St James's, May 13. The following Address from the Borough of Northampton was presented to Her Majesty by Sir William Haffler and Daniel Lascells Esq; their Representatives in Parliament.

To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Boroughmen, Freeholders, and other chief Inhabitants, of the ancient Borough of Northampton in the County of York.

May it please Your most Excellent Majesty,
WE Your Majesties most Loyal and most Obedient Subjects, do with all Humility presume to prostrate ourselves at your Royal Feet, among the rest of your People, joyfully to Congratulate your happy Accession to the Throne of your Royal Ancestors: And though we must express our Grief for the Death of our late Gracious Sovereign King William, yet we cannot but think our selves excessively happy under your Government, since Your Majesty's great Piety and Goodness, your unparalleled Clemency and Tenderness, and your known Love and Affection to our Church and Nation, fully assure us of all imaginable Fidelity under your auspicious Reign: And as it is our Duty, so we do hereby take Leave to assure Your Majesty of our Resolvment upon all Occasions to defend Your Sacred Person, and to maintain your Right and Title to these Kingdoms, against all other Pretenders whatsoever. May God make your Reign prosperous, and your Days many; may he endue You with Wisdom to Govern the Nations committed to your Charge; may he give you Victory over all your Enemies; may he Crown you with Success in all your Undertakings, and with all the Happiness you can wish for in this World; and after the longest Possession of Earthly Greatness, receive you into the Glories of a better; which is the constant Prayers of Your Majesties most Obedient Subjects.

The following Address from the Borough of Sudbury was presented to Her Majesty by Sir Gervase Elwes Bart. and Joseph Stiles Esq; their Representatives in Parliament, introduced by the Rt. Hon. Charles Lord Cornwallis, Lord Lieutenant of the County of Suffolk.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and chief Burgesses, of the ancient Corporation of Sudbury in the County of Suffolk.

Most Gracious Sovereign,
WE humbly crave Leave to express our affectionate Sorrow for the Loss of our illustrious Monarch William III. whose Death might have ruined the present Confederacy, and thereby enslaved all Europe to the insupportable Ambition of one aspiring Prince, had not Almighty God preserved Your Sacred Majesty to your Rightful Possession of the Throne of Your Royal Ancestors; for which we render our hearty Thanks to God, and with all Humility and Prostration Congratulate Your Majesties happy Accession to the Government of these Kingdoms. And we are extremely satisfied that Your Majesties auspicious beginning of your Reign has given us firm and undoubted Demonstrations of Your Majesties ascending the Church of England, and all other our Properties, Rights and Liberties, as by Law Established; and we do assure Your Majesty, that we will Stand-by and Defend Your Majesties Sacred Person in this your Hereditary, just and Legal Right, of possessing the Imperial Crown of these Kingdoms, against all Your Majesties open and secret Enemies whatsoever; and we will, with all Alacrity, assist Your Majesty in the Prosecution of the War you have proclaimed against France and Spain, wherein you have satisfied the longing Expectation of all your Loyal Subjects. Our earnest Prayers are, that God Almighty would prosper all Your Majesties Undertakings, and so bless your Arms abroad, and Councils at home, that Your Majesty may be so happy to restrain the unjust Encroachments of the French King, as to make him utterly incapable of giving Molestation to the rest of his neighbouring Princes; and that Your Majesty may vindicate the ancient Honour of England, in being the Protector of the Liberties of Europe; and that after a long and happy Enjoyment of this your Earthly Crown, You may be translated to one Immortal. In Testimony whereof, we have herewith affixed the Common Seal of our said Borough.

The following Address from the County of Hertford was presented to Her Majesty by the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Essex, Lord Lieutenant of the said County.

To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Lord Lieutenant, Deputy Lieutenants, and Justices of the Peace, of the County of Hertford.

WE Your Majesties most Dutiful Subjects, the Lord Lieutenant, Deputy Lieutenants, and Justices of the Peace, of the County of Hertford, do humbly beg Your Majesties gracious Acceptance of this most sincere and voluntary Assurance of our zealous and constant good Affection to Your Majesty, who could not by any one Circumstance have been more effectually endeared to the Hearts of your People, while filled with Grief for the Loss of so great a King and Benefactor to Mankind, than by their discerning the same pious Sorrow in Your Majesty, to a degree as eminent as your Station; so that in the first Occasion Your Majesty had of expressing your Thoughts to your People, it visibly took place of all other Considerations whatsoever.

Your Majesties great Example in this particular, (which will always put the strongest Bias upon the Minds and Inclinations of your Subjects) has taught us rather to indulge than resist our Grief: But as for those Fears which so naturally follow on the falling of so great a Pillar of the Publick Weal, Your Majesties immediate and peaceful Succession to the Crown, with the early and full Declaration of your Resolutions to carry on the Measures entered into, for reducing the dangerous Power of France, and to maintain the Succession of the Crown to Protestants; your timely Care of the Publick Credit, so that it is already farther secured and improved under Your Majesty; your known Zeal in times of most imminent Danger, for the Religion and Liberties of your Country; your earnest Recommendation of that Union of your Kingdoms, which was always desirable, and is now become necessary: These, and other Indications that Your Majesty is wholly devoted to obtain Happiness and Security for your Kingdoms, and for your self the Character of a Great and Glorious Queen, have so entirely and suddenly extinguished them, that we hardly remember they ever were.

Having such particular Obligations to Your Majesties Service, we cannot content our selves with assuring Your Majesty in general, (as we do with the utmost Sincerity) That we are constantly resolved to do and suffer all things that may conduce to the Support and Safety of your Government, against all your Enemies both at home and abroad; but also in particular, That we will, to the utmost of our Power, assist Your Majesty in the attaining all those great Ends which Your Majesty has declared to be your Purpose, or recommended to your Parliament, and in securing Your Majesties Person and Government against that Usurper of Your Majesties Titles, the pretended Prince of Wales, his Patron, and all his Adherents and Abettors whatsoever.

The following Address from the Borough of Appleby was presented to Her Majesty by Jo. Dafflon Esq; Mayor of the said Borough, and Wharton Dunch Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Lord Wharton.

To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Common Council, Burghers, and Freemen, of Your Majesties ancient and loyal Corporation of Appleby, in your County of Westmerland, assembled in the said Borough upon the Day of Your Majesties happy Coronation.

May it please Your Sacred Majesty,
WE Your Majesties most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, do humbly beg Leave to Condole with Your Majesty upon the Death of our late Gracious Sovereign King William William III. (of happy Memory) the mighty Supporter and Defender of our Religion, Laws and Liberties.

Yet with unspeakable Joy we find our selves blessed with the Care of Heaven, to preserve Your Sacred Majesty to succeed that Glorious Prince in all his Royal Virtues, and to be the mighty Accomplisher of all those Noble Designs he had, in reducing that Haughty Prince of France to his limited Bounds, and bring him to a just Sense, That 'tis in Your Majesties Power to stop the Current of his aspiring Thoughts.

And we do humbly assure Your Majesty, That we will sacrifice our Lives and Estates, for the Defence of Your Majesties Royal Person and Government, against the pretended Prince of Wales, and all other Your Majesties Enemies whatsoever, and in supporting the Crown in the Protestant Line, and the pure and unspotted Church of England as by Law Established.

And do, with Hearts full of Loyalty and Thankfulness, humbly acknowledge Your Majesties most Gracious and Unparalleled Goodness, so bountifully bestowed for the Ease of your Subjects (out of your own Revenue) for the Publick Service. And that Almighty God may ever bless and preserve your Sacred Majesty with a long and prosperous Reign over us, is, and shall be our constant and hearty Prayers.

The following Address from the County of Carmarthen was presented to Her Majesty by Griffith Rice Esq; their Representative in Parliament, introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Carbery.

To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, Grand Jury, and Gentlemen, of the County of Carmarthen, at the General Sessions of the Peace for the said County held the 15th of April, 1702.

WE Your Majesties most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, justly affected with the great Misfortune this Nation hath sustained by the Death of his late Majesty King William III. of ever blessed Memory, who (after he had been the great Instrument, under God, to rescue us from Popery and Arbitrary Power) has (during his Reign) been the great Support of the Protestant Cause, and by the Alliances by him made secured a Balance in Europe; do pray Leave to Console with Your Majesty so great a Loss, which we are assured was not otherwise to be repaired, than by Your Majesties happy Succession to the Crown: And upon that Occasion we beg Leave to Congratulate Your Majesties Accession to the Throne of your Ancestors, and wish you a long, happy, and most prosperous Reign over us.

And we humbly thank Your Majesty for your Gracious Assurances, That you will support the Church of England as by Law Established, and continue and maintain those Alliances made by our late Gracious Sovereign, which has disappointed the Hopes of your Enemies, and given great Encouragement to your Allies.

And we do unanimously assure Your Majesty, That we will, at all times, to the utmost of our Power, assist Your Majesty with our Lives and Fortunes, against the pretended Prince of Wales, and his Adherents, and all other your Enemies whatsoever.

The following Address from the Town of Carmarthen was presented to Her Majesty by Richard Vaughan Esq; their Representative in Parliament, introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Carbery.

To Your most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Grand Jury, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Burgesses of the County Borough of Carmarthen, at their General Sessions of the Peace held on the 20th day of April last.

THE Death of his late Majesty King William III. of immortal Memory, was of that Consequence as well to all Europe in general, as to Your Majesties Kingdoms and Dominions in particular, that so publick a Community was not otherwise to be repaired than by Your Majesties Succession; upon whom Providence has bestowed such Royal Virtues and Endowments, that your Reign seems calculated to raise and establish the Honour and Reputation of England, and the Welfare and Happiness of your People, to a higher degree, and upon a more lasting Foundation than ever yet they arrived unto.

The great Work of Reducing the Exorbitant Power of France, and Restoring the Balance of Europe, was begun by your late Royal Brother; but the Glory of finishing and bringing it to perfection is reserved for Your Majesty: And we beg Leave to make this solemn and hearty Assurance,

That we shall, at all times, and upon all occasions, be ready to sacrifice our Lives, Estates, and all that is dear and valuable to us for the carrying on that, and all other your glorious Undertakings, whether they relate to the general and common Interest of Your Majesty, and your Allies abroad, or to our own more particular and immediate Concern at home, the preserving the Succession of the Crown in the Protestant Line, and the Constitution in Church and State as by Law established, against the Pretended Prince of Wales, and all other Your Majesties Enemies. In Testimony whereof, we have hereunto set our Names, and the Common Seal of our Corporation.

An humble Address of the Custos Rotulorum, Justices of Peace, and Grand Jury, assembled at the Sessions for the County of Northampton; together with the rest of the Gentlemen and Freeholders of the said County, was presented to Her Majesty by Sir John Isham Bart. and Thomas Cartwright Esq; their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Peterborough, Lord Lieutenant of the said County.

An humble Address of the Bayliff, Jurats, and Commonalty, of Romney-Marsh in the County of Kent was presented to Her Majesty.

The following Address was presented to Her Majesty by his Excellency the Earl of Rochester, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.

To Her most Sacred Majesty, Anne, by the Grace of God, of England, Scotland, France and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith, &c.

The humble Address of the Sovereign, Recorder, Burgesses, and Commonalty, of the Town of Kingsale, and of the Officers of Your Majesties Yard there.

Most Gracious Sovereign,
THE unspeakable Loss of the Best and Greatest of Kings, our late Sovereign William III. our Deliverer and Protector, (under God) we humbly beg Leave to Console with Your Majesty, among the rest of your Dutiful Subjects, and most humbly and sincerely to assure Your Majesty, That nothing but your happy Succession in the Throne of your Ancestors, (which we heartily Congratulate) could have raised our dejected Spirits: And your Gracious Assurances given your good Subjects, justly Command the unfeigned Tender of all that is near and dear to us for your Service, and the Continuance of our fervent Prayers to God, That you may long be the Glorious Queen of Great Britain, France and Ireland, and make you the happy Instrument to reduce the Tyrannical Power of France, the Impudent Pretences of the pretended Prince of Wales, and all other Your Majesties and our Enemies. In Testimony whereof, we have hereunto affixed the Common Seal of this Corporation this 27th day of April, in the Year of our Lord 1702. and in the First Year of Your Majesties Reign.

The following Addresses were likewise presented to Her Majesty by his Excellency the Earl of Rochester, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.

An humble Address of the High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, Grand Jury, Gentlemen, and Freeholders, of the County of Meath, at their General Assizes held at Trym the 31st of March, 1702.

An humble Address of the High Sheriff, Lieutenant of the County, Justices of the Peace, Grand Jury, and other Your Majesties most Loyal Subjects, of the County of Carlow, at the Assizes held for the said County the second of April, 1702.

An humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriffs, Burgesses, and Commonalty, of the Town and County of Carrickfergus.

An humble Address of the Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, Grand Jury, and Freeholders, of the County of Fermanagh, at the Assizes held at Eniskilling for the said County the 6th day of April, in the First year of Her Majesties Reign.

An humble Address of the High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, Grand Jury, Freeholders, and principal Inhabitants, of the County of Longford, met at a General Sessions of the Peace held for the said County on Tuesday the 14th day of April, 1702.

An humble Address of the Sovereign, Bayliffs, Burgesses, and Freemen, of the Town and Borough of Lanesborough, in the County of Longford.

An humble Address of the Bishop and the rest of the Clergy of the Diocese of Limerick.

An humble Address of the Sovereign, Burgesses, and Commonalty, of the Borough of Belfast.

An humble Address of the Sovereign, Burgesſes, Bayliffs, and Freemen, of Her Majeſties Corporation of Paris.

An humble Address of the Portricives, Burgesſes, and Freemen, of the ancient Borough of Tulſke, in the County of Reſconon.

All which Addreſſes Her Majeſty received very graciously.

From the Imperial Head Quarters at Luzzara, May 5. N. S. The 25th paſt, Prince Thomas of Vaudemont ſent Advice, That 8 French Deferters were come over to him, 1 of which had been 2 days in Cremona, who gave an Account, That there were in that Town 12 Battalions of Foot that had Orders, upon the Signal of 5 Cannon Shots, to join the Duke de Vendome, who had 22 Battalions of Foot, 3 Regiments of Horſe, and 2 of Dragoons, in the Neighbourhood of Lodi and Picighittone, ready to march upon the firſt Warning; all which was ſaid the next day by Count Herberstein. The 27th, Prince Eugene gave Orders that all the Army ſhould march from their Quarters by the 1ſt Inſtant, in order to encamp. Some Country People in the Cremona ſurprized ſeveral French Officers and Soldiers, of whom they killed one, and carried away the reſt Priſoners to Uitiano. The 28th, the Weather was very rainy, whereupon the Encampment was put off for that time.

The 30th, one of our Parties took a Spaniſh Lieutenant, and ſome Soldiers about a League below Cremona, and poſſeſſed themſelves of a portable Mill the French were carrying up the Po to that Town, which our Men brought away to Uitiano. A Party of 30 of Paul Dack's Miltars made an Excursion ſo near to the Walls of Cremona, that they fired upon one of the Centinels that was placed upon the Baſtion, and killed him, and took away the Linnen that was hanged out to dry upon the Palifades: Many Shots were made at them from the Town, but did them no Miſchief; and they brought away with them a Priſoner, 6 Horſes, and a Mule. The 1ſt Inſtant, we were informed both by our Spies and Deferters, That the French would march in a day or two; and Prince Thomas of Vaudemont ſent Advice, That divers of their Boats laden with Proviſions had paſſed before Piacenza, going down the Po. The ſaid, we had ſeveral uncertain Accounts of the Enemy's Motions and Deſigns: However Prince Eugene gave Orders that all the Regiments, both Horſe and Foot, and the Train of Artillery, ſhould march, part towards Gualtieri, and the reſt towards Borghetto, in order to paſs the Po, and to draw together near Gazolo.

The 3d, we had an Account, That the Enemy the day before had abandoned Corte Maggiore, but that 2 hours after they altered their Deſigns, and ſent a Body of 1000 Horſe to take Poſſeſſion of it again; and that they had deterr'd their March till the Arrival of their heavy Artillery from Pavia, and of the Forces of Savoy, conſiſting of 4 Regiments of Horſe, and 6 of Foot, which would join them in 5 or 6 days: As for their Deſigns, we had various Accounts of them, ſome ſaying they would march towards Uitiano in order to relieve Manza, and others, that they intended to beſiege Bertello. In purſuance of the Orders given the day before, all our Forces began to move, and the General of the Artillery, Count Guido Staremberg, paſſed the Po near Gualtieri with 5 Regiments of Foot, and marched towards Gazolo. Two Battalions of Foot, one of the Regiment of Old Leun, and the other of Lichtenſtein, are arrived here from Germany, and Exprefſes were diſpatched to the ſaid of our Reinforcements, to haſten their March. The 4th, the Po and the Oglio ſwell'd very much by the Rains. General Guido Staremberg ſent an Account, That he was encamped with his 5 Regiments of Foot near Gazolo. The 5th, we received Advice, That the Enemy were actually in Motion, and were marched 5 Leagues above Cremona, towards St. Fiorano, or Pietro di S. Olmo; upon which Prince Thomas of Vaudemont, with the Regiments of Horſe under his Command, march'd from his Quarters in the Parmeſan towards Braſforte, whether came alſo this day the Battalion of Old Daun above-mentioned. Orders are ſent to Count Guido Staremberg to draw together the Forces quarter'd near the Oglio, and to paſs that River, and poſt himſelf between Campidello and Marcaria alla poſte, and the 2 Regiments of Serini and Commerci, which are now at Borghetto, are order'd to join him. The Enemy daily expect the Forces of Savoy, and have made preparations for ſome great Expedition, which is kept ſecret. There is an Account, That the firſt Companies of the Regiments of the Rhingrave and Raventlau, which are coming up to join us, are embark'd in ſeveral Boats at Bronzolo, upon the River Adige, and that the ſaid Companies of their Regiments will embark there for the 7th; and we hope the reſt of our Reinforcements will not be far behind them.

Vienna, May 6. The Imperial Court went yeſterday from hence to Luxembourg. The King of the Romans will be going to the Rhine to Command there about the middle of this Month. Colonel Schlick has Orders to be in a readineſs for a Journey, and 'tis ſaid the Emperor intends to ſend him to the Elector of Bavaria, to deſire Paſſage through his Territories for the Imperial Forces which are marching from the Emperor's Hereditary Dominions to the Upper Rhine.

From the Imperial Camp at Langenkandel, May 12. Prince Lewis of Baden has given Orders for caſting up ſeveral Redoubts and other Works about Landau, and a good number of Pioneers being commanded for that purpoſe, a ſtrong Guard was given them under the Command of Major General Rebinder, and by the 9th Inſtant they were advanced within Cannon-ſhot of the Place. The 10th, the General went to Weiffenbourg, to view ſome Works he had order'd to be made near that Town along the River Lauter. The French having burnt a Village called Borichheimb, and threatening to burn ſeveral other Places about Landau, his Highneſs ſent a Meſſage to Monſieur Melac, the Governor of Landau, to let him know, That if the French proceed in that manner, he will follow the Example of Count Thungen, Governor of Mentz in the late War, in revenging it upon the Priſoners. Yeſterday Count Leiningen was ſent from hence, with Orders to draw as many Men as could be ſpared out of the Towns that are leaſt expoſed, in order to form a Body of 1500 or 2000 Men, who are to poſt themſelves at Eiſingen, a League above Landau, which will entirely block up that Town. Major General Oettingen was order'd with a Detachment of Foot and Dragoons to attack a ſmall Body of the Garriſon of Landau, who had intrench'd themſelves in the Church-Yard of Quaichen under the Cannon of that Town, and accordingly he march'd thither laſt night, and found the Place guarded by a Lieutenant and 30 Soldiers; who being ſupported by the Cannon of the Town, which kept firing very briskly, made a ſtout Reſiſtance, and being at length beat from their Intrenchments, they retired into the Steeple of the Church of Quaichen, and refus'd to ſurrender themſelves Priſoners; upon which our Men ſet fire to the Steeple, and moſt of the French were burnt; We had in this Action 8 Men killed, and about 20 wounded. Major General Rebinder at the ſame time took a Mill near Landau, where the French had poſted ſome Men, who very much incommoded our Workmen. We hear that Marſhal Cathart has yet got together but a ſmall number of the Forces he is to Command.

Francfort, May 14. Our laſt Accounts from the Imperial Army at Langenkandel ſay, the Garriſon of Landau had made a Sally to endeavour to beat the German from ſome Poſts they have lately taken very near that Place, and to ruin their Works, but had been beaten back with conſiderable Loſs. Marſhal Cathart is ſtill encamped near Haguenuit, and has choſen a ſmall Place called Brunat for his Head Quarters, and it is ſaid he intends to expect there the Forces which are marching to join him from the Biſhoprick of Metz, and from the Country of Luxembourg. The Diet of the Electoral Circle of the Rhine is to meet here to morrow.

Duſſeldorp, May 16. The Forces of the Alies before Keyſerſwaert continue to batter that Place, and as ſoon as the Reinforcements they expect are arriv'd, will make a General Assault upon the Counterſcarp. The French fire very ſmartly partly from the Batteries they have raised on the other side the Rhine against the Besiegers, which has obliged the Dutch to make some Alteration in the Disposition of their Camp, and of their Attacks. Count Tallard continues in the neighbourhood of this City with a Body of 6000 French. The Earl of Athlone is still encamped at Gravenbourg, where he daily receives new Reinforcements; and Marshal Boufflers continues in his Camp at Santen.

Mastricht, May 15. A Party of 500 Men of this Garrison, who were sent out to favour the late Design upon Huy, being met by a stronger Body of French, were obliged to retire into the Castle of Horion, not far from Liege, where they were attacked by a Body of French Forces under the Command of Prince Serclaus, who had with him 6 Pieces of Cannon; but our Men defended themselves so well, that the French were forced to retire with the Loss of about 40 Men killed, and a great number wounded; We hearing that the French intended to lie in wait to intercept our Men in their Return to this Place, a strong Detachment of our Garrison was thereupon sent out to join them.

Paris, May 12. N. S. Letters from the French Army in Italy of the 2d Instant give an Account, That the Grass being grown, the Duke of Vendosme intended to march the 5th or the 6th Instant at farthest upon some important Expedition, which is kept secret; His Army is said to consist of 63 Squadrons of Horse, 8 of Gens d'Armes, 4 of Carabiniers, 18 of Dragoons, and of 26 Battalions of Foot; these latter are stronger than the German Foot by 6000 Men, but the Horse are considerably inferior in number to theirs. The French King has lately published a Declaration, to prolong for 3 years more the Prohibition of the new Converts to dispose of their Estates.

Portsmouth, May 12. Her Majesty's Ship the Medway came yesterday to Spithead, and brought in with Her a French Prize called La Trompette, being a Privateer of 6 Guns, 6 Patereroes, and 55 Men.

Westminster, May 11. This day the Right Honourable the Lord Godolphin, Lord High Treasurer of England, being accompanied by a great number of the Nobility, and other Persons of Quality, and attended by the Officers of the Exchequer, and several other Officers of the Revenue, in their Formalities, came to Westminster-Hall and was Sworn in the Courts of Chancery and Exchequer in the usual manner.

St. James's, May 12. His Excellency the Earl of Marlborough went this day towards Margate, intending there to embark for Holland.
