

of the said benefice of Carlton Scroope with Norman-ton and of and in the advowson of the said benefice of Osbournby with Scot Willoughby to the Bishop of Lincoln for the time being and is consenting to this Scheme (in testimony whereof he has executed the same):

"And whereas we are satisfied that the transfer will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Maurice, Bishop of Lincoln (in testimony whereof he has executed this Scheme), we, the said Church Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole interest of the said Lord Brownlow in the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Carlton Scroope with Norman-ton and the said benefice of Osbournby with Scot Willoughby shall be transferred to the said Maurice, Bishop of Lincoln, and his successors in the same Bishopric and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the Bishop of Lincoln for the time being."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Lincoln.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 25th day of April, 1950.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 24th day of March, 1950, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Church Commissioners, in pursuance of the Act of the 33rd and 34th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 39, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 113, the Act of the 4th and 5th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 39, and the Act of the 31st and 32nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 114, have prepared the following Scheme for effecting a transfer of a share of and in the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Newnham in the diocese of Canterbury.

"Whereas we are satisfied that the right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice is at present exercisable alternately by Messrs. Coutts and Company as Executors of the Will of the late Alured Faunce de Laune (hereinafter called 'the Company') whose registered office is situate at 440, Strand, London, Bankers, and by Thomas Croft of Rayham, Whitstable in the county of Kent Esquire the personal representative of the surviving Executor and Trustee of the Will of the late Sir John Frederick Croft:

"And whereas the Company desires to transfer the alternate right of patronage exercisable by the Company as aforesaid to the Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being and is consenting to this Scheme (in testimony whereof the Company has hereunto affixed its Common or Corporate Seal):

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Geoffrey Francis Lord Archbishop of Canterbury (in testimony whereof he has executed this Scheme), we, the said Church Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the share exercisable by the Company of and in the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice shall be transferred to the said Geoffrey Francis, Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, and his successors in the same Archbishopric and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Canterbury.

"Whereas we are satisfied that the Right Honourable Peregrine Francis Adelbert Baron Brownlow (hereinafter called 'Lord Brownlow') is the patron or person entitled to present or nominate to the said benefice in case the same were now vacant:

"And whereas the said Lord Brownlow desires to transfer the advowson of the said benefice to the Bishop of Chester for the time being and is consenting to this Scheme (in testimony whereof he has executed the same):

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Douglas Henry, Bishop of Chester (in testimony whereof he has executed this Scheme), we, the said Church Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice shall be transferred to the said Douglas Henry, Bishop of Chester, and his successors in the same Bishopric and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the Bishop of Chester for the time being."
