

their posts, when retiring again within their defences, they gave fire to three Mines, with extraordinary success, blowing up great numbers of the Turks, and some Officers of the greatest Quality, and destroyed a considerable Battery. They further tell us, that upon the arrival of the French Gallies with other forces, the Generals had resolv'd to make a sally with 10 thousand men upon the Enemy on the 7 of July, of which we impatiently expect the success.

Venice, August 17. A Bark lately arriv'd from Cattaro, tells us, that the Turks were for some time drawn together about Cilno, intending to have made an inroad into our Territories in Dalmatia; but were much against their inclinations diverted by the Bassa of Boffina, who had in obedience to the Grand Sgniors Command, sent them away for Morva, to be from thence embark'd for Candia; several passengers from Constantinople confirm the news of the ruins and disorders in the City, the Sultans Mother and his Wife driving two Interests, and drawing the people into parties, between whom have pass'd several disputes in which some hundreds have died.

Hague, August 27. The States having lately interpos'd with the Bishop of Munster for the Releasement of the Heer Frybourg, formerly seized in East Friesland; the Bishop has lately written to the States to acquaint them, the Gabels required at Bourtang, are an innovation contrary to the peace between Spain and the States, the Constitution of the Empire of Germany, and the peace establish'd between the States and him the said Bishop, and therefore illegal and ill founded; and upon these accounts he cannot, as being a Prince of the Circle of Westphalia, suffer so great an exaction, and hopes that since it has been his care to preserve a good intelligence and neighbourhood with the States, they will not interpose in this affair, especially considering that if the Prince of East Friesland has any pretence of Right, he is ready to appeal with her to the Imperial Court, as to the proper place for its determination, which Letter is referred to the consideration of the States Commissioners, and an answer thereunto will be speedily resolv'd, but tis feared this affair may in little time produce some disturbance.

The King of Poland having not by any particular Letter acquainted the States with his Election to the Crown, as he hath done the Kings and Princes our Neighbours, tis believ'd the Embassy which was design'd thither to congratulate him upon his said Election, may be retarded till farther Order.

The 24th Instant the Baron d'Isola gave notice of his arrival here to the foreign Ministers and Ambassadors, and was the next day visited by the Spanish Ambassador, who the next day gave an Honourable entertainment to the French and Portuguese Ambassadors.

The Heer Hubert Pensioner of Zealand, having with the other Deputies of that Province, been conducted into the Assembly of the States of Holland by the Heers Werkendam and Pensionary de Wis, the Ratifications of the late agreement about the Court of Justice between both Provinces, were there solemnly exchanged, and the said Pensioner Hubert is since returned for Zealand.

Paris, Aug. 28. Letters of the 11th of July from Candia tell us, that since the ill success of the sally made by our forces upon the Turks, Monsieur Castellan and several other of our Officers are dead of their wounds received in that days service, and the Duke de Navailles finding his Feavourish distemper much increased by the ill Air of the City of Candia, was by the advice of his Physicians removed to Standia for the re-establishment of his health, whose distemper has been one main reason why no second attempt has been yet made upon the Enemy, who make daily nearer approaches and press more then ever upon the Town, killing many of our men by the great quantities of Grana-dos and Mortar-pieces which they hourly send into the Town, and forget not to prepare against a new sally, by fortifying their Camp, and raising several Redoubts, and Retrenchments; they have also lately received a succor of 4000 men, with which addition their Army is said to amount to about 22000 fighting men, and daily expect the arrival of a more considerable assistance, for whose transportation their Gallies are lately fitted up and attending about Morva.

From the same place we are inform'd, that some warm disputes have happened between the Duke de Navailles and the Marquis de Saint Andre Montbrun, about the causes of the ill success of the late sally; and some others between the Count de Vivonne in executing the Charge of Admiral of France, and Don Vincenzo Rospigliosi, the Popes General, about their Titles and Punctilios of Honour.

From Switzerland we have fresh advice, that the Protestant and Roman Catholick Cantons, have newly compos'd a dispute which has been for some time amongst them, about the protection of their neighbours, and have unanimously agreed to take under their protection the City and Territories of Geneva, the Countrey de Vaux, Franch Comte, and the four Towns upon the Frontiers which desired their patronage, and that they are raising 600 men to be sent to lye in Garrison in Besancon, for whom the Spanish Minister has advanced a years pay.

About the 9. of the next Month His Majesty intends for Chambureg, and about the same time the Prince of Tuscany designs to depart for Italy: The Kings Guards are to march 3 or 4 days before him; on his return he may make some stay at the Bois de Vincennes, where he intends to give Audience to the Turkish Minister, who is on his way hither with a Train of about 25 Turks, with whom arriv'd at Toulon an Interpreter belonging to Monsieur de la Haye our Ambassador in the Turkish Court, telling us that the said Monsieur de la Haye departed on the 20th. of June last from Larissa in his way for Constantinople, where he resolv'd to expect the success of the Turkish Negotiation in France, as well as the issue of the disturbances in Constantinople.

There are lately arriv'd at Thoulon the Secretary and several of the Domestick Servants of the late slain Duke de Beaufort, with much sadness bewailing the loss of their Master.

About 3 or 6 days since arriv'd here the Chevalier d'Arguin, a Page to the former King of Poland, and a Gentleman of the Chamber to the present, with the Character of Gentleman Envoy, to give His Majesty an account of the Election, and the present state of the affairs of Poland.

His Majesty being also inform'd of the approach of King Casimir, has sent Monsieur de Vestevet to compliment him at his arrival at Strasbourg, and to attend him into France.

Whitehall, August 21. On Friday last in the afternoon his Excellency Monsieur Gudenleu, Ambassador from His Majesty of Denmark was attend'd at the Lady Williams House in Westminster by the Earl of Oxford and Sir Charles Costerel, Master of the Ceremonies, and conducted thence in His Majesties Coach with a great Train of other of the Nobility to the Banqueting-House at Whitehall, where he had his solemn Audience from both their Majesties, with the usual Ceremonies, and the same day he had also his Audience from their Royal Highnesses in the Palace of St. James.
