

affirm the said Supplementary Scheme and to order that it shall be and become effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette.

Martin Charteris.

At the Court at Balmoral, the 4th day of September, 1952.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 31st day of July, 1952, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Church Commissioners, acting in pursuance of the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, and of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1936, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Supplementary Scheme for making certain alterations to the provisions of an Order of His late Majesty King George the Fifth in Council (hereinafter referred to as 'the said Order in Council') dated the 11th day of October, 1923, and published in the London Gazette on the 12th day of October in the same year, for effecting the union of the benefice of Fyfield and the benefice of Tubney, both situate in the diocese of Oxford.

"Whereas in pursuance of the said Order in Council the said benefice of Fyfield and the said benefice of Tubney have been united to form one benefice with cure of souls under the style of 'The united benefice of Tubney with Fyfield' but the parishes of the said benefices remain distinct and separate:

"Now therefore we, the said Church Commissioners, with the consent of the Right Reverend Kenneth, Bishop of Oxford, and of the Reverend Albert Victor Billen being the incumbent of the said united benefice (testified by their signatures hereto) do humbly recommend and propose to Your Majesty as follows, that is to say;

"SCHEME.

"1. Upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council affirming this Scheme is published in the London Gazette the name of the said united benefice shall be altered to 'The United Benefice of Fyfield with Tubney'.

"2. Upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council affirming this Scheme is published in the London Gazette the parish of Fyfield and the parish of Tubney shall be permanently united together and form one parish for ecclesiastical purposes and the parish church of Fyfield shall be the parish church of the united parish.

"3. The marriage registers at the church of Tubney shall be dealt with in accordance with the provisions of section 62 of the Marriage Act, 1949, and the register books (if any) of baptisms and burials and other the records and muniments deposited in the said church shall be transferred to the parish church of the united parish."

And whereas the provisions of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1936, and the Union of Benefices Rules, 1926 and 1930, and the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, relating to the preparation and submission of this Scheme have been duly complied with:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that it shall be and become effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette.

Martin Charteris.

At the Court at Balmoral, the 4th day of September, 1952.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 31st day of July, 1952, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Church Commissioners, in pursuance of the Church Patronage Act, 1870, and the Acts mentioned therein, have prepared the following Scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Bilbrough in the diocese of York:

"Whereas we are satisfied that Matilda Wishart Wigan, wife of Cecil Rookhurst Wigan of Comarques, Thorpe-le-Soken, in the county of Essex a Major in Your Majesty's Army is the patron or person entitled to present or nominate to the said benefice:

"And whereas the said Matilda Wishart Wigan desires to transfer the advowson of the said benefice to the Archbishop of York for the time being and is consenting to this Scheme (in testimony whereof she has executed the same):

"And whereas we are satisfied that the transfer will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Cyril, Archbishop of York (in testimony whereof he has executed this Scheme), we, the said Church Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the date of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice shall be transferred to the said Cyril, Archbishop of York, and his successors in the same Archbishopric and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the Archbishop of York for the time being."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of York.

Martin Charteris.

At the Court at Balmoral, the 4th day of September, 1952.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 26th day of June, 1952, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Church Commissioners, acting in pursuance of the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1936, and of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners (Powers) Measure, 1938, and with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend William, Bishop of London (in witness whereof he has signed this Scheme), have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme for effecting the union of the benefice of New Brentford, (Saint Lawrence), and the benefice of Old Brentford, Saint Paul, both situate in the diocese of London.

"SCHEME

"1. Union of Benefices and Parishes. The said benefice of New Brentford (Saint Lawrence), and the said benefice of Old Brentford, Saint Paul, shall be permanently united together and form one benefice with cure of souls under the style of 'The United Benefice of Brentford, Saint Lawrence with Saint Paul' and, subject as hereinafter provided, the parishes of the said benefices shall also be united into one parish for ecclesiastical purposes.

"2. Taking effect of union. Upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council affirming this Scheme is published in the London Gazette the union shall forthwith take effect and the Reverend Arthur Albert Court, if he is then incumbent of the said benefice of New Brentford (Saint Lawrence), shall with his consent (testified by his signature hereto) be the first incumbent of the united benefice.

"3. Parish Church. The parish church of the parish of New Brentford (Saint Lawrence) shall be the parish church of the united parish.

"4. Registers. The marriage registers current at the church of Saint Paul, Old Brentford, shall be
