in a great measure deprived the Enemy of the conveni-ency of receiving Provisions, which thereupen began to grow feature in their Camp.

Cologie, July G. Four Regimeats of the Prassin Forces which were poined about Guider arrived seiter-day in the Neighbourhood of this Plane, and are to be followed by feveral more, who are all maintaining to the Upper Rhine. The Forces of the Chille of Hispanish, which were encamped near Anternacy, or he up from thence two days, and, in order to publish daying at Colomia, and to march towards Limited. Detters from thence lay, the Duke of Burguidy is marched back to-wards Fort Linia, and that during his stay near Endag, abundance of Delingers have come over from its Army abundance of Deflicers have come over flore his Army into that Place.

Hamburgh, July 6. Letters from Lealin give an Account, That the King of Peland arrived there the 17th past from Ebbrg, and on the 15th the General Dirt met, and made choice of Prince Wisformierly to be these Marifall, or Speaker; And they write from Wisform, that the Cardinal Primate and several other Persons of Note were gone trem thence, in order to repair to the Disc. The Crown Army, according to our last Advices, was near Limes, and the Swedijb Forces continued encamped Breday July 10. The Confederate Army under the Command of the Duke of Marisering's marched the Command of the Duke of Markeringh marched the Jin Inflant from Tielm, and encamped with their Right at Virgleaer and Beerfe, and their Left at Guierle, for the better covering of their Conveys from this Place, the Breiny being come out of their Lines, and encamped at Simprooven. The 8th his Grace left the Army unfer the Command of Monitur d'divergierque, and came hitner, with the Count de Noyaler General of the Foor, the Historiary Prince of Heffe, and fome other General Officers. Yesterday morning my Lord Duke went to Birgenpzoom, where a great Council of War was held, wherein were prefent, belides his Grace and the Generis that accompanied him, a Deputies of the States, Moniteur d'Obdam, Monfieur Singenburg, and Moniteur Coehomn, which last being indiffuded, could not come to this Place, where the Council was first intended to have been held; and this day his Grace returned hither. Montieur a'Obdam is going to the Hague.

Hague July 10. N.S. The States General have received from Montieur Slagenburg a Relation of the late Action at Eckeren, upon the teading whereof they refolved. That he should be thanked for his good Conduct, his Courage, and Zeal for the publick Service; and should be defined to make known in the most effectual manner, both to the Officers and Soldiers who fought under Lim, how well their High and Mightinesses are facisfied with the Bravery and Resolution which they shewed on this occasion. As this Fight was long and very sharp, it could not be expected out a great Number of Men'must have been killed, especially of our Army, which was not near half the Number of that of the Enemy; yet there apprears to have been but 517 of our men killed, and 800 wounded; besides which there are 600 missing, who are either dispersed or taken Prisoners; and we are assured that the Freich had ab we 5000 Men killed and wounded: Yet they did not tail, after their wonted are affured that the French had ab we soon Men killed and wounded: Yet they did not fail, after their worted namer, to make publick Rejlycings as for a Victory gained; though bedides that their Lois was so much greater than ours, our Men remained absolutely Masters of the Field of Battel, having driven the Enemy from several advantagious Posts, whereof they had possessed themselves. Lieutenant-General Fagel is come nother, to be cured of the Wounds he received in this occasion. Baron Spaar is made Governor of Sas van Ghan, in the room of Colonel Vassy, who was killed at the forcing of the French Lines near Szeken. A Body of about 4000 of the Enemy's Horse advanced lately to Wessians, within intene to have surprised a Convoy of Provisions, which, as they were informed, was coming from Breda to our Camp, which was then at Tielen; but upon our Army's marching to Beerse, they immediately refired to their Army, which is encamped before their Lines, yet so near them, that they may soon retire into them if they see occasion. It is said that the Count de Zinzendors, the Emperor's Minister at Lings, has received News that Prince Lewis of Baden has desicated the prench Army under the Command of the icated the Prench Army under the Command of the icated the preach Army under the Command of the Marshal de Villar; but there being no Advice of it come hither directly, we know not how far this Report may be relied upon. We hear the French Men of War which laiely engaged the Convoy of the Herring Bussies belonging to North-Holland, proceeded afterwards to Scientima, and burnt and deftroyed many of those Busies which had estaped thinker. Several Yachts and Transfort Ships, under Convoy of some Men of War, are arrived in the Macle iron England, having on board Lieutenant-General Churchid, Baron Bose, the King of Polars's Minister, and a good number of Recruits.

Partimouch, July 1. Sir Cloudelly Showell failed from St. Helicar this morning, with the English and Durch Men of War under his Command, with a fair Wind;

having under their Convoy a confiderable Fleet of outward bound Merchant Snips.
