

"THE SCHEDULE.

"The territory, shown by the pink colour on the map hereto, to be annexed to the parish of Saint James, Clifton:—

"All that part of the parish of Saint Stephen, Eastwood, which is bounded on the north and east by the parishes of Christ Church, Parkgate, and Holy Trinity, Dalton, on the south-east by the parish of Saint James, Clifton, and on the remaining side by an imaginary line commencing at a point opposite to the middle of the south-eastern end of Cranworth Road on the boundary which divides the parish of Saint James, Clifton, from the parish of Saint Stephen, Eastwood, and extending thence north-westwards first to and then along the middle of Cranworth Road to its junction with Fitzwilliam Road and continuing thence first north-westwards to and then north-eastwards along the middle of Fitzwilliam Road to a point opposite to the south-eastern end of the wall or fence which forms the north-eastern boundary of the house and premises known as number 196 Fitzwilliam Road and continuing thence north-westwards first to and then along the said wall or fence and along the walls or fences at the rear of the houses and premises known as numbers 3 to 57 Shakespeare Road and continuing thence in the same straight line to the boundary which divides the parish of Saint Stephen, Eastwood, from the parish of Christ Church, Parkgate."

And whereas the provisions of the New Parishes Measure, 1943, relating to the preparation and submission of this Scheme, have been duly complied with:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Measure.

And Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Sheffield.

F. J. Fernau.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 25th day of November, 1952.

PRESENT.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 21st day of August, 1952, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Church Commissioners, acting in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1936, and the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme which we have prepared with the consents of the Right Reverend Clifford Salisbury, Bishop of Gloucester, and of the Right Reverend William, Bishop of Worcester (in witness whereof they have signed the Scheme), for effecting the union of the benefice of Corse in the diocese of Gloucester and the benefice of Staunton in the diocese of Worcester.

"SCHEME.

"1. Union of Benefices. The benefice of Corse and the benefice of Staunton shall be permanently united together and form one benefice with cure of souls under the style of 'The United Benefice of Corse and Staunton', but the parishes of the said benefices shall continue in all respects distinct.

"2. Taking effect of union. Upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council affirming this Scheme is published in the London Gazette the union shall forthwith take effect and the Reverend Edward George Tilt if he is then incumbent of the said benefices of Corse and Staunton shall with his consent (testified by his signature hereto), be the first incumbent of the united benefice.

"3. Parsonage House. Upon the union taking effect the parsonage house at present belonging to the benefice of Staunton shall be the house of residence of the incumbent of the united benefice.

"4. Patronage. After the union has taken effect the right of presentation to the united benefice shall be exercised by the patrons of the two benefices alternatively, the patron of the benefice of Corse having the first presentation to the united benefice to be made after the union.

"5. Diocese Archdeaconry and Rural Deanery. The united benefice shall be in the diocese of Gloucester, the archdeaconry of Gloucester and the rural deanery of Gloucester North."

And whereas the provisions of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1936, and the Union of Benefices Rules, 1926 and 1930, and the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, relating to the preparation and submission of this Scheme have been duly complied with:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that it shall be and become effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette.

F. J. Fernau.

PRESENT

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 8th day of August, 1952, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We the Church Commissioners, acting in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1936, and the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme which we have prepared with the consent of the Right Reverend Thomas, Bishop of Carlisle (in witness whereof he has signed the Scheme), for effecting the union of the benefice of Ravenstonedale and the benefice of Saint Aidan, Newbiggin, both situate in the diocese of Carlisle.

"SCHEME.

"1. Union of Benefices. The benefice of Ravenstonedale and the benefice of Saint Aidan, Newbiggin, shall be permanently united together and form one benefice with the cure of souls under the style of 'The United Benefice of Ravenstonedale with Newbiggin-on-Lune', but the parishes of the said benefices shall continue in all respects distinct.

"2. Taking effect of union.

"(a) If upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council affirming this Scheme is published in the London Gazette the benefice of Saint Aidan, Newbiggin, shall be vacant, the union shall forthwith take effect.

"(b) If upon that day the said benefice of Saint Aidan, Newbiggin, shall be full the union shall take effect immediately upon the next vacation thereof and the incumbent (if any) at the relevant date of the benefice of Ravenstonedale shall be the first incumbent of the united benefice.

"3. Parsonage house.

"(a) Upon the union taking effect the parsonage house at present belonging to the benefice of Ravenstonedale shall be the house of residence of the incumbent of the united benefice.

"(b) So soon as conveniently may be after the union has taken effect the parsonage house at present belonging to the benefice of Saint Aidan, Newbiggin, and the site and appurtenances thereof and the grounds usually occupied and enjoyed therewith shall be sold and disposed of by us, the said Church Commissioners, at such time or times and in such manner in all respects as to us shall seem expedient, and the net proceeds of such sale or sales shall be held by us as a capital endowment for the benefit of the united benefice.

"4. Patronage. After the union has taken effect in every series of three successive turns of presentation or nomination to be made to the united benefice, the patrons of the benefice of Ravenstonedale shall have the first and second turns and the patron of the benefice of Saint Aidan, Newbiggin, shall have the third turn."

And whereas the provisions of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1936, and the Union of
