Which Address Her Majesty received very graciously.

Marfeilles, July 18. N. S. By a Ship which came into this Port fome days ago from Timis, we have the following Account of the killing of Amurat Bey, and all those of his Family, which had Governed that Kingdom above 100 years: He was in War with the Governments of Algiers and Tripoli, and parted from Timis in the beginning of June, in order to go to his Army, which has allowed the Army which has allowed the Army which has the statement the second the Thing in the beginning of Jime, in order to go to his Army, which was then encamped near By hey, and the 9th of that Month he came to a Village called Lout-Zarga, nor above 10 miles from the Camp, where he lay that night, and the next morning continued his Journey; But he had fearce advanced a League on his way, when lorakim Kerif, Aga or Colonel of his Turkifb Spahi's, with about 20 of his Men, came up to the Bey's Coach, and fixed a Piffol at him; whereupon the Bey offered to alight, in order to make his Efcape, but the Aga's Men laid nold of him, and cut off his Head, and his two Coulins, Amarat and Haffan, Sons of Memer Bey, who were prefert, and ayound to get the Aga's Men laid nold of him, and cut off his Head, and his two Courins, Amerat and Haffin, Sons of Mehemet Bey, who were prefert, endeavoured to get away, but in vain; for being purfued and evertaken, their Heads were likewise taken off. Then Israhim went to the Aimy, and found the Report of what had passed had already reached the Camp, and excited some Commotion there; but the late Bey being universally hated for his Gruelty and Oppiession, and Israhim generally beloved, the Tunnelt was soon appeased, and Ibrahim was unanimously chosen to succeed in the Government, and Proclaimed Bey at the head of the Army. The 11th, Hamond, Ameras's Unkle, and his Son Haffan, who was not above 4 years old, were thrangled at Tunis by the new Bey's Order, and their two Heads, with those of the late Bey, and his Coulins Amuras and Haffan above-mentioned, were there exposed to publick View for several days, to the great Satisfaction of the People, who rejoiced to see that Family extinst, under whose Tyranny they had suffered so long. Israhim, to render the beginning of his Reign Grateial to the Moors, has remitted to them all the Arrears of Taxes that were owing to his Predecctor; has given Leave to those of Cairoan to rebuild their City, which the late Bey had destroyed, and has promised his Protection to all those who had left their Habitations to fly from that Prince's Oppression, whereof a great number are returned: He has also lent Proposition? Perser, to those the returned.

late Bey had destroyed, and has promised his Protection to all those who had left their Habitations to fly from that Prince's Oppression, whereof a great number are returned: He has also sent Proposals of Peace to those of Tripoli and Aigier.

Milan, July 19. Don Livio Odestalchi's Estate in this Dutchy being consistented, because of his adhering to the Emperor's Interest, he has made it over to his Nephew Count Borronneo, who is come hither to claim it, and has obtained an Order from the King of Spain for his being put in Possession of it. They write from Piacenza, that Prince Eugene has writ to the Duke of Parma, who is a Vassal of the Empire, on account of the Dutchy of Piacenza, requiring him to cause the Corn of his Subjects to be brought from the open Country into the Cities, and all other Methods to be used to prevent its falling into the hands of the Emperor's Enemies, and not to supply them with Provisions, as he shall answer the contrary.

Rome, July 22. Cardinal Barberini being lately returned from Naples, where he was with the Character of the Pope's Legate a Latere, made his Entry into Town the 20th Initant, and had Audience of the Pope, to give him an account of his Legation. The Pope has sent Signior Sardini to the Court of Savoy, to endeavour to accommodate the Differences between him-self-felt and that Duke, concerning the Nomination to such Benefices as become vacant in his Territories. The Number of those who are Favourers of the Emperor's Interest is considerably increased in the the Emperor's Interest is considerably increased in the Kingdom of Naples, and they all take Resuge in the Province of Abruzzo, bordering on the Ecclesiastical Territories, where great Bodies of them are got together, who destroy the Estates of those Neapolitans that are in the French Faction, and raise Contributions upon the Pope's Subjects, accusing him of Partiality to the French, so that the Pope has been obliged to lend more Forces that way to guard his Frontier, and he has appointed a Congregation of Cardinals to consider what is surther to be done for their Security. They write from Naples, that the Magistrates of that City having is further to be done for their Security. They write from Naples, that the Magistrates of that City having resolved to make a Free Gitt of 400000 Ducats to the King of Spain, they laid a Fax upon Windows, but that has produced no more than 70000 Ducats, and Trading there is so dead, and the People to generally poor, that they are at a loss what other Method to take for the making up of this Sum, which is expected from them.
