Legborne, October 19. N. S.

THE Confederate Fleet under the Command of Sir Cloudeff, Shouell failed from hence the 13th Instant, but the Wind soon changed, and has been so contrary ever since, that this morning one of the Tenders, called the Constant Pink, Stephen Nicholas Master, returned into this Port, having been separated from the Fleet off of Corsica the day after their departure hence.

Venice, Octob. 26. The Duke of Vendosme continues his March towards the Frontiers of Piedmont, and has caused 44 Pieces of Cannon to be put into several Barks at Cremona, in order to be carried up the Po to Casal, which Town the French have made choice of for a Place of Arms. The Imperial Army under the Command of General Scaremberg is in a readiness to march, but has been hindered hitherto by the Overflowing of the Po and the Secchia, occasioned by the late Rain. The French Forces in the Modense and the Country of Reggio seem to apprehend that the Design of the Germans may be to march that way; where upon the Country People are ordered to retire with their best Effects, their Cattel and Provisions, into Places of Safety, and they are fortifying the Towns of Modena and Reggio. The Imperialists have made a Detachment to reinforce the Duke of Savoy's Army, who have passed the Secchia, and are marching towards Piedmont.

Vienna, Octob. 27. Yesterday an Officer arrived here from the Imperial Army in Italy, who came away from thence the 20th Instant, and gives an Account, That the Duke of Vendosme was marched from the Camp at San Benedetto, with all the Spanish and Italian Troops, 17 French Battalions and 30 Squadrons, towards Casal; and that the Prince of Vaudemont, Governor of Milan, arrived the 18th at San Benedetto, and took upon him the Command of the French Forces which were left there to observe the Germans. The Duke of Savoy has sent to General Scaremberg for Succours, which he has granted, as far as the present Condition of the Imperial Army would allow, and for that purpose has detached the Marquis of Visconti with 1500 of his best Horse, and 200 Hussars, who passed over the River Secchia the 19th in the night, and had the good fortune not to be discovered. They rested 4 hours only the day following near Reggio, and were to continue their March with all possible diligence by the way of Parma and Placencia, which it is believed may be performed without any Danger, since General Visconti has got the Start of the French Army, and is very well acquainted with all that Country, being a Native of Milan. This Expedition has been concerted and carried on with great Secrecy, and will in all probability have a very good Effect. The Prussian Envoy here has notified to this Court, That the King his Master, nor having received the 300000 Crowns due to him from the Crown of Poland, has thought fit once more to possess himself of the Territory of Elbing, in pursuance of the Convention made to that purpose two Years ago between his Plenipotentiary and the Deputies of the Republick. Letters from Presbourg of the 24th say, the Count de Schlick was still in the Neighbourhood of that Place; but in a day or two would begin his March towards the Rebels, in order to drive them out of Leventz: Several Parties of them have submitted, and are come over to him, with their Standards, upon the Approach of the German regular Forces.

Nancy, Novemb. 3. Letters from Paris of the 27th past bring an Account, That the French Court sent Fontainebleau the 25th, came the next day to Savoy, and was expected at Verceil the 27th. An Express from the Duke of Vendosme arrived at Fontainebleau the 25th, which came by the way of Fontenay, with Advice, That the Duke having sent an Officer from Perugia to the Duke of Savoy, to know his final Resolution, the Royal Highness had returned an Answer by the same Messenger by Word of Mouth, which amounted to this, That he would not hearken to any new Proposal on the Part of France. That the Duke of Vendosme thereupon passed over the River Ticino, with his Forces, which arrived the 17th at Mortara and Trumello: That on the 20th they advanced to Casal, where a Bridge was made over the Po; but the great Rains and the Overflowing of the Rivers did very much incommode them; and these Forces were so fatigued by their late Marches, that it was believed they must go into Quarters of Refreshment before they could enter upon Action: And that the Duke of Savoy had put strong Garrisons into Verceil, Trin, Asti, Alba, and his other Frontier Towns in Piedmont, and all the Inhabitants of that Country were up in Arms. These Letters add, That the Marshal de Tefle was gone Post into Dauphine, to draw together some Battalions of Foot which were quartered in that Province, to cover these Frontiers against the Vaudos, who have already made several very successful Incursions, and carried off many Prisoners, and a great deal of Plunder: It is thought by some, that he has Orders to make an Attempt upon Susa; but the Duke of Savoy has provided that Place also with a sufficient Garrison. The Count de St. Pol is returned to Dunkirk with his Squadron, consisting of 6 Men of War, which had been up as far as Maelstrand, and has brought home two Prizes, which he took in those Seas. Letters from Madrid of the 13th say, That Don Francisco Palafio was made Governor of Catalonia, in the room of the Count de Parnes, Nephew to Cardinal Portocarrero, who is promoted to be a Councillor of State; That the President of Castile had desired Leave to retire from Publick Business, which had been refused; That the Duke of Hessey was made Viceroy of Gallicia; and that 12 French Gallies, which have lain a considerable time at Cadix, were come to Barcelona, in their way back to Marseilles.

Bransfort, Novemb. 4. The Town of Landau continues to make a vigorous Defence; The Count de Erise, Governor of that Place, sent out a Soldier on the first Instant, who passed undiscovered through the Enemy's Quarters, and brought Advice to the Count de Nassau, Wielburg, General of the Elector Palatine's Troops, That the French had yet made but little Progress in the Siege; that in one Salley he had nailed up 18 of their Cannon, and taken 3, and that in the whole they have had about 40 Pieces dismounted, or otherwise rendered unserviceable; and that all things in his Garrison were in so good a Condition, that he hoped to hold out yet 3 weeks longer. The same Messenger was sent back with Assurances, That the Prince of Hesse was marching to his Relief, and we hear he is returned safe into the Town.

Town. Letters from Augsborg of the 30th past say, that a Detachment from that Garrison had made an Inroad into Barvaria, and brought home 200 Head of Cattel, and other very considerable Booty. Prince Lewis was then encamped between Kempe and Memmingen; but by Letters from Swabia of the first we understand, that the French having greatly weakened the Garrison of Ulm, by sending a strong Detachment from thence towards that Place, as were also 3 Regiments of Horse and some Foot from Count Strom's Body, who continues encamped near Gemund: Of all which we expect a more particular Account. They write from Ratzenbome, that there had been a great Noise of firing of Cannon heard there, which was supposed to be General Herbesville attacking the Town of Amberg, the only Place which the Barvarians are possessed of in the Upper Palatinate.

Cologne, November 6. The Confederate Troops under the Command of the Hereditary Prince of Hesse are marching with all possible Diligence to the Relief of Lozdas. They have passed the River Aar above Bonn, and were reinforced the 4th Instant with a Swiss Battalion from that Town; they are to cross the Moselle at Aiken, and to take their March by Creutznach. We hear the Marquis of Precontal was expected the 4th at Triers with a Body of French Forces, which is said to consist of 20 Battalions and 16 Squadrons, and is to march to Aisne.

Hamburgh, November 6. Letters from Poland say, the Swedes had made an end of demolishing the Fortifications of Ikorn, and were preparing to march into Winter Quarters. Some Advices add, That the Nobility of the Poish Prussis had declared for the King of Sweden: and that the Considered Nobility of the Greater Poland were suspected of having a Design of placing upon the Throne Prince Janus Sobiersky, who is said to be among them.

Hague, Novemb. 9. N. S. The Men of War and Transport Ships provided by the Admiralty of Amsterdam are in the Texel, where two Regiments of Foot are already gone on board, and the rest of the Forces designed for these Parts for the Expedition to Portugal are marching to Williamstad, in order to embark there; so that in all probability the King of Spain will put to Sea in a week at farthest. There is Advice from Frankfort and Stuttgart, that Prince Lewis had received a Courier, with an Account, That the Duke of Vendome being advanced two days March towards Piedmont vs. in the Body under his Command, General Staremberg fell unexpectedly upon the remainder of the French Forces which had been left in the Camp at Sau Benedetto, and had routed them, killed 4000, and taken all their Cannon and Baggage; but no such Advice being come from Prince Lewis's Camp, we know not what Credit is to be given to it.

Tarmouth, Novemb. 5. Her Majesty's Ships the Roche and Swallow failed from hence this day for Holland. Her Majesty's Ship the Queenborough is also failed from this Port to the Southward.

Deal, Novemb. 6. Her Majesty's Ships the Tilbury, Nottingham, Tyger and Newport, failed from the Dawies this morning towards Holland.

Westminster, November 4. The Parliament met this day, and was further Prorogued by Commission till Tuesday next.

St. James's, November 4. Her Majesty and his Royal Highness removed hither this day from Kensington.

By the Principal Commissioners for Prizes.
