

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Monday July 5. to Thursday July 8. 1703.

Clefsee in the Hand of Fubmen, July 7. N. S.

THE King of Denmark having spent some time at Ringsied, to review the regular Forces and Militia encamped there, (which thereupon were sent back to their Quarters on the 3d Instant) his Majesty proceeded to the Island of Laland, where he reviewed in the Plain of Murboe the Battalions of Falkter and Laland, and came thither yesterday about noon. After Dinner his Majesty went out to the little Camp formed near this Place, consisting of the two Fubmen Regiments of Horse, which amount to 814 Men, and of 2626 Militia, whereof 442 are Dragoons, and the rest Foot, and took a Review of them, and this day they were mustered by the Commissary at War: In a day or two the King will continue his Progress towards Holstein.

Frankfort, July 8. The Duke of Burgundy having made an end of demolishing our Lines between Croonweiffembourg and Lustembourg, the Army under his Command is marched to Hatten, in their way to Fort Louis. It is said that the best part of the Horse is to be sent to the Low Countries, and that the Marshal de Tallard with the rest of that Army will continue near the Rhine, to observe the Confederate Forces under the Command of General Thungen, which are posted along that River, between Philipsbourg and Sto'hoffen. Some Advices add, That the Duke of Burgundy himself was gone from the French Army to Strasbourg, and would speedily return to France. Our Letters from Swabia say, That on the 3d Instant Prince Lewis of Baden came with the Imperial Army under his Command in sight of the French Army under the Marshal de Villars, whereupon they immediately fired 3 Cannon-shot, as a Signal for all their Parties which were abroad to retire to their Camp; however one of them of 100 Horse fell in with our Troops, and were all killed or taken Prisoners; and the Marshal de Villars coming out soon after with a strong Party of Horse to view our Army, one of our advanced Guards fired upon them, and 6 Persons that were with him were killed, among whom is said to be an Officer of Note, and the Marshal himself narrowly escaped being taken Prisoner. Prince Lewis pitched his Camp within half a League of the Enemy, and expects the coming up of 6000 Foot, who are marching to join him from the Margrave of Bareith's Army, which lay near Donawert; after which he will endeavour to force the Enemy's Camp. The French appear very apprehensive of it, and the Marshal de Villars has sent 3 Expresses successively to the Elector of Bavaria for succours, who thereupon has ordered part of his Forces to march back from the Country of Tyrol with all possible diligence to reinforce him; but it is to be hoped they will arrive too late. Some Letters say, the Elector himself is come to Donawert.

Cologne, July 10. The 3 Regiments of Horse, and 6 Battalions of Foot, of the King of Prussia's Forces, which were lately drawn from the Blockade of Gelder, in order to reinforce the Imperial Army on the Upper Rhine, are all passed by this Place, in order to march thither; the Blockade being however still continued by 3 Regiments of Foot. The Forces of the Circle of Westphalia, which are also ordered to the Upper Rhine, consisting of 4 Battalions, 1 Regiment of Horse, and another of Dragoons, passed over the Rhine at Coblentz the 7th Instant, and continued their March the next day.

Hamburg, July 10. Letters from Lublin of the 30th past give an Account, That the Cardinal Primate took his Place the 27th in the General Diet assembled there, and then assured the King of Poland of his Fidelity, and endeavoured to clear himself of the Aspersions which he hath lain under, of being in the Swedish Interest; whereupon he was admitted to kiss his Majesty's Hand, and afterwards took a new Oath of Fidelity to him and to the Republick: A great many Members of the Diet seemed in their Speeches inclined to declare War in the Name of the Republick against the King of Sweden, which made it believed that Assembly would be adjourned for a fortnight, and in the mean time a Deputation would be sent that King, to have his final Answer, in relation to the Advances made for setting on foot a Negotiation of Peace between the two Crowns. The Swedish Army continued near Thorn, and a Body of about 18000 Men of the Forces of the Crown and of Lithuania, and some Saxon Troops, were marching that way in order to observe them.

From the Camp at Vorfelaer, July 12. The Duke of Northborough returned thither the 10th Instant from the great Council of War which was lately held at Bergenopzoom: His Grace was entertained there by the Deputies of the States General, as he had been at Breda by the Governor of that Place. The Hereditary Prince of Hesse, Monsieur Doff, the Count de Nojelles General of the Foot, Monsieur schalten, and Monsieur Buleau, Lieutenants-General, who accompanied his Grace, and were also present in the Council of War abovementioned, are likewise returned thither. A strong Party of Horse being sent out the 10th, under the Command of Major-General Ranzau, to observe the Enemy, who were foraging, met with part of their Forage-Guard, whereof our Men took two Captains and 18 Troopers, with their Horses; and the Prisoners were sent this morning to Breda. The Enemy marched out of their Lines the 7th to Samthoven, being the same day that we came to this Ground; They have since made a small Motion to St. Jop, where they are now encamped.

Amsterdam, July 13. Letters from Paris of the first Instant, which came by the way of Lorraine, bring an Account, That the French Court had received with great Mortification the News of the Duke of Vendosme's Misfortune before Offiglia, and Monsieur Abergotti's Defeat near Mirandola; And that according to the Advices from their Army in Italy of the 22d past, nothing considerable had since happened, except an Action between the Body of Imperialists commanded by General Vaubonne, and another of the French Forces, wherein the latter were worsted. The French King has given the Regiment commanded by Monsieur d'Espinal, who was killed in the Action near Mirandola, to the Son of the Duke a'Elbeuf, who serves in that Army as Aid de Camp to the Duke of Vendosme. The French Court was then at Milly, and would continue there till the 14th Instant.

Hague, July 13. N. S. The 4 Deputies of the States General, who were present in the Council of War lately held at Bergenopzoom, came thither yesterday in the evening, to make their Report of what had been there resolved to the States General, who thereupon immediately met, and continued in Consultation until midnight: After their rising an Express was dispatched to the Army, and the same Deputies are to follow thither this day or to morrow. The Enemy seem to apprehend that our Troops will attempt to force their Lines, and are accordingly providing against it, having summoned the Country People within the Marquitate of Antwerp to repair to their Army, designing to employ them in making several new Works, for their better Defence. Monsieur d'Opdam arrived here yesterday from Bergenopzoom. The States General have sent a Deputation to Lieut. Gen. Fagel, who is at present here, with a Compliment, expressing their Satisfaction in his Conduct in the late Action at Eckeren. The Standards, Colours and Kettle-Drums, taken from the French in this Occasion were carried two days ago in Triumph to the Court, to be set up in the great Hall, as Monuments of the signal Victory which our Forces gained in so unequal a Battle. The Letters which we received this day from Flanders say, That Baron Spaar has taken the Fort of Kilarscht, between Hullst and the Lieskenshoek, wherein was a Garrison of 160 Men. Our Advices from Germany say, That the Duke of Burgundy was upon his return, to the French Court, and had made a Detachment of 6000 Horse from his Army to reinforce the

12000