Laden with Sugar, Cotton, &c. and are bound to London: Another Merchant Ship has put in here, which is bound from that Island to Bristol; as have also the Benjamin Storeship, of 170 Tuns in Ballast, from Jamaica: the Nathaniel of Bristol, of 50 Tuns, Francis Thorpe Master, from Newn, and the Lucretia, of Bristol, of 40 Tuns, Juslinian Hinkon Master, from the same Place, all three bound for London. Yarmouth, November 27. Yesterday and last night we had a very violent Storm, the Wind changing often from the S.S.W. to the W. and W.N.W. and in the morning we found that of about 500 Ships which lay in our Roads many were missing, which we suppose were drove off to Sea; some were forced on the Sands, and others have lost all their Masts. Her Majesty's Ship the Reserve foundred about 11 this morning, and all her Men were lost; but the Lyn and Margate ride fast, and the Wind is much abated, tho' still so high, that no Boats can be sent off to them.

Porsmouth, November 27. Last night we had a very violent Storm of Wind, which held at the heighth from 12 till about 5 this morning. We have in sight 6 or 7 Wrecks, 4 or 5 by the Eastward of South-Sea Castle, and two upon Gilkeker Point. We hear that all our Transports from Ireland ride it out, and are well, except the Loss of some of their Masts, which will be easily repaired.

Deale, Nov. 27. Yesterday it blew hard all day, and about midnight the Wind came on at S.W. and continued between that and the W.S.W. with such Violence, that out of about 160 Sail of Ships, of all sorts, which were in the Downes, the greatest part are drove off to Sea; many of those which are remaining are without any Masts, having cut them by the board, as we suppose to to ride it out the better; 5 Sail, two of which are pretty big ones, are lost upon the Goodwin Sand. No Boat can yet be sent off; so that we know not the Particulars.
