If an objection is submitted within the prescribed time, however, the Committee will be prepared, if they are satisfied that sufficient grounds exist, to allow the later submission of evidence or explanation in support of the objection. Objections should be addressed to The Secretary, National Insurance Advisory Committee, 30, Euston Square, London, N.W.1.

Will Spens, Chairman.

EXPLANATORY NOTE.

These Regulations amend the National Insurance (Contributions) Regulations, 1948 (hereinafter referred to as "the Contributions Regulations"). They provide periods within which persons who have been in prison or detained in legal custody, or have resumed full-time education or full-time unpaid apprenticeship, may pay contributions under the Contributions Regulations. The Regulations also apply to contributions which a person is, under the Contributions Regulations or the National Insurance (Residence and Persons Abroad) Regulations, 1948, entitled, but not liable to pay, the provisions of the Contributions Regulations concerning the circumstances in which and the times at which contributions which are paid after the date on which they became due are treated as paid for the purpose of any right to benefit under the National Insurance Act, 1946. Those provisions are, however, relaxed in relation to contributions for which an extended period is allowed for payment under either of those regulations. The remaining provisions are of a minor or consequential character.
