And We do hereby Promise and Declare, That whatsoever shall, during this present War, Discover and Apprehend any Person or Persons, who shall return from France contrary to the said Act, or who shall go to, or Embark in any Ship or Vessel with intent to go to any of the French Kings Dominions, and shall bring such Person and Persons, so Taken and Apprehended before the next, or some other Justice of the Peace, in order to their being Committed and Proceeded against according to Law, shall for every such Person so Taken and Apprehended and brought before Justice of the Peace or Chief Magistrate, Receive as a Reward the Sum of Forty Pounds of Lawful Money of England, which Our High Treasurer or the Commissioners of Our Treasury for the time being, is and are hereby Directed to Pay according; And for the Doing thereof, this Our Royal Proclamation shall be a sufficient Warrant without any further Direction in that behalf.

And We do hereby further Direct and Require all Our Officers aforesaid, that they do cause every Person coming into this Our Kingdom, from the French or Spanish Dominions, during this present War, to appear before one of Our Justices of the Peace, to be Examined concerning such Persons coming into this Our Realm: And if such Justice of the Peace on such Examination, shall find reasonable Cause to suspect such Persons coming to it with design to Disturb Our Government, or that such Person hath had any Correspondence with Our Enemies, he is hereby Required to take sufficient Security for such Persons appearing in Our Court, called the Queens Bench at Westminster, in the then next Term, and in Default thereof, to Commit such Person to the Common Goal of the County or Place, where he shall be Apprehended, there to remain till Discharged by Due Course of Law, and thereof immediately to give Notice in Writing to one of Our Principal Secretaries of State.

ANNE R.

WHEREAS We have been Informed, That notwithstanding the Encouragement given by Our late Royal Brother King William the Third, by His Royal Proclamations Dated the Eighth of January, and Twelfth of February last, for Seamen to Enter themselves on Board His said Majesty's Ships of War, divers Seamen and Mariners, for whose Service we have Present Occasion, have lately Left their Usual and Ordinary Places of Abode, and have Removed themselves into Private and Obscure Places in and about Our Cities of London and Westminster, and Borough of Southwark, and Parts Adjacent, and elsewhere, Encouraging thereby to Avoid Our Present Service: We therefore (by the Advice of Our Privy Council) have thought fit to Publish this Our Royal Proclamation, and do hereby strictly Charge and Command all Seamen and Mariners, now being and remaining in any County of England or Wales, and not already Listed, or Entered into Our Service, That they forthwith Render themselves into the Principal Officers and Commissioners of our Navy in London, or to the Commissioners of the Navy at such Ports and Places that shall be nearest to the Place where they now are, in Order to their being Received into Pay, and Sent on Board such of Our Ships of War, as shall be found most Expedient for Our Service; And Declare, if any of them shall hereafter be Found out or Discovered to have Neglected to Obey this Our Royal Command, they shall be Proceeded against with all Severity of Law for such their Contempt. And for the Encouragement of all such Seamen, and Able-Bodied Landmen, with greater Alacrity and Cheerfulness to Enter themselves in Our Service, and Remain on Board Our Ships of War in Our Royal Navy, We do hereby Promise and Declare, That if any Seaman, or Able-Bodied Landman (other than such who shall Desert any of Our Ships of War,

And We do hereby further Charge and Command all Our Captains, Commanding any of Our Ships of War, to Transmitt to the Commissioners of Our Navy, true Accounts in Writing, under their Hands, of the several Times when the said Men shall respectively come on Board. And We are also solemnly moved to Declare, That Conduct-Money, according to the Practice of the Navy, (over and besides Our said Bounty-Money) shall be allowed to such Seamen and Landmen as shall Voluntarily Enter themselves for Our Sea Service, according to the true Meaning of this Our Royal Proclamation. And We do hereby Require and Command the Lord Mayor of Our City of London, and all Our Justices of the Peace, Constables, and other Officers of Our Cities of London and Westminster, County of Middlesex, and Boroughs of Southwark in the County of Surrey, and other the Parts and Places near adjoining to the same, That they do make, or cause to be made, diligent Search, within all and every their Precincts and Jurisdictions, for the said Seamen and Mariners, and Seize and Seize, or cause to be Seized and Secured, the Persons of such of them as shall be there found (other than such who shall have Entered themselves, as aforesaid, within the Time Limited, as aforesaid, for his or their Repairing on Board Our Ships of War; and other than such as are or shall be Protested, as being in Our immediate Service Employed by the Commissioners of Our Navy, Officers of Our Ordnance, Commissioners for Victualling Our Fleet, or Our Commissioners for Transportation) and cause them to be sent and put on Board such of Our Ships or Tenders that shall be appointed to lie in the River of Thames to Receive them, in order to their being Employed in Our Service; And that they do also send up to the Commissioners of Our Navy, a List of the Names of all such Seamen and Mariners as they shall procure for the Service aforesaid. The following Address was presented to Her Majesty.
To the most Illustrious and High-born Princess ANNE, by the Grace of GOD, Queen of England, Scotland, France, and Ireland, Defender of the Faith.

The most humble Address of the President, Vice-President, Treasurer, Court of Assistance, and Body of the Artillery Company in the City of London.

Permit us, mighty Queen, to Condole with the rest of your Faithful Subjects, for the Death of our late most Glorious and Heroic Sovereign of Immortal Memory William III. the Deliverer of these Nations from Impending Slavery and Superstition, the Restorer and Maintainer of the Liberties of Europe, and Protector of the Protestant Interest in all the Parts of the Earth.

But of all the Obligations he laid upon the People of England, what we must ever remember, with the most feeling Sense of Gratitude, is, the Preserving Your Majesty from being excluded from the Throne; your Accession to which we congratulate with the greatest Sincerity, having not only the most Rightful and Lawful Title in the World, but using likewise the worthiest to succeed our deceased Monarch, by your rash taken Assistance to the Church of England; your entire Disposition to render Conscience your glorious Religion of humbling Prayers, of supporting your Allies, maintaining the Succession of the Crown in the Protestant Line, and encouraging the peaceable Professions of Arts and Trade in the midst of tumultuous Wars.

According to the Institution of our Company we promise to do our best in training your loyal Citizens to the Use of Arms, for the Security of your Royal Person, Title, and Dignity, and the Preservation of those Blessings so much worth fighting for, which Citizens can only enjoy in a free Government, and under so Excellent a Prince. And in all Humility we pray, that Your Majesty would be graciously pleas'd to appoint us a Captain-General, which George the late King did us the Honour to take upon himself, according to the Example of some of your Royal Predecessors.
And on our parts we will never be wanting in Gratitude or Duty, with the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, to support your Cause and Person, against the pretended Prince of Wales, and all Your Majesty's open or secret Enemies whatsoever.

Which Address Her Majesty received very graciously.

Winchell, June 24. The Three Poits that were due from Holland came in late this night, and bring the following Advices:

Hague, Jun 30. N. S. The King of Prussia came hither the 23d Instant, and was received with the Honours due to his Rank and Dignity. The Earl of Athlone has been here to receive new Instructions from the States General, and is since returned to his Army, which continues in the same Poits, part of the road before Nimwegen, and the rest with the Horse along the Rhine; they hourly expect to be joined by 6000 Men of the forces of Hesse, and two Regiments of those of Prussia; as also by Troops of Lunenburg, which are arrived at Amsham in Consideration. The French Garrison is march'd out of Keylerwaert, and the French have since our taking that Place abandoned Nuy and Zand, which have put themselves under the Emperor's Protection; The best part of the Forces employ'd in that Siege are marching down the Rhine to join the Earl of Athlone, upon which Count Taland has rejoined the Duke of Burgundy's Army, which is still in the same Camp near Cleves.

Strasbourg, June 25. Prince Lewis of Baden decamp'd the 10th from Laigenselden, in order to form the Siege of Landau, and accordingly having posted his Army about that Place, the Trenches were opened the 12th. The Allies have a strong body of Horse near Luzon Weisenbourg to observe Marshal Catmar's Army, which is still encamp'd near Hagenau.

Vienna, June 16. N. S. The Imperial Army under Prince Eugene continues in the same Camp near Car-tion; The French Army remains still in a Line from the Neighbourhood of that Place to Mannheim; Besides which the French have a strong Camp in the Marsh for the Security of their Army; and another Entrenchment near Wissembourg. The Germans have received another Reinforcement, and are under no Apprehension of the French; they lately made an Attempt to surprise the Lake of Vendome in his Quarters, which ended in success, through the Inprudence of one of the Party employ'd in that Design, who fell upon a Centinel, and alarm'd the French.

Bristol, June 22. The Little Bristol, John Ring Master, arriv'd here the 20th Instant from Newfoundland.
The same day came in here the Happy Return Engagement from Jamaica, having spent 7 weeks in her Passage: The Master reports, that he lost the Squadron of Her Majesty's Ships under the Command of Admiral Lambow at Jamaica; but that he met afterwards with a sloop which came from thence, and gave an Account, that the said Squadron put to Sea about 6 weeks ago but does not say whether they failed.

Comes, June 22. The Rose-tree of Middleburgh, a Caper of 13 Guns, Peter Burrence Commander, came in here yesterday with a small French Privateer belonging to Brazil, which he took in the Channel; He had before sent home another Prize, being a French Merchant Ship laden with Wine and Brandy.

Portsmouth, June 23. Rear-Admiral Fairborne and Rear-Admiral Graniton, with one Dutch Flag and 20 Men of War, English and Dutch, sail'd yesterday from St. Helens. Sir George Cooke continues there with Her Majesty's Fleet. Sir Cloudesly Shovel is at Spithead, with a strong Squadron of Men of War.

Yesterday a small French Privateer being chased in at the Needles, and endeavouring to get out at St. Helens, was taken by Her Majesty's Ship the Affliction.

Dover, June 23. Her Majesty's Ship the Goshawk and the Merlin sloop came into the Downs late Sunday, having under their Convoy the Mary Galle, Thomas Harrison Master, from Sommerset; the Penelope, John Bridges Master, from the Mauritius; the Royal Galle from Leghorn; the Mars, William Jervis Master, from Lisbon, and about 11 or 12 small homeward-bound Merchant ships. This day 8 of Her Majesty's Ships, and one Bound-Return, sail'd from the Downs to the Westward, with divers Victuals, store-ships, Tenders, and Coasters, and two Dutch Transport Ships which came under the Sunday with soldiers from Holland.

St. James's, June 22. This day Count Jergen, who is sent by the Emperor with the Character of his Envoy Extraordinary, to make his Compliments of Condoleance and Congratulation to Her Majesty upon the late King's Death and Her Majesty's Succession to the Crown, had Publick Audience of Her Majesty; being introduced by Sir Charles Cottrill Master of the Ceremonies.

After which he had Audience of His Royal Highness Prince George of Denmark; being introduced in like manner.

His Royal Highness Prince George of Denmark has appointed Edward Nicholas Esq; to be his Treasurer.

St. James's, June 24. This day the Count de Maffey, Envoy Extraordinary from the Duke of Saxony, had Publick Audience of Leave of Her Majesty; being introduced by Sir Charles Cottrill Master of the Ceremonies.

After which he had likewise his Audience of Leave of His Royal Highness Prince George of Denmark.

St. James's, June 24. The Queen has been pleas'd to appoint his Grace the Duke of Devonshire, Lord Steward of Her Majesty's Household; to be Lord Lieutenant of the County of Derby; his Grace the Duke of Ormond to be Lord Lieutenant of the County of Somerset; his Grace the Duke of Northumberland Lord Lieutenant of the County of Surrey; his Grace the Duke of Bolton Lord Lieutenant of the Counties

Lord Lieutenant of the County of Warwick;
