The Men of War which our Fleet is to confut of are getting together react the Genze, where about 26 of them are already arrived; and we hear, the Forces that are to ferve on boand, which are marching to join the Earl of Albidone, are countermanded, and will unbark again very fuddenly. About 50 Transport Ships arrived in the Missip 3 days ago from England, having on board the Lord Rap's Royal Regiment of Draysons, and some more English Troops: Their Ships prought in will hem a Forces Privateer. Divers of their Privateers have larely appeared on our Ceast'; One of them rook a difference of the Albidone, and put 6 Men on board her, who came near to the shour with a Design to take some more thints Boars, or to stuppife such Persons as should be waising along the Sea-lide, as they usually do there for Pleature; but they were thickverted, and some Boars tent out after them, who took them, and they were brought bither Fradhers. We have an Account from West? That a great Council had been held there, where the King of Pressig, and the Ministers and General Officers of the Connederates were present, and it was there resolved to carry on vigoronity the Siege of Keylers warr, and the King promised to furnish the Artillery and Animunition that should be wanting; Six thouland Men of the Forces of the Landgrave of Hist-Cassill are marching to join the Forces employed in that Siege, and as loon as they are come up, the general Aliault is to be made upon the Counterlearp. The Advices come in this day from Finders fay, General Carborn was before Fort St. Dorar, and that fewer and Spanish Battalions were drawing together in a Body in order to oppose him, which makes a very useful Direction of the Enemies Forces. A Train of Artillery, and a good quantity of Animunition, has lately been fent to the Earl of Athlone's Army at Crambing Specific and Spanish Battalions were drawing together in Body in order to oppose him, which makes a very useful provide and Spanish Battalions were drawing together in Body in order to oppose him, which
