"All those contiguous portions of the parishes of Evington; Saint Philip, Leicester; Saint Stephen, North Evington, and Humberstone, which taken together are bounded upon part of the north east by the boundary which divides the parish of Humberstone from the parish of Evington and upon the remaining sides by an imaginary line commencing at a point on the south western side of Uppingham Road on the bridge over the British Railways (Eastern Region) Tilton and Leicester line in the middle of Goodwood Road on the boundary which divides the parish of Humberstone from the parish of Evington and extending thence southwards along the middle of Goodwood Road and of the proposed extension thereof to its junction with the present line of Coleman Road to a point where an unnamed water course crosses Coleman Road and continuing thence westwards along the water course (as it flows across Coleman Road and by the side of the fences which divide the closes numbered 41a and 37a from the closes numbered 66, 67, 69 and 70) to a point opposite the south eastern end of the wall or fence which divides the close numbered 37 from the close numbered 71 and which forms part of the south western boundary of the Leicester General Hospital and continuing thence north westwards first to and then along the last mentioned wall or fence then south westwards and again north westwards along the same wall or fence to a point opposite to the north eastern end of Gwendolen Road and continuing thence north westwards to and then south westwards and north westwards along the middle of Gwendolen Road (thereby crossing and re-crossing the boundary which divides the parish of Saint Stephen, North Evington, from the parish of Saint Philip, Leicester) to a point opposite to the middle of Gedding Road and continuing thence north eastwards to and along the middle of the last mentioned road to Saint Saviour's Road East and continuing thence first north eastwards to and then north westwards along the middle of the last mentioned road to Kitchener Road and continuing thence north eastwards to and along the middle of the last mentioned road to Green Lane Road and continuing thence north eastwards along the middle of the last mentioned road (thereby following the boundary which divides the parish of Saint Stephen, North Evington, from the parish of Saint Barnabas, New Humberstone) to the middle of Coleman Road and continuing thence northwards along the middle of the last mentioned road (thereby following the boundary which divides the parish of Saint Barnabas, New Humberstone, from the parishes of Evington and Humberstone) to the middle of Uppingham Road and continuing thence eastwards and south eastwards along the middle of the last mentioned road to Salter's Ford Bridge and continuing thence south westwards across Uppingham Road to the boundary which divides the parish of Humberstone from the parish of Evington."

And whereas the provisions of the New Parishes Measure, 1943, relating to the preparation and submission of this Scheme, have been duly complied with:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Measure.

And Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Leicester.

F. J. Fernau.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 23rd day of May, 1952.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 9th day of May, 1952, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Church Commissioners, acting in pursuance of the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1936, and of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners (Powers) Measure, 1938, now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme which we have prepared with the consent of the Right Reverend Tom, Bishop of Hereford (in witness whereof he has signed this Scheme), for effecting the union of the benefice of Neen Savage and the benefice of Kinlet, both situate in the diocese of Hereford.

"SCHEME.

"1. Union of Benefices. The said benefice of Neen Savage and the said benefice of Kinlet shall be permanently united together and form one benefice with cure of souls under the style of 'The United Benefice of Neen Savage with Kinlet', but the parishes of the said benefices shall continue in all respects distinct.

"2. Taking effect of union. Upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council affirming this Scheme is published in the London Gazette the union shall forthwith take effect and the Reverend Cyril George Challenger, if he is then incumbent of the said benefice of Neen Savage, shall with his consent (testified by his signature hereto) become the first incumbent of the united benefice.

"3. Parsonage House. Upon the union taking effect the parsonage house at present belonging to the benefice of Neen Savage shall be the house of residence of the incumbent of the united benefice.

"4. Patronage. After the union has taken effect the right of presentation to the united benefice shall be exercised by the patrons of the two benefices alternately, the patron of the benefice of Kinlet having the first presentation to the united benefice to be made after the union.

"5. Diversion of Endowments. Upon the union taking effect a part of the endowments of the united benefice, namely, (a) the surplus over and above a capital sum of £1,500 being part of the proceeds of the sale of the parsonage house of Kinlet now held by us, the Church Commissioners, and (b) a capital sum sufficient to produce £14 per annum being part of a larger capital sum now held by us on behalf of the benefice of Kinlet, shall be severed and diverted from the benefice of Kinlet and from the united benefice of Neen Savage with Kinlet and shall be transferred to and be held by us, the said Church Commissioners, as part of and for the benefit of our General Fund and in consideration of the said transfer we shall make out of the said General Fund such periodical payments to the diocesan stipends fund of the diocese of Hereford as we from time to time determine to be equitable having regard to the value of the said endowments."

And whereas the provisions of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1936, and the Union of Benefices Rules, 1926 and 1930, and the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, relating to the preparation and submission of this Scheme have been duly complied with:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that it shall be and become effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette.
