

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Measure.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Lichfield.

F. J. Fernau.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 4th day of December, 1951.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 21st day of November, 1951, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Church Commissioners, acting in pursuance of the New Parishes Measure, 1943, have prepared and humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme for altering the boundaries of the parish of All Saints, Cleadon, and of the parish of Harton and for constituting a new parish to be taken out of the parishes of All Saints, Cleadon, and Harton in the diocese of Durham.

"SCHEME.

"Whereas, we, the Church Commissioners, are satisfied (1) that it is desirable that the boundaries of the parish of All Saints, Cleadon, and of the parish of Harton should be altered in the manner described in Part I of the subjoined Schedule and as delineated on the map hereto annexed and (2) that the spiritual interests of the area defined in Part II of the said Schedule and delineated on the said map would be best served by constituting it a new parish, and that a suitable endowment therefore will be provided:

"And whereas we have not approved any consecrated church within the area described in Part II of the said Schedule as suitable to be the parish church of the new parish:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Alwyn, Bishop of Durham (in testimony whereof he has set his hand and affixed his episcopal seal to this Scheme), we, the said Church Commissioners, do humbly recommend and propose as follows, that is to say:—

"(a) As from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council confirming this Scheme, the boundaries of the said parish of All Saints, Cleadon, and of the said parish of Harton shall be altered in the manner described in Part I of the said Schedule and delineated on the map annexed hereto.

"(b) As from the date of the licence thereto of a minister the area defined in Part II of the said Schedule and delineated on the said map shall be a separate district for spiritual purposes.

"(c) As from the date of the consecration of a church within the said area approved by us, the said Church Commissioners, a suitable to be a parish church, or if the church is consecrated before such approval, the date of the approval, the said area shall become a new parish.

"(d) The name of the district (or parish as the case may be) shall be the 'District (or Parish) of Saint Cuthbert, Cleadon Park'.

"2. Archdeaconry and Rural Deanery :

"The parish shall be in the Archdeaconry of Durham and in the rural deanery of Jarrow.

"THE SCHEDULE.

"Part I.

"The territory (shown by the green colour on the map) to be annexed to the parish of Harton:—

"All those portions of the parish of All Saints, Cleadon, which lie to the north of the middle of Prince Edward Road and Prince Edward Road East.

"Part II.

"The area (shown by the pink colour on the map) comprising:—

"All those contiguous portions of the parishes of All Saints, Cleadon, and Harton which taken together are bounded upon the west and part of the northwest by the parishes of Saint George, East Boldon, and All Saints, Harton Colliery, upon the remaining part of the northwest and upon the north by an imaginary line, commencing at a point on the southwestern side of Prince Edward Road where the boundaries which divide the parishes of All Saints, Cleadon; All Saints, Harton Colliery; and Harton, all meet and extending thence first north-eastwards to and then south-eastwards and north-eastwards along the middle of Prince Edward Road and Prince Edward Road East to the boundary which divides the parish of Harton from the parish of Whitburn; upon the northeast by the parish of Whitburn; and upon the south by the South Shields County Borough Boundary commencing on the boundary which divides the parish of Whitburn from the parish of All Saints, Cleadon, and continuing thence first south-westwards and then in various directions along the said County Borough Boundary to the boundary which divides the parish of All Saints, Cleadon, from the parish of Saint George, East Boldon."

And whereas the provisions of the New Parishes Measure, 1943, relating to the preparation and submission of this Scheme, have been duly complied with:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Measure.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Durham.

F. J. Fernau.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 4th day of December, 1951.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Church Commissioners have in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1936, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 21st day of November, 1951, in the words and figures following that is to say:

"We, the Church Commissioners, acting in pursuance of the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, and of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1936, now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme which we have prepared with the consent of the Right Reverend Thomas, Bishop of Carlisle (in witness whereof he has signed the Scheme), for effecting the union of the benefice of Kirkbride and the benefice of Newton Arlosh, Saint John, in the diocese of Carlisle.

"SCHEME.

"1. Union of Benefices. The benefice of Kirkbride and the benefice of Newton Arlosh, Saint John, shall be permanently united together and form one benefice with cure of souls under the style of 'The United Benefice of Kirkbride with Newton Arlosh', but the parishes of the said benefices shall continue in all respects distinct.

"2. Taking effect of union. Upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme is published in the London Gazette the union shall forthwith take effect and the Reverend Henry Clayton if he is then incumbent of the said benefice of Kirkbride shall with his consent (testified by his signature hereto), be the first incumbent of the united benefice.

"3. Parsonage house. (a) Upon the union taking effect the parsonage house at present belonging to the benefice of Kirkbride shall be the house of residence of the incumbent of the united benefice and (b) if the parsonage house now belonging to the benefice of Newton Arlosh, Saint John, shall not have been sold or disposed of under the Parsonages Measure, 1938, before the taking effect of the union or shall not at that date be in process of being disposed of under that Measure, it and the site and appurtenances thereof and the grounds usually occupied and enjoyed therewith shall be sold and disposed of by us, the said Church Commissioners, after the union has taken effect at such time or times and in
