

"THE SCHEDULE.

"The area comprising:—

All that part of the parish of Saint Michael and All Angels, Belgrave (shown by the pink colour on the map) which is bounded upon part of the north-west by the parish of Belgrave, upon the north-east by the parish of Thurmaston, upon the south-east by the parish of Humberstone, upon part of the south-west by the parish of Saint Barnabas, New Humberstone, and upon the remaining sides by an imaginary line commencing at a point in the middle of the bridge which carries the Main Line of the British Railways (London Midland Region) over Gipsy Lane on the boundary which divides the parish of Saint Barnabas, New Humberstone, from the parish of Saint Michael and All Angels, Belgrave, and extending thence first north-westwards, then south-westwards, and then north-westwards along the middle of Gipsy Lane to a point in the middle of Harrison Road opposite to the middle of the north-western end of Gipsy Lane and continuing thence north-eastwards along the middle of Harrison Road to its north-eastern end and continuing thence in the same straight line to a point in the middle of an un-named brook or stream (which flows generally westwards from the junction of Humberstone Lane and Barkby Lane to the River Soar) and continuing thence north-westwards along the middle of the said un-named brook or stream to the boundary which divides the parish of Saint Michael and All Angels, Belgrave, from the parish of Belgrave."

And whereas the provisions of the New Parishes Measure, 1943, relating to the preparation and submission of this Scheme, have been duly complied with:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Measure.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Leicester.

F. J. Fernau.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 4th day of December, 1951.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 15th day of November, 1951, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Church Commissioners, in pursuance of the Church Patronage Act, 1870, and the Acts mentioned therein, have prepared the following Scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure, (hereinafter called 'the said benefit'), of Kimpton in the county of Hertford and in the diocese of Saint Albans.

"Whereas we are satisfied that the Right Honourable Thomas Walter, Viscount Hampden, G.C.V.O., K.C.B., C.M.G., (hereinafter called 'Viscount Hampden'), is the patron or person entitled to present or nominate to the said benefice in case the same were now vacant:

"And whereas the said Viscount Hampden desires to transfer the advowson of the said benefice to the Bishop of Saint Albans for the time being and is consenting to this Scheme, (in testimony whereof he has executed the same):

"And whereas we are satisfied that the transfer will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Michael, Bishop of Saint Albans, (in testimony whereof he has executed this Scheme), we, the said Church Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice shall be transferred to the said Michael, Bishop of Saint Albans, and his successors in the same Bishopric and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the Bishop of Saint Albans for the time being."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of St. Albans.

F. J. Fernau.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 4th day of December, 1951.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 15th day of November, 1951, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Church Commissioners, acting in pursuance of the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, and of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1936, now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme which we have prepared with the consent of the Right Reverend Tom, Bishop of Hereford (in witness whereof he has signed the Scheme), for effecting the disunion of the united benefice of Canon Frome with Munsley in the diocese of Hereford.

"SCHEME.

"Whereas the benefice of Canon Frome and the benefice of Munsley were permanently united together to form one benefice with cure of souls in pursuance of an Order of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria in Council dated the 11th day of December, 1854:

"And whereas the Bishop of the said diocese of Hereford has forwarded to us, the said Church Commissioners, provisional proposals pursuant to the said Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, recommending that the union of the benefices of Canon Frome and Munsley should be dissolved, that the said benefice of Canon Frome should be held in plurality with the benefice of Stretton Grandison with Ashperton and that the said benefice of Munsley should be held in plurality with the benefice of Alyton with Pixley, all of which benefices are situate in the said diocese of Hereford:

"And whereas effect can be given to the said proposals so far as they relate to the dissolution of the said union by Scheme prepared by us and confirmed by Order of Your Majesty in Council pursuant to the said Union of Benefices Measures and in so far as they relate to the said pluralities by subsequent Orders made by the said Bishop pursuant to the said Pastoral Reorganisation Measure:

"Now, therefore, we, the said Church Commissioners, do humbly recommend and propose to Your Majesty as follows, that is to say:—

"1. The union of the benefice of Canon Frome and the benefice of Munsley in the said united benefice of Canon Frome with Munsley shall be dissolved and the said benefices of Canon Frome and Munsley shall thereupon each become a separate benefice with cure of souls within the limits of its separate parish.

"2. The disunion of the said united benefice shall take effect upon the date when any Order of Your Majesty in Council affirming this Scheme is published in the London Gazette.

"3. The endowments and property of the said united benefice shall be divided and distributed as follows, that is to say (1) out of the endowments now held by us, the said Church Commissioners, on behalf of the said united benefice a capital sum sufficient to produce an annual income of £200 and (2) the proceeds (together with any accumulated interest thereon) of the sale of the parsonage house belonging to the united benefice are now held by us shall be assigned and annexed to the benefice of Canon Frome and all other the endowments and
