

ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Measure.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Exeter.

E. C. E. Leadbitter

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 8th day of October, 1948.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 22nd day of September, 1948, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Church Commissioners, acting in pursuance of the New Parishes Measure, 1943, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme for altering the boundaries of the parish of Saint Barnabas, Eltham, and of the parish of Saint James, Kidbrooke, both in the diocese of Southwark:

"Whereas we are satisfied that it is desirable that the boundaries of the said parishes should be altered in the manner hereinafter mentioned:

"And whereas the Bishop of the diocese consents to the proposed arrangements (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme):

"Now, therefore, we, the said Church Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme the boundaries of the said parish of Saint Barnabas, Eltham, and of the said parish of Saint James, Kidbrooke, shall be altered in the manner described in the Schedule and delineated on the map annexed to this Scheme.

"THE SCHEDULE.

"The territory, shown by the pink colour on the map to be annexed to the parish of Saint Barnabas, Eltham, in the said diocese:—

"All that portion of the parish of Saint James, Kidbrooke, which is bounded on the south-east by the parish of Saint Barnabas, Eltham, on the north-east by the parish of Christ Church, Shooters Hill, and on the remaining sides by an imaginary line commencing at a point on the boundary which divides the parish of Christ Church, Shooters Hill, from the parish of Saint James, Kidbrooke, on the wall or fence at the rear of the house and premises now known as No. 5 Kelbrook Crescent and continuing thence along the said wall or fence firstly south-westwards at the rear of the houses and premises known as Nos. 5 Kelbrook Crescent and Nos. 147 to 9 (odd) Langbrook Road and then north-westwards at the rear of the houses and premises known as Nos. 87 to 45 (odd) Halsbrook Road and then south-westwards at the rear of the houses and premises known as Nos. 43 to 1 (odd) Halsbrook Road and then north-westwards at the rear of the houses and premises known as Nos. 253 to 245 (odd) Rochester Way and then south-westwards along the wall or fence forming the boundary between the houses and premises known as Nos. 245 and 243 Rochester Way to a point opposite to the south-western end of the last-mentioned wall or fence in the middle of Rochester Way, and continuing thence south-eastwards along the middle of Rochester Way to a point opposite to the northern end of the wall or fence at the rear of the house and premises known as No. 2 Birdbrook Road and continuing thence southwards along the said wall or fence at the rear of the houses and premises on the western side of Birdbrook Road to a point in the middle of the line of the Bexley Heath branch of the British Railways (Southern Region) opposite to the southern end of the wall or fence at the rear of the house or premises known as No. 120 Birdbrook Road and continuing thence south-eastwards along the middle of the said railway line to the boundary which divides the parish of Saint James, Kidbrooke, from the parish of Saint Barnabas, Eltham."

And whereas the provisions of the New Parishes Measure, 1943, relating to the preparation and submission of this Scheme have been duly complied with:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Measure.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Southwark.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace the 8th day of October, 1948.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 22nd day of September, 1948, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Church Commissioners, in pursuance of the Act of the 33rd and 34th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 39, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 113, the Act of the 4th and 5th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 39, and the Act of the 31st and 32nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 114, have prepared the following Scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to each of the churches and cures (hereinafter called 'the said benefices') of Christ Church, Crewe; Saint John the Baptist, Crewe; and Saint Paul, Copenhall, all in the diocese of Chester.

"Whereas we are satisfied that George Reginald Thomas Taylor, of 53, Cranmer Court, Chelsea, S.W.3, Esquire; the Right Honourable Walter Durant Gibbs, Baron Aldenham of Briggens, Ware, Hertfordshire; Sir Samuel Richard Beale, K.B.E., of 2, Campden Hill, W.8, and David Martyn Evans-Bevan, of Twyn-Yr-Hydd, Margam, Port Talbot, Glamorganshire, Esquire, are the patrons or persons entitled to present or nominate to the said benefices in case the same were now vacant:

"And whereas the said George Reginald Thomas Taylor, the said Walter Durant Gibbs, Baron Aldenham, the said Samuel Richard Beale, and the said David Martyn Evans-Bevan desire to transfer the advowson of the said benefices to the Bishop of Chester for the time being and are consenting to this Scheme (in testimony whereof they have executed the same):

"And whereas we are satisfied that the transfer will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls:

Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Douglas Henry, Bishop of Chester, (in testimony whereof he has executed this Scheme), we, the said Church Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefices shall be transferred to the said Douglas Henry, Bishop of Chester, and his successors in the same Bishopric and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the Bishop of Chester for the time being."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Chester.
