RECRUITMENT UNDER NORMAL REGULATIONS TO THE SITUATION OF CARTOGRAPHICAL DRAUGHTSMAN OR SURVEYOR IN THE ORDNANCE SURVEY.

1. Age

SECTION I

Candidates must be at least 16 and under 18 years of age on 1st September, 1951.

SECTION II

Candidates must be at least 18 and under 25 years of age on 1st September, 1951.

But

(a) a candidate who has served or is serving on a regular (including a regular short-service) engagement in H.M. Forces may deduct the period of such service from his actual age;

(b) a candidate who has served in H.M. Forces otherwise than on a regular or short-service engagement may deduct the period of such service from his actual age, up to a maximum of two years.

2. Sex

(i) Both men and women are eligible, provided that the number of vacancies available for women may be restricted.

(ii) Married women who have formerly been established civil servants and have drawn marriage gratuity (other than those who resigned compulsorily on marriage and whose resignation took effect before the 15th October, 1946, or who are widows or divorced, or who are separated from their husbands, or whose husbands suffer without hope of recovery from total physical or mental incapacity) will not be eligible unless they undertake to refund on appointment the marriage gratuity paid.

3. Nationality

Candidates must be British subjects. They must also satisfy one of the following conditions:—

(a) If natural-born British subjects, they must either

(i) have at least one parent who is or was at death a British subject; or

(ii) have resided in His Majesty's dominions and/or been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of their appointment.

(b) If naturalised British subjects, they must have resided in His Majesty's dominions and/or been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of their appointment.

(c) If not qualified under (a) or (b) of this paragraph, they must satisfy the Commissioners that they are so closely connected with His Majesty's dominions either by ancestry, upbringing or residence, or by reason of national service, that an exception may properly be made in their favour.

4. Health and Character

Successful candidates must satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners as to their health and character.

Even if there are unfilled vacancies, no candidate will be appointed who does not obtain a total mark which satisfies the Civil Service Commissioners.

6. Candidates trained as Teachers

Candidates who have been trained as teachers and upon whose training public money has been spent, cannot be appointed until the consent of the appropriate central education authority (e.g., the Ministry of Education, the Scottish Education Department, the Ministry of Education for Northern Ireland) has been notified to the Commissioners.

The Civil Service Commissioners further give notice that an Open Competition will be held under the above Regulations commencing on the 11th September, 1951.
