In accordance with Section 77 of the National Insurance Act, 1946, the National Insurance Advisory Committee give notice that they have received from the Minister of National Insurance for consideration and report thereon the preliminary draft of regulations entitled the National Insurance (Claims and Payments) Amendment (No. 2) Regulations, 1950.

A short explanatory note on these regulations is appended to this notice.

Copies of the preliminary draft of these regulations may be purchased directly (price 3d.) from His Majesty's Stationery Office at the following addresses:—York House, Kingsway, London, W.C.2; 13a, Castle Street, Edinburgh 2; 39, King Street, Manchester 2; 2, Edmund Street, Birmingham 3; 1, St. Andrew's Crescent, Cardiff; 80, Chichester Street, Belfast; or through any bookseller.

The Committee will take into consideration any objections, made by or on behalf of persons affected, sent to them before 18th July, 1950. Having regard to the terms of the Act, which provides that objections must be made within a period of 28 days at most, the Committee are unable to allow a longer period within which objections may be submitted. If an objection is submitted within the prescribed time, however, the Committee will be prepared, if they are satisfied that sufficient grounds exist, to allow the later submission of evidence or explanation in support of the objection. Objections should be addressed to The Secretary, National Insurance Advisory Committee, 30, Euston Square, London, N.W.1.

Will Spens, Chairman.

EXPLANATORY NOTE.

These regulations amend the National Insurance (Claims and Payments) Regulations, 1948, so that any failure, by a person who has not previously claimed sickness benefit, to give notice of incapacity shall not thereby result in his being disqualified for the receipt of that benefit; and by extending the time for making a claim for sickness benefit by a person who claims for the first time. They also amend the provisions for extending the time for giving notice of incapacity; and they relax, in favour of certain persons who are or have been in hospital, the provisions relating to the proof of good cause for delay in giving such notice or claiming sickness benefit. The remaining amendments are of a minor or consequential character.
