution both in Church and State, and every Subject of your oars in particular, as well as all Europe in general, will be safe and happy under the blessed Influence of Your Majesty's most Auspicious Reign.

Having our Hearts fill'd with a just Sense of our Felicity, we beseech Almighty God that your Majesty's Reign over us may be long and prosperous, and humbly crave leave to assure Your Majesty, that during the whole Course of it, we shall (as becomes dutiful and loyal Subjects) with the hazard of Lives and Fortunes, Support and Defend your Royal Person and Government, and the Succession in the Protestant Line, against the French King, the pretended Prince of Wales, and all Your other Enemies and Opposers whatsoever. In Testimony whereof, we have hereunto set our Hands the thirteenth Day of April, in the First Year of Your Majesty's Reign.

The following Address from the Borough of Great Bedwin was presented to Her Majesty.

To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Portreeve, Bayliff, Burgesses, and other principal Inhabitants of your Majesty's ancient Borough of Great Bedwin, in the County of Wilts.

May it please your most Excellent Majesty,

We Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, from a deep Sense of our unspeakable Happiness, do presume to congratulate Your Majesty's Rightful Accession to the Throne of Your Royal Ancestors, whereby our great Misfortune in the Death of the late King (of Glorious Memory) is happily repaired.

We humbly beseech Your Sacred Majesty, graciously to accept our most grateful Acknowledgments of Your repeated Assurances, of Supporting and Maintaining our happily Consecrated Government in Church and State, as by Law Established; from whence we justly promise our selves all imaginable Felicity under Your Majesty's most Auspicious Reign, which we pray God may be long and prosperous.

And we humbly crave permission with all possible Sincerity, to assure Your Majesty, that we will upon all Occasions (according to our indispenfible Duty) faithfully and inviolably adhere to our Fidelity and Allegiance to Your Majesty, and endeavour to the utmost extent of our Power, to defend the present Establishment and Constitution, against all the Enemies and Opposers of Your Royal Person and Government.

The following Address was presented to Her Majesty by His Excellency the Earl of Rochester, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.

To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Bishop and Clergy of the Dioceses of Down and Connor.

We Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, do humbly crave leave to Condole with your Majesty the Death of our late Glorious Sovereign, whose Memory must be always precious, especially to us of this Kingdom, as the great Instrument, under God, of our late Deliverance.

We should have apprehended the greatest Confusion must have followed of severe a Loss, had not God in his infinite mercy to us preserved your Majesty, and given you a peaceable Accession to the Throne of your Ancestors, to the universal Satisfaction of your People.

And on this happy Occasion we think it our Duty to assure your Majesty, that we will to utmost of our power Support your Lawful and Rightful Title to the Imperial Crown of these Kingdoms, against the pretended Prince of Wales, and all other Opposers.

We presume to give your Majesty our unfeign'd Thanks for the Declarations you have been graciously pleas'd to make to Support the just and ready Envid into against the Common Enemy of Europe, and to maintain the Constitutions in Church and State, as by Law Established.

We beseech Almighty God, to give your Majesty a Happy and Prosperous Reign over us, to continue long to the Church the benefit of your Pious Example, and to preserve you always under the Protection of his good Providence.

The following Addresses were likewise presented to Her Majesty by His Excellency the Earl of Rochester, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.

A humble Address of the High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, Grand Jury, Gentlemen, and Freeholders of the County of Dublin, at a General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, held at Killmainham in and for the said County, the 16th day of April, 1702.

A humble Address of the Grand Jury, High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, Freeholders, and principal Protestant Inhabitants of the County Palatine of the Tipperary, at the Assizes held for the said County in the Town of Clonmell, on Thursday the 9th. day of April, 1702.

A humble Address of the High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, Grand Jury, Gentlemen, and Freeholders of the County of Kildare, at a General Assizes held at Naas the 16th day of April, 1702.

A humble Address of the Bishop and Clergy of the Diocese of Clonsfert and Killmacduagh.

A humble Address of the Mayor, Bayliffs, Free Burgesses, and Commons, of the Corporation of Clonmell, in the County Palatine of Tipperary.

All which Addresses Her Majesty received very graciously.

The Address of the County of Curwenland, printed in the last Gazette, was presented to Her Majesty by Sir Edward Haffell, and George Fincher Esq; their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Carlisle Earl-Marshal of England, and Lord Lieutenant of the said County.

The Address from the County of Westmorland, inserted in the last Gazette, was presented to Her Majesty by Sir Richard Sansford Bar. one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Carlisle Earl-Marshal of England, Lord Lieutenant of the said County.

Warsaw, April 23. N.S. We have received an Account, That the King of Sweden arrived at Gradon, and would there give Audience, this day, to the Ambassadors of the Republick of Poland.

In the mean time his Forces march towards this Place, and raise great Contributions in the Country through which they pass, laying great Taxes particularly upon the Convents of Jesuits, and other Monasteries. And by our last Advices, the Swedish Van-Guard was advanced to Biala, a Town belonging to Prince Radzivil, about 28 Leagues from hence.

The Muscovite Ambassador had Publick Audience of the King of Poland two days ago in the presence of the Senators who are in Town, and 'tis said he propos'd, That if the Republick would join in the War against Sweden, the Czar his Master would not only assist them with a considerable Sum of Money, but would restore to them Smolensko, Kiow, and some other Places which formerly belonged to the Crown of Poland; but there appears little disposition in the Poles to embrace these Offers.

The King of Poland's Summons to the Nobility, to mount on Horseback for the Defence of the Country, have not yet been obeyed. The Cardinal Primate continues in the Country; The King sent to desire his Advice in this difficult Juncture, but he has excus'd himself from being concerned in Publick Affairs; The Senators and other Persons of Quality in Town have sent away their best Effects, and prepare to retire from hence; And 'tis said, the King himself intends to leave this Place very suddenly, and to go to Cracow; and his Guards have Orders to be in a readiness to attend him.

The Office of Crown General is not yet dispos'd of, and 'tis now the general Discourse, that it will be given to Monsieur Lubomirsky the Crown Treasurer.

Vienna, April 26. The King of the Romans continues his Resolution, of going in the beginning of the next Month to Head the Imperial Army on the Rhine. The States of the Kingdom of Bohemia have resolv'd to make him a Present of 100000 Dollars upon this Occasion; and 'tis expected, that this Example will be followed by the rest of the Emperor's Dominions.

The Emperor has appointed young Count Jorger to go to England, to make the Compliments of Condolance and Congratulation in his Name to Her Majesty of Great Britain, and he intends to set out in his Journey thither in 10 or 12 days. The Marshal de Villeroy is removed from Inspruck to Graz in Styria, where he is to remain a Prisoner till his Ransom be agreed upon.

Frankfurt, May 4. The Imperial Army, commanded by Prince Lewis of Baden, is still encamp'd near Langenkandel; he he has sent out a Detachment to reinforce the German Troops posted at Weissenburg and Lauterburgh, and another to take possession of Amweyler. The Germans have also secured several other Posts about Landau, so that the Place is in a manner blocked up; and the German Horse have consumed the Forage in the Country about it. Monsieur Melac, the Governor of Landau, has sent Orders to the Neighbouring Villages to bring in their Provisions, their Cartel, and other Effects, but they chuse rather to send them to Philipsburgh, Spire, and other Places that are without the French Lines. Marshal Catinat is come to Haguenau, where he has got together 6 Regiments of Horse and Dragoons, and as many of Foot, which make about 7000 Men, and he expects to be joined in a short time by more French Forces from the Country of Metz. We hear, the French are making a Bridge over the Rhône at Huningen, in order, as is supposed, to give a Jealousie to the Circles of Swabia and Franconia, and by that means to make a Diversion of their Troops.

Wesel, May 5. The Deputies of the States General, who were sent hither to Complement the King of Prussia, parted from hence yesterday very well satisfied with their Reception, and were each presented by the King with a Purse of Medals, to the value of a thousand Crowns. We have an Account from the Camp before Keyferswaer, that the second Instant at night, 200 Men sallied out of the Town against the Forces of Prussia, but were vigorously repulsed, with the Loss of a Captain and 2 Lieutenants, and about 20 Soldiers were killed and wounded, and as many taken Prisoners; on our side a Colonel and some Soldiers were wounded, and a Captain killed. Yesterday our Forces attacked a large Redoubt, called the Kruitenberg Fort, which covered the Counterscarp, and carried it without meeting with any great Opposition, the French retiring after their first discharge, which did our Men no other mischief than the wounding of an Ensign, and 5 or 6 Soldiers. The French Forces which were entered into the Town of Berick, marched from thence yesterday, and took from the Inhabitants divers Horses and some Provisions. We hear Count Tallard, who was marching with a Body of about 6000 Men and a Train of Artillery, to post himself near the Rhine over against Keyferswaer, is countermanded, and turns his March towards Dalem, with a design, as 'tis believed, to Bombard Juliers. Marshal Boufflers's Army continues encamped near Zanten; and we hear the Earl of Athlone is still at Clarenbeck, with the Forces of the Allies under his Command.

Cologne, May 5. The French Forces which lay near Bon, to the to the Number of about 3 or 4000 Men, marched from thence two Days ago towards Nuy and Ordingen, where 'tis said Count Tallard has got together a Body of 6000 Men, and expects more Forces, intending to bombard Dusseldorp or Juliers; 100 French Deserters came yesterday to this Place and to Mulheim, and two parties of the Dutch and Prussian Horse that are encamped near that Town, which were sent out towards Bon came home at the same time with 70 Prisoners. A Battalion of Prussian Foot, and 3 Companies of Granadiers, marched from hence this day towards the Camp of the Allies before Keyferswaer. We hear, the Troops of Hanover and Cell are marching to join the Forces of the Allies on the Lower-Rhine. Letters from the Upper-Rhine give an Account, That Marshal Catinat was arrived at Haguenau but had not yet got together above 7 or 8000 Men; That the Imperial Army under Prince Lewis of Baden increase daily by the coming up of more of the Imperial Forces, and of those of the Circles, and that they had blocked up the Town of London; but it was believed they would not form the Siege of that Place before the Arrival of the King of the Romans, who intends to depart from Vienna about the 10th of this Month.

Hamburg, May 5. Letters from Warsaw say, the Court there is very much alarmed at the Motions of the Swedish Forces, which continue their march towards that Place. Most of the Nobility of Poland are retired from thence; some to their Country Houses, and others as is believed are gone to meet the King of Sweden. The Heer Cranemburg, Envoy of the States-General, who is now at Riga, having received fresh Orders from the States, to offer their Mediation for a Peace between the Crowns of Sweden and Poland and the Czar of Muscovy, has desired Audience of the King of Sweden, but has not yet obtained it. The Advices from Lithuania confirm the defeat of a Body of the Forces of that Dutchy under the command of Prince Wiesnowsky by a Detachment of the Swedish Army, but say the Prince had made his Escape. Yesterday being the Day appointed for the Coronation of Her Majesty of Great-Britain, the English Merchants here made a great Entertainment in the House belonging to the Company, to which the Foreign Ministers, and principal Inhabitants of this City, were invited; and in the Evening the Company were entertained with an Opera; and they had Illuminations, and gave other publick Demonstrations of Joy suitable to the great Occasion.

Hesse, May 9. An Express arrived here the 6th Instant from the Earl of Athlone, giving an Account, That the Duke of Burgundy with a Body of French Forces had joined Marshal Boufflers's Army; upon which, the Battalions designed to serve on board the Dutch Fleet were ordered, to march forthwith to join the Earl of Athlone; The like Orders were dispatched to divers Battalions which lay in Zeland, and the Battalion of Dutch Guards quartered in this Place marched from hence this day for the same purpose. An Express is sent to Cassel, to hasten the March of the Forces the Landgrave of Hesse is to furnish, which amount to 9000 Men, and 9 or 10000 more are expected from Hanover and Cell, which 'tis reported the Elector of Hanover designs to Command in Person. Our Advices from Flanders say, Count Cosbourn had possessed himself of Millburgh, a small Town with a pretty strong Castle, which lies in the way to Ostend, but what he designs farther is not yet known. The Siege of Keyferswaer has been delayed by the overflowing of the Rhine occasioned by the late Rains, but the weather having been fair for some days, 'tis hoped the Allies will soon be Masters of that Place; According to the last Accounts, they had taken a large Redoubt that covered the Counterscarp, and were preparing to make a General Assault upon the Counterscarp.

The late King's Will was opened yesterday in the presence of Mr. Stanhope Envoy Extraordinary of Her Majesty of Great-Britain, Monsieur Schmettau Envoy of the King of Prussia, the Agents of the Princes of Frise, Anhalt, Nassau Siegen, and of the Duke of Saxe Eysnar, with several of the Members of the Council of State, and some Commissioners appointed by the Court of Justice of Holland; His Majesty has therein appointed the Prince of Frise to be his Universal Heir, and he has thereupon taken the Title of Prince of Orange. The Baron Lier, one of the Ambassadors appointed by the States General to make the Compliments of Condoleance and Congratulation to Her Majesty, embarked yesterday for England; and the other two Ambassadors intend to follow in a short time, staying only for their Equipage.

Paris, May 7. A Declaration has been published here, exempting the Subjects of Lorraine from the Law, by which the Estates of Foreigners that die in the Fr. King's Dominions without being Naturalized, are to fall to the Crown; a like Privilege being granted by the Duke of Lorraine to the Subjects of France. The Republick of Venice has appointed the Sieur Erizzo, formerly their Ambassador at the Courts of Spain and Rome, to go with the Character of their Ambassador Extraordinary to the Queen of England, to Condole with Her Majesty in the Name of the Republick upon the Death of the late King, and to Congratulate Her Majesty's Succession to the Crown. Letters from Rochfort say, the Sieur Martin, Commander of the Ship Loire, one of Count Charlevoix's Squadron, was returned thither; he has been as far as Fera Cruz, where he left the Spanish Galeas; When he parted from the said Squadron, 3 of their Ships had been separated from them in bad weather, which had not yet been heard quartered about that Place were to march the next day in order to pass the Pé at Crenonx, and that the Duke of Penhojme intended to draw together what Forces he could in the Crenonnois, in order as was said to attempt the Relief of Mantua, but the Prince Eugene had taken such good Measures, that it would be very difficult for the French to succeed in this Design. Our Advices from the Low Countries bring an Account That the Allies push on vigorously the Siege of Keyferswaer, and we give that Place over for lost.

Manchester, April 23. The Coronation of Her Sacred Majesty Queen Anne, (whose happy Accession to the Crown had been here early proclaimed with all the Demonstrations of Rejoicing and Thankfulness) was this day here solemnly observed with the utmost Expressions of Gratitude to God, and Loyalty to the Queen. About 10 in the forenoon, the Clergy, Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Town, repaired to the Collegiate Church, where after Divine Service, and a Sermon preached on the Occasion by Dr. Wice Warden of the College, they marched in solemn Order with Halberds, and Musick playing before them, to the Cross, which was fairly beautified and adorned with rich Garlands; and thence continued the Procession to the Conduit, which was no less magnificently set out; where being regularly placed, and incircled with Halberdiers; and the young Gentlemen of the Town, who had formed themselves into a Troop for the Solemnity, together with about 140 other young Men drawn up into 2 Company, each with white Wands in their hands, with Trumpet, Kettle-Drum, and Drums; the Conduit plentifully supplied them with Wine to drink Her Majesty's Health, with those of the Royal Family, with Loyal Huzzas, and all decent Expressions of the Royal Family, with Loyal while playing; the Bells ringing, and the People expressing all imaginable Satisfaction and Zeal to Her Majesty's Health, Victory and Success, concluding the Solemnity of the day with Volleys of shot, Bonfires, Illuminations, and other publick Expressions of Rejoicing and Loyalty.

Leeds in Yorkshire, April 23. This being the day of Her Majesty's Coronation, the Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen of this Borough, Gentlemen, and such of Her Majesty's Officers as were quartered in the Town, went in the morning to the Old Church, where a Sermon was preached to the Corporation; after which the Company were entertained by her Allies, and concluded the day with Musick, ringing of Bells, Bonfires, Illuminations, and other Demonstrations of Joy.

Coventry, April 23. This day being appointed for the Queen's Coronation, about 3 in the afternoon, the Mayor and Aldermen in Scarlet, Councilhouse-men in their Gowns, Gentlemen, Clergymen, and the Ten

The following Address from the County of Salop was presented to Her Majesty.

To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, and Grand Jury, at the Quarter-Sessions held at Salop the 14th day of April, 1702. for the County of Salop.

May it please Your Royal Majesty,

When we think of the great Loss of our late Gracious Sovereign King William, our Hearts are fill'd with a deep Sense of Sorrow; but when we consider that Your Majesty succeeds upon the Royal Throne, this Thought bestows our Grief, and turns our Mourning into Rejoicing. We presume therefore to Congratulate Your Excellent Majesty on this Occasion, and return you our humble Thanks for the Gracious Assurances you have been pleas'd to give your People by your Declaration in Council, and from the Throne.

We humbly beg Leave to assure Your Majesty, That we will in our several Stations behave our selves with unfeign'd Loyalty and Fidelity towards Your Majesty and your Government, and will defend your undoubted Title against the Power of France, and all Pretences whatsoever, and always use our best Endeavours to preserve the Church of England as by Law established. May your Majesty's long and happy Reign, by whom Kings and Queens Govern, protect your Royal Person, bring you a long, peaceable, and prosperous Reign, and we wish we may never want a Royal Wife from your Loin to sway the English Scepter.

The following Address from the Corporation of Morpeth was presented to Her Majesty.

The humble Address of the Bayliffs, Aldermen, Freemen, Gentlemen, and other Inhabitants of the Right Honourable the Earl of Carlisle's ancient Corporation of Morpeth in the County of Northumberland.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

We cannot look back upon those great Things which were done by our late Sovereign Lord King William the Third of Glorious Memory, in Preservation of our Religion, Laws and Liberties, but we must be under the deepest Sorrow and Affliction at his Death, and with Your Majesty and the whole Nation sincerely and heartily Condole so great a Loss.

A Loss which nothing could have mitigated, nothing could have made supportable to us, if Divine Providence had not fill'd the Throne with so Excellent a Successor as your most Sacred Majesty, whose Accession to the Imperial Crown of these Realms, we do with unfeign'd Duty and Affection Congratulate and Rejoice in, not only as it is Your undoubted Right, but as Your Majesty is ador'd with all those Graces and Endowments, which (if we had wanted the Royal and repeated Assurances, which your Majesty has lately given to your People) are sufficient to convince us, that our Constitution both in Church and State, and every Subject of your own in particular, as well as all Europe in general, will be safe and happy under the blessed Influence of Your Majesties most Auspicious Reign.

Having our Hearts fill'd with a just Sense of our Felicity, we beseech Almighty God, that your Majesties Reign over us may be long and prosperous, and humbly crave Leave to assure Your Majesty, that during the whole Course of it, we shall (as becomes dutiful and loyal Subjects) with the hazard of Lives and Fortunes, Support and Defend your Royal Person and Government, and the Succession in the Protestant Line, against the French King, the pretended Prince of Wales, and all your other Enemies and Opposers whatsoever. In Testimony whereof, we have herewith set our Hands the thirteenth Day of April, in the First Year of Your Majesties Reign.

The following Address from the Borough of Great Bedwin was presented to Her Majesty.

To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Portrieve, Bayliff, Burgesses, and other principal Inhabitants of your Majesties ancient Borough of Great Bedwin, in the County of Wilts.

May it please your most Excellent Majesty,

We Your Majesties most dutiful and loyal Subjects, from a deep Sense of our unspicable Happiness, do presume to congratulate Your Majesties Rightful Accession to the Throne of Your Royal Ancestors, whereby our great Misfortune in the Death of the late King (of Glorious Memory) is happily repaired.

We humbly beseech Your Sacred Majesty, graciously to accept our most grateful Acknowledgments of Your repeated Assurances, of Supporting and Maintaining our happy Constitute Government in Church and State, as by Law Established; from whence we justly promise our selves all imaginable Felicity under Your Majesties most Auspicious Reign, which we pray God may be long and prosperous.

And we humbly crave permission, with all possible Sincerity, to assure Your Majesty, that we will upon all Occasions (according to our indispensible Duty) faithfully and inviolably adhere to our Fidelity and Allegiance to Your Majesty, and endeavour to the utmost extent of our Power, to defend the present Establishment and Constitution, against all the Enemies and Opposers of Your Royal Person and Government.

The following Address was presented to Her Majesty by His Excellency the Earl of Rochester, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.

To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Bishop and Clergy of the Dioceses of Down and Connor.

We Your Majesties most dutiful and loyal Subjects, do humbly crave Leave to Condole with your Majesty the Death of our late Glorious Sovereign, whose Memory must be always precious, especially to us of this Kingdom, as the great Instrument, under God, of our late Deliverance.

We should have apprehended the greatest Confusion must have followed of severe a Loss, had not God in his infinite mercy to us preferred your Majesty, and given you a peaceable Accession to the Throne of your Ancestors, to the universal Satisfaction of your People.

And on this happy Occasion we think it our Duty to assure your Majesty, that we will to the utmost of our power Support your Lawful and Rightful Title to the Imperial Crown of these Kingdoms, against the pretended Prince of Wales, and all other Opposers.

We presume to give your Majesty our unfeign'd Thanks for the Declarations you have been graciously pleas'd to make to Support the Liberties and Liberty entred into against the Common Enemy of Europe, and to maintain the Constitutions in Church and State, as by Law Established.

We beseech Almighty God, to give your Majesty a Happy and Prosperous Reign over us, to continue long to the Church the benefit of your Pious Example, and to preserve you always under the Protection of his good Providence.

The following Addresses were likewise presented to Her Majesty by His Excellency the Earl of Rochester, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.

A humble Address of the High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, Grand Jury, Gentlemen, and Freeholders of the County of Dublin, at a General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, held at Kilmasthann in and for the said County, the 16th day of April, 1702.

A humble Address of the Grand-Jury, High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, Freeholders, and principal Protestant Inhabitants of the County Palatine of the Tipperary, at the Assizes held for the said County in the Town of Clonmell, on Thursday the 9th day of April, 1702.

A humble Address of the High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, Grand-Jury, Gentlemen, and Freeholders of the County of Kildare, at a General Assizes held at Naas the 16th day of April, 1702.

A humble Address of the Bishop and Clergy of the Diocese of Clonsfert and Killmacduagh.

A humble Address of the Mayor, Bayliffs, Free Burgesses, and Commons, of the Corporation of Clonmell, in the County Palatine of Tipperary.

All which Addresses Her Majesty received very graciously.

The Address of the County of Cumberland, printed in the last Gazette, was presented to Her Majesty by Sir Edward Hájell, and George Fischer Esq; their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Carlisle Earl-Marshal of England, and Lord Lieutenant of the said County.

The Address from the County of Westmorland, inserted in the last Gazette, was presented to Her Majesty by Sir Richard Mansford Bar. one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Carlisle Earl-Marshal of England, Lord Lieutenant of the said County.

Warsaw, April 23. NS. We have received an Account, That the King of Sweden arrived at Gracno, and would there give Audience, this day, to the Ambassadors of the Republick of Poland. In the mean time his Forces march towards this Place, and raise great Contributions in the Country through which they pass, laying great Taxes particularly upon the Convents of Jesuits, and other Monasteries. And by our last Advices, the Swedish Van-Guard was advanced to Biala, a Town belonging to Prince Radzivil, about 28 Leagues from hence. The Muscovite Ambassador had Publick Audience of the King of Poland two days ago in the presence of the Senators who are in Town, and 'tis said he propos'd, That if the Republick would join in the War against Sweden, the Czar his Master would not only assist them with a considerable Sum of Money, but would restore to them Smolensko, Kiow, and some other Places which formerly belonged to the Crown of Poland; but there appears little disposition in the Polanders to embrace these Offers. The King of Poland's Summons to the Nobility, to mount on Horseback for the Defence of the Country, have not yet been obeyed. The Cardinal Primate continues in the City; The King sent to desire his Advice in this difficult Juncture, but he has excus'd himself from being concerned in Publick Affairs; The Senators and other Persons of Quality in Town have sent away their best Effects, and prepare to retire from hence; And 'tis said, the King himself intends to leave this Place very suddenly, and to go to Cracow; and his Guards have Orders to be in a readiness to attend him. The Office of Crown General is not yet dispos'd of, and 'tis now the general Discourse, that it will be given to Monsieur Lubomirsky the Crown Treasurer.

Vienna, April 26. The King of the Romans continues his Resolution of going in the beginning of the next Month to Head the Imperial Army on the Rhine. The States of the Kingdom of Bohemia have resolv'd to make him a Present of 100000 Dollars upon this Occasion; and 'tis expected, that this Example will be followed by the rest of the Emperor's Dominions. The Emperor has appointed young Count Jorger to go to England, to make the Compliments of Condolance and Congratulation in his Name to Her Majesty of Great Britain, and he intends to set out in his Journey thither in 10 or 12 days. The Marshal de Villeroy is removed from Inspruck to Graz in Styria, where he is to remain a Prisoner till his Ransom be agreed upon.

he has sent out a Detachment to reinforce the German Troops posted at Weissenburgh and Lasterburgh, and another to take possession of Amweyl. The Germans have also secured several other Posts about Landau, so that the Place is in a manner blocked up; and the German Horse have consumed the Forage in the Country about it. Monsieur Melac, the Governor of Landau, has sent Orders to the Neighbouring Villages to bring in their Provisions, their Cartel, and other Effects, but they choose rather to send them to Philipburgh, Spire, and other Places that are without the French Lines. Marshal Catinat is come to Haguenau, where he has got together 6 Regiments of Horse and Dragoons, and as many of Foot, which make about 7000 Men, and he expects to be joined in a short time by more French Forces from the Country of Metz. We hear, the French are making a Bridge over the Rhine at Huningen, in order, as is supposed, to give a Jealousie to the Circles of Swabia and Franconia, and by that means to make a Diversion of their Troops.

Wesel, May 4. The Deputies of the States General, who were sent hither to Compliment the King of Prussia, parted from hence yesterday very well satisfied with their Reception, and were each presented by the King with a Purse of Medals, to the value of a thousand Crowns. We have an Account from the Camp before Keyserwaert, that the second Instant at night, 200 Men sallied out of the Town against the Forces of Prussia, but were vigorously repulsed, with the Loss of a Captain and 2 Lieutenants, and about 20 Soldiers were killed and wounded, and as many taken Prisoners; on our side a Colonel and some Soldiers were wounded, and a Captain killed. Yesterday our Forces attacked a large Redoubt, called the Kruitberg Fort, which covered the Counterescarp, and carried it without meeting with any great Opposition, the French retiring after their first discharge, which did our Men no other mischief than the wounding of an Ensign, and 5 or 6 Soldiers. The French Forces which were entered into the Town of Burick, marched from thence yesterday, and took from the Inhabitants divers Horses and some Provisions. We hear Count Tallard, who was marching with a Body of about 6000 Men and a Train of Artillery, to post himself near the Rhine over against Keyserwaert, is countermanded, and turns his March towards Dalern, with a design, as 'tis believed, to Bombard Juliers. Marshal Boufflers's Army continues encamped near Zanten; and we hear the Earl of Athlone is still at Clarenbeck, with the Forces of the Allies under his Command.

Cologne, May 5. The French Forces which lay near Bon, to the north of the Number of about 3 or 4000 Men, marched from thence two Days ago towards Nays and Ordingen, where 'tis said Count Tallard has got together a Body of 6000 Men, and expects more Forces, intending to bombard Dusseldorp or Juliers; 1000 French Deserters came yesterday to this Place and to Mulheim, and two parties of the Dutch and Prussian Horse that are encamped near that Town, which were sent out towards Bon came home at the same time with 70 Prisoners. A Battalion of Prussian Foot, and 3 Companies of Granadiers, marched from hence this day towards the Camp of the Allies before Keyserwaert. We hear, the Troops of Hanover and Cell are marching to join the Forces of the Allies on the Lower-Rhine. Letters from the Upper-Rhine give an Account, that Marshal Catinat was arrived at Haguenau but had not yet got together above 7 or 8000 Men; That the Imperial Army under Prince Lewis of Baden increase daily by the coming up of more of the Imperial Forces, and of those of the Circles, and that they had block'd up the Town of Landau; but it was believed they would not form the Siege of that Place before the Arrival of the King of the Romans, who intends to depart from Vienna about the 10th of this Month.

Hamburg, May 5. Letters from Warsaw say, the Court there is very much alarmed at the Motions of the Swedish Forces, which continue their march towards that Place. Most of the Nobility of Poland are retired from thence, some to their Country Houses, and others as is believed are gone to meet the King of Sweden. The Heer Crasburgh, Envoy of the States-General, who is now at Riga, having received fresh Orders from the States, to offer their Mediation for a Peace between the Crowns of Sweden and Poland and the Czar of Muscovy, has desired Audience of the King of Sweden, but has not yet obtained it. The Advices from Lithuania confirm the defeat of a Body of the Forces of that Dutchy under the command of Prince Wisnowsky by a Detachment of the Swedish Army, but say the Prince had made his Escape. Yesterday being the Day appointed for the Coronation of Her Majesty of Great-Britain, the English Merchants here made a great Entertainment in the House belonging to the Company, to which the Foreign Ministers, and principal Inhabitants of this City, were invited; and in the Evening the Company were entertained with an Opera, and they had Illuminations, and gave other publick Demonstrations of Joy suitable to the great Occasion.

Hague, May 9. An Express arrived here the 6th Instant from the Earl of Athlone, giving an Account, That the Duke of Burgundy with a Body of French Forces had joined Marshal Boufflers's Army; upon which, the Battalions designed to serve on board the Dutch Fleet were ordered, to march forthwith to join the Earl of Athlone; The like Orders were dispatched to divers Battalions which lay in Zealand, and the Battalion of Dutch Guards quartered in this Place marched from hence this day for the same purpose. An Express is sent to Cassel, to hasten the March of the Forces the Landgrave of Hesse is to furnish, which amount to 9000 Men, and 9 or 10000 more are expected from Hanover and Cell, which 'tis reported the Elector of Hanover designs to Command in Person. Our Advices from Flanders say, Count Coehoorn had possessed himself of Millleburgh, a small Town with a pretty strong Castle, which lies in the way to Ostend, but what he designs farther is not yet known. The Siege of Keyserwaert has been delayed by the overflowing of the Rhine occasioned by the late Rains, but the weather having been fair for some days, 'tis hoped the Allies will soon be Masters of that Place; According to the last Accounts, they had taken a large Redoubt that covered the Counterescarp, and were preparing to make a General Assault upon the Counterescarp.

The late King's Will was opened yesterday in the presence of Mr. Stanhope Envoy Extraordinary of Her Majesty of Great-Britain, Monsieur Schmettau Envoy of the King of Prussia, the Agents of the Princes of Brise, Anhalt, Nassau Stegen, and of the Duke of Saxe Eysenac, with several of the Members of the Council of State, and some Commissioners appointed by the Court of Justice of Holland; His Majesty has therein appointed the Prince of Brise to be his Universal Heir, and he has thereupon taken the Title of Prince of Orange. The Baron Lier, one of the Ambassadors appointed by the States General to make the Compliments of Condoleance and Congratulation to Her Majesty, embarked yesterday for England; and the other two Ambassadors intend to follow in a short time, staying only for their Equipage.

Paris, May 7. A Declaration has been published here, exempting the Subjects of Lorraine from the Law, by which the Estates of Foreigners the die in the Fr. King's Dominions without being Naturalized, are to fall to the Crown; a like Privilege being granted by the Duke of Lorraine to the Subjects of France. The Republick of Venice has appointed the Sieur Piffari, who at present resides here as their Ambassador, and the Sieur Erizzo, formerly their Ambassador at the Courts of Spain and Rome, to go with the Character of their Ambassador Extraordinary to the Queen of England, to Condole with Her Majesty in the Name of the Republick upon the Death of the late King, and to Congratulate Her Majesty's Succession to the Crown. Letters from Rochford say, the Sieur Maris, Commander of the Ship Loire, one of Count Chastillon's Squadron, was returned thither, he has been as far as Vera Cruz, where he left the Spanish Galeons; When he parted from the said Squadron, 3 of their Ships had been separated from them in bad weather, which had not yet been heard of. Letters from San Naxaro of the first Instant say, the French Forces quartered about that Place were to march the next day in order to pass the Po at Cremona, and that the Duke de Fenajone intended to draw together what Forces he could in the Cremonese, in order as was said to attempt the Relief of Mantua, but that Prince Eugene had taken such good Measures, that it would be very difficult for the French to succeed in this Design. Our Advices from the Low Countries bring an Account that the Allies push on vigorously the Siege of Keyserwaert, and we give that Place over for lost.

Manchester, April 23. The Coronation of Her Sacred Majesty Queen Anne, (whose happy Accession to the Crown had been here early proclaimed with all the Demonstrations of Rejoicing and Thankfulness to God, and Loyalty to the Queen. About 10 in the forenoon, the Clergy, Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Town, repaired to the Collegiate Church, where after Divine Service, and a Sermon preached on the Occasion by Dr. Wive Warden of the College, they marched in solemn Order with Halberds, and Musick playing before them, to the Closter, which was fairly beautified and adorned with rich Garland; and thence continued the Procession to the Conduit, which was no less magnificently set out; where being regularly placed, and incircled with Halberdiers, and the young Gentlemen of the Town, who had formed themselves into a Troop for the Solemnity, together with about 100 other young Men drawn up into 2 Companies, each with white Wands in their hands, with Trumpet, Kettle-Drum, and Drums; the Conduit being plentifully supplied them with Wine to drink Her Majesty's Health, with those of the Royal Family, with Loyal Huzzas, and all due Expressions of Thankfulness, with Loyal while playing, the Bells ringing, and the People expressing all imaginable Satisfaction and Zeal to Her Majesty's Person and Government; and concluding the Solemnity of the day with Volleys of Shot, Bonfires, Illuminations, and other publick Expressions of Rejoicing and Loyalty. Coronation, Manchester, April 23. This being the day of Her Majesty's Coronation, the Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen of this Borough in their Formalities, accompanied by divers of the neighbouring Gentlemen, and such of Her Majesty's Officers as were quartered in the Town; went in the morning to the Old Church, where a Sermon was preached suitable to the Occasion, after which the Company were entertained by the Corporation; they drank Her Majesty's Health, Victory and Success to her Allies, and concluded the day with Musick, ringing of Bells, Bonfires, Illuminations, and other Demonstrations of Joy. Coventry, April 23. This day being appointed for the Queen's Coronation, about 3 in the afternoon, the Mayor and Aldermen in Scarlet, Councilhouse-men in their Gowns, Gentlemen, Clergymen, and the Town Companies in their Formalities, with each Company's Streamer, regu- larly walked from St. Mary's Hall through the principal Streets of this City to the Mayor's Parlor, where the Corporation entertained the Com- pany, and the Queen's Health was drunk; part of Colonel Ross's Dra- goons were drawn up near the Cross, who gave several Volleys, the Drums beat, the Trumpets sounded, and in all parts of the City there were general Acclamations of Joy suitable to the Occasion; And the night concluded with ringing of Bells, Bonfires, and Illuminations.

Salop, April 23. This day being Her Majesty's Coronation-day, the Mayor, attended by the Aldermen in their Scarlet Robes, and the Atti- stants and Wardens of the several Companies, with their Colours, Strea- mers, Drums and Trumpets, and by the High Sheriff, and Gentlemen of the best Quality, went to St. Chas's Church, where a Sermon (by or- der of the Corporation) was preached upon the Occasion; and after- wards the several Inhabitants of the Corporation dined in the Streets very splendidly, the Mayor, High-Sheriff, with several Gentlemen, vi- siting the several Tables, and drinking Queen Anne's Health. After which Mr. Mayor went to the Guildhall, where the Gentlemen were splendidly entertained at the Corporation Charge; the night ending with Bonfires, Bells ringing, &c. and such like Demonst'rations of Joy as has not been known in these Parts.

Chesham in the Isle of Anglesy, April 24. Yesterday being the Cor- onation of our most Gracious Sovereign Lady Queen Anne, the Towns and Villages hereabouts having made Preparation to Celebrate it with the greatest Solemnity they could, Mr. Rich. rd. Gaudin and Mr. Nasca- niel Arborne, Stewards to the Rt. Hon. the Lord Viscount Bulkeley, be- coming desirous that his Lordship's Tenants in the Manor of Chesham should in like manner demonstrate their Duty and Loyalty, provided a large Banner, which was displayed 8 or 9 Yards above the Steeple of the Church, and is to continue there; a Conduit ran with it along the several hours together, whilst 80 of the Inhabitants with their Fire-Arms made several Volleys in very good order, and handsome Fireworks were shew'd upon the Steeple, particularly at the drinking the Health of Her Majesty, his Royal Highness Prince George of Denmark, and Prosperity to the Church of England: In all the Performances, there appeared the most hearty Marks of an Universal Joy and Satisfaction that could possi- bly be.

Pembroke, April 24. Yesterday being Her Majesty's Coronation day, was observed here with as much Pomp as was possible; by ringing of Bells, making Bonfires and Illuminations, and drinking Her Majesty's Health and Prosperity.

Great Yarmouth, April 24. Yesterday being the time appointed for Her Majesty's Coronation, was observed here with all the Solemnity suita- ble to so joyful an Occasion; The morning was offer'd in with Bells ringing, the Bayliffs and Aldermen appeared at Church in their Scarlet, attended by the Common-Councilmen, and near a Hundred young Gentlemen in Arms; the great Guns were fired, and the Company were splendidly entertained at the Bayliffs at Dinner; where they drank the Queen's Health, and in the Evening appeared at the Market Cross, where Wine and Ale was distributed for the Poor to partake of the Joy of so great a Solemnity, and the Evening concluded with a general Illumination and Bonfires.

Colchester, April 24. Yesterday upon the Occasion of Her Majesty's Inauguration, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Assistants, and Common- Council, with divers Gentlemen and Clergy of the Town, and County adjacent, met at the Market-hall, whence they went to the Exchange in the Great Piazza, where at the discharge of several Cannon there placed, Her Majesty and his Royal Highness Prince George's Health were drunk, with the Drums beating, Muting sounding, and Bells ringing. Thence the Cavalcade pass'd thro' the principal part of the Town, (which as were most other Streets, was adorned with white Bays, Col- ours, Feudants, Garlands, Carpets, &c.) and returned to the Market-hall, where, at the Charge of the Corporation, was ready for them a gene- rous Treat, and Her Majesty's and Prince George's Health, and the Weal-Publick there again heartily wish'd. A great Concourse of Peo- ple more than ordinary appeared in the Streets, with loud Acclama- tions, and cheerful Countenances on this happy Occasion, with Bonfires, and Bells ringing, and an universal Demonstration of Joy.

Derby, April 25. Thursday last being the happy Day of Her Maje- sties Coronation, was here solemnized with the highest Demonst'rations of Joy that ever were shewn in this place: Thomas Carter Esq; the Mayor, at his own Charge, caus'd an Ox to be roasted whole at the Market Cross; two Tables were made (with Booths over them) the whole length of the Market place, where a noble Entertainment was provided. All the Gentlemen of the Town, and some of the Country, to the number of 500 Persons, came in to the Entertainment, and the Queen's Health was often drank. At Night the multitude of Bonfires and Illuminations, the Ringing, Musick, Dancing, and other Rejoy- cings, lengthen'd the Brightness and Cheerfulness of the Day.

Chester, April 25. The 23d Instant being the day of Her Majesty's Coronation, was observed here with great Solemnity; The Mayor, Re- corder, and Justices of the Peace in their Scarlet Gowns, and the Sher- riffs and Aldermen, with the Sword and Mace and Officers attending them, met at the Penrice, (the four and twenty Companies of the City being up in their Formalities, with an extraordinary Concourse of Gen- tury from the Country hereabouts) where Her Majesty's Health was drunk, the great Guns from our Castle firing, with Volleys of small Shot, the City Waits playing, the Bells ringing, the Conduit running with Wine for several hours together; and so concluded the evening with Bonfires, Illuminations, Garlands, and all other Demonst'rations of Joy suitable to so grave an Occasion.

St. James's, May 2. The day Her Majesty in Council was pleas'd to give Directions for drawing up a Declaration of War against France and Spain.

St. James's, May 2. This day the Rt. Hon. Daniel Earl of Nottingham was, by Her Majesty's Command, Sworn of Her Majesty's most Honourable Privy-Council, and One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State; And the Rt. Hon. Sir Charles Heagles also took the usual Oaths of One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.
