

Saint Michael, situate in the parish of Saint Michael, Frosterley, in the diocese of Durham.

"SCHEME.

"Whereas by an Instrument under the seal of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England pursuant to the Act of the 8th and 9th years of Her late Majesty, Queen Victoria, chapter 70, and to the Act of the 19th and 20th years of Her said late Majesty, chapter 55, and dated the 25th day of November, 1869, the new church called Saint Michael, Frosterley, was substituted for the old church of Saint Michael, Frosterley, as the parish church of the parish of Saint Michael, Frosterley:

"And whereas it has been represented to us, the said Church Commissioners, and it appears to us to be expedient that the said old church of Saint Michael, Frosterley, should be appropriated for certain educational or charitable or other purposes as hereinafter recommended and proposed:

"Now, therefore, we, the said Church Commissioners, with the consent of the Right Reverend Alwyn, Bishop of Durham (testified by his signing this Scheme) do humbly recommend and propose to Your Majesty that so soon as conveniently may be after the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council affirming this Scheme the said old church of Saint Michael, Frosterley, shall, subject to the provisions of the said Measures, be appropriated for any educational or charitable purpose or purposes in connection with the Church of England, having in view the spiritual, intellectual, moral or social welfare of the parishioners of the said parish of Saint Michael, Frosterley, and others or either exclusively or in conjunction with any such purposes as aforesaid for use or occupation by any diocesan body or organisation or otherwise for the furtherance of the work of the Church of England or the administration of its affairs, and such appropriation shall be subject to such conditions, regulations and provisions as the Bishop of Durham shall by deed made pursuant to the 24th Section of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, declare and appoint."

And whereas the provisions of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1936, and the Union of Benefices Rules, 1926 to 1930, relating to the preparation and submission of this Scheme have been duly complied with:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that it shall be and become effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette.

E. C. E. Leadbitter.

At the Court at Windsor, the 29th day of June, 1951.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 1st day of June, 1951, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Church Commissioners, in pursuance of the Church Patronage Act, 1870, and of the Acts mentioned therein have prepared the following Scheme for effecting a transfer of a share of and in the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to each of the churches and cures (hereinafter called 'the said benefices') of (1) Candlesby with Scremby and (2) Swaby with South Thoresby both in the diocese of Lincoln:

"Whereas we are satisfied that the right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Candlesby with Scremby is at present exercisable alternately by the President and Scholars of the College of Saint Mary Magdalen in the University of Oxford (hereinafter called 'the said President and Scholars') and George Henry Bowser of the Firs, Friskney, Boston, in the County of Lincoln, Esquire, and that the right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Swaby with South Thoresby is at present exercisable alternately by the said President and Scholars and by Your Majesty in right of Your Duchy of Lancaster:

"And whereas the said President and Scholars desire to transfere the said two alternate rights of patronage exercisable by them as aforesaid to the Bishop of Lincoln for the time being and are consenting to this Scheme (in testimony whereof they have affixed their Common or Corporate Seal to the same):

"And whereas we are satisfied that the transfer will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Maurice, Bishop of Lincoln (in testimony whereof he has executed this Scheme), we, the said Church Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the alternate share at present exercisable by the said President and Scholars of and in the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to each of the said benefices shall be transferred to the said Maurice, Bishop of Lincoln, and his successors in the same Bishopric and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the Bishop of Lincoln for the time being."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Lincoln.

E. C. E. Leadbitter.

At the Court at Windsor, the 29th day of June, 1951.

PRESENT.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Church Commissioners have, in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1936, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 16th day of June, 1950, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Church Commissioners, acting in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1936, now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme which we have prepared for effecting the union of the benefice of Wisbech, Saint Peter and Saint Paul, and the benefice of The Wisbech Chapel of Ease both situate in the diocese of Ely.

"SCHEME.

"Whereas a Commission of Inquiry pursuant to the provisions of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, has reported to the Bishop of Ely recommending the union of the benefice of Wisbech, Saint Peter and Saint Paul, and the benefice of The Wisbech Chapel of Ease, and the said Bishop of Ely has signified in writing his approval of the report:

"And whereas this Scheme for the union of the said benefices, which has been prepared by us, the said Church Commissioners, is based upon the terms recommended in the said report but with the consent of the said Bishop of Ely embodies certain modifications thereof:

"And whereas by an Act of the 7th and 8th years of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, Chapter XCII intituled 'An Act for erecting and endowing a Chapel of Ease in the Parish of Wisbech Saint Peter's in the Isle of Ely in the County of Cambridge' provision was made for the appointment of trustees for carrying into effect the provisions of the said Act:

"And whereas the said Act further provides that the right of presenting a minister to the said Chapel shall vest in a committee consisting of five of the said Trustees elected for that purpose by the Trustees at one of their meetings:

"And whereas the said Act further provides that if the said Committee fails to present a minister within six calendar months of the date of the avoidance of the preceding minister of the Chapel the turn of presentation shall lapse to the Bishop of
