By the QUEEN,

A PROCLAMATION,
for the Encouragement of Piety and Virtue, and for the Preventing and Punishing of Vice.

A N N E R

Whereas on Our accession to the Throne, We thought fit, by the advice of Our Privy Council, to Issue out Our Royal Proclamation for the Encouragement of Piety and Virtue, and for the Preventing and Punishing of Vice, Prophaneness, and Immorality: And whereas We have been Informed, That Our Loyal Subjects in the said Proclamation have not been Executed according to Our just Expectation and Commandment; We most seriously and Religiously Considering, That it is an Indismissible Duty on Us, to be Careful, above all other things, to Preserve and Advance the Honour and Service of Almighty God, and to Discourage and Suppress all Vice, Prophaneness, Debauchery and Immorality, which are so highly displeasing to G-d, so great a Reproach to Our Religion and Government, and (by means of the frequent ill Examples of the Practifiers thereof) have so fatal a Tendency to the Corruption of many of Our loving Subjects, otherwise Religious and Virtuously Disposed, and which (if not timely Remedied) may justly draw down the Divine vengeance on Us and Our Kingdoms: We also humblye Ackee viedging, That we cannot expect the Blessing and Good-nesse of Almighty God (by whom Kings and Queens Reign) and on which We entirely Rely: so make Our Reign Happy and Prosperous to Our Self and Our People, nor hope for the Divine Assistance to Deliver Us from the great and imminent Dangers which Our Kingdoms, and the True Protestant Religion, Established among Us, are in this Present Juncture threatened with, without a Religious Observance of Gods Holy Laws: To the Intent therefore that Religion, Piety, and Good Manners may (according to Our most Hearty Desire) Flourish and Increase under Our Administration and Government, We have thought fit (by the Advice of Our Privy Council) to Issue this Our Royal Proclamation, and do hereby Declare Our Royal Purpose and Resolution to Discourage and Punish all manner of Vice, Prophaneness, and Immorality in all Persons of whatsoever Degree or Quality within this Our Realm, and particularly in such as are Employed near Our Royal Person, and that for the greater Encouragement of Religion and Morality, We will upon all Occasions, Distinguish Persons of Piety and Virtue by Marks of Our Royal Favour. And We do Expect and Require that all Persons of Honour, or in Place of Authority, will give good Example, by their own Virtue and Piety, and to their utmost contribute to the Discouraging Persons of Dissolute and Debauched Lives, that they being by that means reduced to Shame and Contempt, for their Loose and Evil Actions and Behaviour, may be thereby also Enforced the sooner to Reform their ill Habits and Practices, and that the visible Displeasure of Good Men towards them, may (as far as it is possible) Supply what the Law and the Proclamation can leave wanting.

the Laws (probably) cannot altogether Prevent. And We do hereby strictly Enjoin and Prohibit all Our Loving Subjects, of what Degree or Quality soever, from Playing on the Lord's Day at Dice, Cards, or any other Game whatsoever, either in Publick or Private Housses, or other Place or Places whatsoever; and do hereby Requiere and Command them and every of them Decently and Reservably to Attend the Worshipp of God on every Lord's Day, on Pain of Our High Displeasure, and of being Proceeded against with the utmost Rigor that they can undergoe; and for the more Effectual Reforming of all such Persons, and Reconciling of their Differences, we have Commaunded here an Assembly to be held in our Kingdom, Our Justicer, Prelie, &c, and We do hereby strictly Commande all Our Judges, Mayors, Sheriffs, Officers of the Peace, and all other Our Officers; and Ministers, both Ecclesiastical and Civil, and all other Our Subjects, whom it may Concern, to be very Vigilant, and strict in the Discovery, and the Effectual Prosecution and Punishment of all Persons who shall be Guilty of Excessive Drinking, Flasphemy, Profane Swearing and Curving, Lewdness, Prophaney of the Lord's Day, or other Disolute, Immoral or Disorderly Practices; and that they take Care also Effectually to Suppress all Baudy-Houses, Publick Gaming-Houses and Places, and other Disorderly Houses, and to put in Execution the Statute made in the Nine and Twentieth Year of the Reign of Our late Royal Uncle King Charles the Second, Intituled, An Act for the better Observation of the Lord's Day, commonly called Sunday, and also an Act of Parliament made in the Ninth Year of the Reign of Our late Dear Brother King William the Third, Intituled, An Act for the more Effectual Suppreſſing of Blasphemey and Prophaney, and all other Laws now in Force for the Prohbitting and Suppreſſing any of the Vices aforesaid; and also to Suppreſſ and prevent all Gaming whatsoever in Publick or Private Houses on the Lord's Day, and likewise that they take Effectual Care to Prevent all Persons keeping Taverns, Chocolate-Houses, Coffee-Houses, or other Publick Houses whatsoever, from Seling Wine, Chocolate, Coffe, Ale, Beer, or other Liquors, or Receiving or Permitting Guests to be or remain in such their Houses on the Lord's Day, (except in Case of Necessity and Charity) as they will answer it to Almighty God, and upon Pain of Our Highest displeasure. And for the more Effectual Proceeding herein, We do hereby Direct and Command all Our Judges of Assize and Justices of the Peace, to give strict Charges at their respective Assizes and Sessions, for the due Prosecution and Punishment of all Persons that shall presume to Offend in any the kinde aforesaid; and also of all Persons that, contrary to their Duty, shall be Remiss or Negligent in Putting the said Laws in Execution; and that they do at their respective Assizes and Quarter-Sessions of the Peace, cause this Our Proclamation to be publickly Read in open Court immediately before the Charge is given. And We do hereby further Charge and Command every Minister in his respective Parish-Church or Chapel, to Read or cause to be Read this Our Proclamation, at least four times in every Year, immediately after Divine Service, and to exhort and stir up their respective Auditories to the Practice of Piety and Virtue, and avowing of all Immorality and Prophaney. And to the end that all Vice and Debauchery may be prevented, and Religion and Virtue practised by all Officers, Private Soldiers, Mariners, and others, who are Employed in Our Services, by Sea or Land, We do hereby strictly Charge and Command all Our Commanders and Officers, whatsoever, That they do take care to avoid all Prophaney, Debauchery, and other Immoralities; and that by their own Good and Vertuous Lives and Conversations, they do set good Examples to all such as are under their Care and Authority; and likewise take Care of and inspect the Behaviour of all such as are under them, and to Punish all those who shall be Guilty of any the Offences aforesaid, as they will be Answerable for the ill Consequences of their Neglect herein.

Given at Our Court at St. James's the Five and Twentieth Day of February, 1702. In the First Year of Our Reign.

Danzick, Febr. 17. Our Magistrates are making new Levies, in order to reinforce our Garrison, and have ordered a good quantity of Ammunition to be bought up to store our Magazines, and are providing every thing else that may be necessary for our Security. The Sieur Hoppen, one of the Senate of this City, and one of their Secretaries, are sent to Marienbourg, to compliment the King of Poland, in the name of our Senate, on his Arrival there. It is yet uncertain what stay the King will make in that
