Our Accounts from Peland fay, the King of Sweden remained thin at Cracow, and had given Orders for the County People for feveral Leagues fround about to bring in thirher great quantities of all foirs of Provisions for exching Magaziner, which looks as if he designed to Winter there.

From the Camp of the Allies at Soutendael, Sept. 12. On saturday last the Prince of Homely, with other Voluntiers, went from hence to the Siege of Vendo: The fame day the Lett of our Army made a Forage over the Miele, in the Spiniff Villages allotted to them in the Dutchy of Limbourg, as our Right did yesterday. The day Three Deputies of the States General came to the Army, and his Excellency made them a Vitit this morning at their Quarters. By Letters of yesterday from the Camp before Venlo we have an Account, that the Siege goes on very well; that they should be ready to make an Assault upon the Cashe this day or to morrow, and that when we are Masters of it, the Town would be obliged to surrender in sew days. The French Coutinue in their former Camp; they are making a Line between the Jaar and the Demer, from whence it is concluded they design to make some considerable Detachment of their Army; and we are just now told, that a great number of their Horse are already passed through Liege under the Command of the Count at Tustud. The Earl of Arran joined us this morning with a Squadion of his Regiment from Breda.

Paris, Sept. 18. The crench King intends to be going to morrow from Verfailles to containbleau. He ing to morrow from Verfailles to fontainbleau. He appears extreamly concerned at the unexpected surrenof Landau, and likewife very much dufatisfied with the Conduct of the Marshal de Boufflers in Flanders. They write from Limoges, that there happened a Tumult there among the Iahabitants on account of a new Impost laid on Wine, which was with much difficulty appealed by the Magistrates.

Hague, Sept. 22. N. S. We have an Account, that on the 18th Instant the Fort St. Michael on the Maese, overagainst Venlo, was taken by Storm in an Attack made by the English under the Conduct of the Lord Catts. The first Design was only to make a Lodgment upon the top the 18th Inflant the Fort St. Michael on the Marfe, overagainst Venlo, was taken by Storm in an Attack made by the English under the Conduct of the Lord Cutts. The first Design was only to make a Lodgment upon the top of the Glacis near to the Palisadoes; But the English had no sooner gained one part, but they proceeded farther, and encouraging and helping one another, they passed over the Palisadoes, Covered way, dry and were Diches, Ravelin, and what elle stem'd capable of putting a stop to them, sill at last they climbed up the Countine, and got over some other Palisadoes into the Fort, which they gained without having made a Breath into the Walls, and began to put to the Sword all that resisted; But my Lord Cutts, who was present in the whole Action, prevailed with them to give Quarter to the rest of the Garison, consisting of about 400 Men, among whom were many Voluntiers; the Governor of the Fort, who is a Spaniard, was taken Prisoner, and Brigadier General Prangel, a Swede. In this whole Action we have lost only a Swift Officer, and 10 or 12 Soldiers. This good Success has made General Cuelcorn alter his Measures, giving him an opportunity of attacking the Town on the side of the Masse, which it is believed cannot hold out long. By our next Letters from the Camp, whence we want one Mail, we may expect a more perfect and particular Account of this Action. The French Army commanded by the Marshal de Boufflers continues to intrench it self between the Rivers Jaar and Denner; Count Tallard being detached from it with 12 Battalions of Foor and several Squadfroms of Horie for Germany. Letters from Pars of the 18th Instant give an Account, that the King of Spain was on his Journey, going Post from kay by the way of France to Massing; and that an Expect was attived from thence at the French Court, confirming the Advices which the Spains Annualisation. They pretend to Advices from tash, that Gasciful success which the Spains Annualisation. They proceed to Advices from the Spains and the could to make hard Gascifu
