

Proclamation, if Parliament be not sitting or in being) to order and direct that the volunteers under that Act, or so many or such part of them as He may deem necessary, shall be called into actual service:

And whereas by the Royal Naval Reserve Volunteer Act, 1896, as amended by the Royal Naval Reserve Act, 1902, it is enacted that the power under the said Act of 1859 to raise and pay volunteers may be exercised outside the British Islands in respect of British subjects:

And whereas by the Naval Reserve Act, 1900, the Admiralty are authorised to raise and keep up a new division, commonly known as the Royal Fleet Reserve, of the force raised under the said first recited Act in addition to the men raised under that Act, and such new division is liable to be called out as part of the Royal Naval Reserve under the said fourth section of the said Act of 1859:

And whereas by the first section of the Naval Reserve (Mobilisation) Act, 1900, amending the said Act of 1859, it is enacted that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, where He orders and directs that volunteers under that Act shall be called into actual service, to authorise the Admiralty to give and, when given, to revoke or vary, such directions as may seem necessary or proper for calling out all or any of the said volunteers as the occasion may require:

And whereas Parliament has been informed that owing to the state of public affairs, and the demands upon the Naval Forces, an occasion has arisen for ordering and directing the Royal Fleet Reserve to be called into actual service:

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order and direct that the said volunteers be called into actual service.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are hereby authorised to give, and when given, to revoke or vary, such directions as may seem necessary or proper for calling out all or any of the said volunteers as the occasion may require.

Nothing herein contained shall be construed as in any way affecting the liability of any person to be recalled, or to be required to re-enter, into actual service in pursuance of the provisions of the Naval and Marine Forces (Temporary Release from Service) Act, 1940, or the Naval Forces (Extension of Service) Act, 1944.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 28th day of July, 1950.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS it is provided by subsection (1) of section 1 of the Census Act, 1920 (10 & 11 Geo. 5. c. 41) (hereinafter referred to as "the Act of 1920"), that, subject to the provisions of that Act, His Majesty may by Order in Council from time to time direct that a Census shall be taken for Great Britain, and any Order so made may prescribe the date of such Census, the persons by whom and in respect to whom the returns for the purpose of such Census are to be made and the particulars to be stated in the returns:

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Census Order, 1950.

(2) The Interpretation Act, 1889 (52 & 53 Vict. c. 63), applies to the interpretation of this Order as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

(3) In this Order "prescribed" means prescribed by regulations made under the Act of 1920.

2. A Census shall be taken for Great Britain on the 8th day of April, 1951, in respect of—

(a) all persons in Great Britain; and

(b) all other persons (being persons normally resident in Great Britain) mentioned in paragraph 5 of the first column of the first schedule to this Order;

who are alive at midnight ending that day.

3. The returns for the purpose of the Census shall be made with respect to the classes of persons mentioned in the first column of the first schedule to this Order by the persons mentioned opposite each such class in the second column of that schedule:

Provided that any person claiming in the prescribed manner to make a confidential return shall, subject to the prescribed conditions, be deemed to be the person by whom the return is to be made with respect to himself.

4. The returns shall state—

(a) in the case of all persons with respect to whom returns are to be made, the particulars specified in part I of the second schedule to this Order;

(b) in the case of all persons with respect to whom returns are to be made in Scotland, the additional particulars specified in part II of that schedule; and

(c) in the case of all persons with respect to whom returns are to be made in Wales (including Monmouth), the additional particulars specified in part III of that schedule.
