St. James's, June 8. The following Address of the Twelve thousand Men, was presented to Her Majesty by the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Radnor, Lord Warden of the Strannaries,

To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Bounders, Adventurers, Miners, and others, concerned in the Strannaries and Duchy of Cornwall.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

Having paid some part of the Tribute of Tears that is due to our late Sovereign Lord William III. of most Glorious Memory, we most humbly and heartily congratulate Your Majesty's happy Accession to the Throne of these Kingdoms, your undoubted Right, which is the only Corner we were capable of, after the unspeakable Loss of the best, the bravest, and best of Kings; unto whom (next Heaven) we owe not only the Enjoyment of our Religion, Liberty and Property, but also the Blessing of Your Majesty's auspicious Reign over us.

Your Majesty's Exemplary Piety, Justice, and Prudence, before they became Ornaments to the Crown, gave us an earnest of the Happiness we were to enjoy under your Government; And all your Subjects join in a dutiful Admiration of these your Princely Virtues, which have already rendered all Parties to such a degree of Unanimity, as will surpass the only Hope of our Enemies, and make the Prophecies of our late Gracious Sovereign, leaving no Distinction among us, but of those who are in the present Establishment in Church and State, and those who mean a Popish Prince and a French Government.

The Eyes of the World are fixed on Your Majesty, as the only Power on Earth from whom the injured Princes and States of Europe can hope for a Redress of their Wrongs. We beseech Almighty God to bless and preserve Your Majesty, to direct your Councils, and prosper your Arms, that you may successfully execute the great Trust reposed in you by the King for the good of Mankind: The accomplishment of which seems to be an Honour reserved for Your Majesty, as a Reward of your Zeal for the Church of England in a former Reign; of your Compassion for your Country then ready to be enslaved, and of your Heroick Contempt of all Danger, that threatened you for concurring with Your Royal Brother, of ever Blessed Memory, in the Glorious War of our Deliverance.

The following Address was presented to Her Majesty by the Rt. Rev. Edward Lord Bishop of St. Asaph, and several of the Clergy of the said Diocese.

To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, and the Clergy, of the Diocese of St. Asaph.

May it please Your Majesty, We have been for want of a ready Will and entire Obedience that we have not before this attended Your Majesty with our hearty Congratulations, as well as Condolence for the Death of the late King.

We do assure Your Majesty none rejoice more sincerely at your happy Accession to the Throne of your Royal Ancestors, and confident of your fixed Resolutions to renounce all unchristian Power.

Your Majesty having begun your Reign with Publick Acts and Demonstrations of an exemplary Piety and distinguished Wisdom, of singular Bounty and Munificence, of Care for the established Church, and Concern for the Situation in the Protestant Line, we cannot but express the Sense of Gratitude, in imploring the Divine Goodness for Your Majesty's long and prosperous Reign over us.

We do crave Leave to assure Your Majesty of our entire and irrevocable Faith and Allegiance, (a Natural and Constitutional Principle of our Country and Ancestors) and that we will to the utmost of our Power, defend Your Majesty's lawful and Rightful Title to these Kingdoms against all your Enemies, and particularly the pretended Prince of Wales.

By that Grace of God, by which you Reign, secure the Royal Person, and establish your Throne in the steady Affection of your People, as well as by the Triumphs of your Army.

To Queen ANNE, over England, &c.

The Humble and Thankfull Acknowledgment of the People commonly called Quakers, from their Yearly General Meeting in London the 30th Day of the Third Month, called May 1702. presented to Her Majesty by William Penn Esq; accompanied by several of the said General Meeting.

May it please the Queen, WE thy Peaceable and Dutiful Subjects, met from most Parts of thy Dominions, at our usual Yearly Meeting, for the Promotion of Piety and Charity, being deeply affected with thy Wise and Noble Resolution in thy late Speech at the Prorogation of the Parliament, to preserve and maintain the Act of Toleration, for the Ease and Quiet of all thy People, could not but in Gratitude esteem our selves engaged both to thank Almighty God for that favourable Influence, and to renew and render our humble and hearty Acknowledgments to the Queen for the same; assuring Her (on behalf of all our Friends) of our Sincere Affection and Christian Obedience.

And we beseech God, the Fountain of Wisdom and Goodness, so to direct all thy Councils and Undertakings, that Righteousness, which exalts a Nation, and Mercy and Justice, that establish a Throne, may be the Character of thy Reign, and the Blessings of these Kingdoms under it.

Signed by the Appointment and on the Behalf of the said Meeting, by us.

To which Her Majesty was graciously pleased to Answer,

I am very glad you are so well pleased with what I have said; and you may depend upon My Protection.

An humble Address of the Bishop and Clergy of the Dioceses of Killala and Accory; was presented to Her Majesty by his Excellency the Earl of Rochester, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.

Which Adresses Her Majesty received very graciously.

Warsaw, May 28. N.S. The King of Sweden came the 22d Instant to Prege, upon the River Wysell; after which his Majesty took a view of this City, and of several Monasteries in our neighbourhood; and the 25th he summoned the Weywode Polotsky, our Governor, to surrender, which he soon consented to; and accordingly the next morning, about break of day, the Forces of Poland, which were in Garison here, marched out of the Cattle; and 400 Swedish Foot took possession of it. The Swedes observe strict Discipline, and tell the Inhabitants of this Place that they design to maintain a good Correspondence and Friendship with them; About 15000 Swedes more are shortly expected here, and it is said, the King of Sweden intends to leave a strong Garison in this Place, and to march with the rest of his Army towards Cracaw, to find the King of Poland; who according to some of our late Accounts from thence, was on his departure from that Place, intending to go to Silesia, in order to head his own Troops, which are marching through that Country to Poland, and had caused a great Magazine of Provisions to be prepared for them at Tarnowitz, on the Frontiers of this Kingdom. We hear the best part of the Army of the Crown is arrived at the Rendezvous near Lemberg; but that those Forces are in an ill Condition, and little dependence can be had upon them.

Paris, June 5. N.S. The Comte de Toulouze, High Admiral of France, went post from hence the 29th past towards Toulon, with Monieur de Rebinques, Lieutenant General of the French Fleet, in order to command the French Men of War which are fixed out in that Harbour. The 31st, the Deputies of the Clergy of France, who are met at St. Germain en Laye, went in a Body to Versailles to wait upon the King, being conducted by Monieur de Granger, Master of the Ceremonies, and introduced by Monieur Ponchartrain, one of the Secretaries of State: The Cardinal de Noailles complimented the King in their Names, and they afterwards had Audience in like manner of the Dauphin.
