CENTRAL CHANCERY OF THE ORDERS OF KNIGHTHOOD.

St. James's Palace, S.W.1.
19th June, 1951.

The KING has been graciously pleased to approve the award of the British Empire Medal (Military Division) to:—

4026728 Leading Aircraftman William John Mitchell BRODIE, Royal Air Force, Royal Air Force Station, Safi.

On 28th January, 1951, a Solent Flying Boat of Trans Oceanic Airways carrying 8 crew and 39 passengers, overturned on take-off at Marsaxlokk, Malta. Leading Aircraftman Brodie was a member of the crew of Seaplane Tender 1599 which went to the assistance of the occupants. On seeing one of the passengers in difficulties in the water about 30 yards off (he had drifted away from the main body of passengers who were being rescued by Royal Air Force Marine craft) Brodie immediately got permission to leave his boat and, casting off only his jacket and his boots, dived into the water to render assistance. Although the drowning man was fully clothed but not wearing a lifebelt, Leading Aircraftman Brodie kept him afloat for some five minutes. By this time the passenger had lost consciousness, thereby becoming a dead weight. Despite this, Leading Aircraftman Brodie continued in his attempt to bring him alongside the craft which were engaged in rescuing the others from the water and the overturned aircraft. There was a wind of 20-25 m.p.h. and a slight swell, and he was unable to make his objective. Eventually both Brodie and the passenger disappeared under the water but Leading Aircraftman Brodie persisted in his efforts to effect a rescue. Ultimately he had to release his hold, being himself picked up in a most exhausted condition.
