"We, the Church Commissioners, in pursuance of the Act of the 33rd and 34th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 39, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 113, the Act of the 4th and 5th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 39, and the Act of the 31st and 32nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 114, have prepared the following Scheme for effecting a transfer of a certain estate or interest in the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Stockbridge in the county of Southampton and in the diocese of Winchester:

"Whereas under the authority of an Order of Your Majesty in Council dated the 4th day of November, 1938, and published in the London Gazette of the 8th day of the same month, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice became vested in Edward Rigby Kewley, D.S.O., of Little Dean House, Stockbridge, in the said county of Southampton, a Lieutenant-Colonel in Your Majesty's Army, and Eleanor Hilda Kewley, his wife, as joint tenants, and as from the decease of one of them, was directed to be transferred to the survivor for the term of his or her natural life, and as from the decease of the survivor, was directed to be transferred to the Bishop of Winchester for the time being and his successors:

"And whereas the said Edward Rigby Kewley and Eleanor Hilda Kewley desire to surrender their life interest in the advowson of the said benefice so vested in them to the Bishop of Winchester for the time being to the intent that the perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice may forthwith become exercisable by the said Bishop and his successors:

"And whereas we are satisfied that the transfer will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Edward Rigby Kewley and Eleanor Hilda Kewley and of the Right Reverend Mervyn, Bishop of Winchester (in testimony whereof they have executed this Scheme), we, the said Church Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the estate or interest of the said Edward Rigby Kewley and Eleanor Hilda Kewley in the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice shall be transferred to the said Mervyn, Bishop of Winchester, and his successors and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in the said Bishop and his successors for ever."

And Whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.
