

Allendale, and the benefice of Saint Peter, Allendale, both situate in the diocese of Newcastle.

" SCHEME

" 1. Union of Benefices and Parishes. The said benefice of Allendale, and the said benefice of Saint Peter, Allendale, shall be permanently united together and form one benefice with cure of souls under the style of 'The United Benefice of Allendale', and the parishes of the said benefices shall also be united into one parish for ecclesiastical purposes.

" 2. Taking effect of union. Upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council affirming this Scheme is published in the London Gazette the union shall forthwith take effect and the Reverend Canon David Joseph Bertie Lewis if he is then incumbent of the benefice of Allendale shall, with his consent (testified by his signature hereto) be the first incumbent of the united benefice.

" 3. Parish Church. The parish church of the parish of Allendale shall be the parish church of the united parish.

" 4. Registers. The marriage registers in duplicate current at the church of Saint Peter, Allendale, shall be dealt with in accordance with Section 62 of the Marriage Act, 1949, and the register books of baptism and burials and other the records and muniments deposited in the said church shall be transferred to the parish church of the united parish of Allendale.

" 5. Parsonage House.

" (a) Upon the union taking effect the parsonage house at present belonging to the benefice of Allendale shall be the house of residence of the incumbent of the united benefice.

" (b) If the parsonage house at present belonging to the benefice of Saint Peter, Allendale, shall not have been sold or disposed of under the Parsonages Measures, 1938 and 1947, before the taking effect of the union or shall not at that date be in process of being disposed of under those Measures, it and the site and appurtenances thereof and the grounds usually occupied and enjoyed therewith shall be sold and disposed of by us, the said Church Commissioners, after the union has taken effect at such time or times and in such manner in all respects as to us shall seem expedient, and the net proceeds of such sale or sales shall be appropriated and held by us for the augmentation of the endowment of the united benefice.

" 6. Patronage. After the union has taken effect the right of presentation to the united benefice shall be exercisable solely by the patron of the benefice of Allendale."

And whereas the provisions of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1936, the Union of Benefices Rules, 1926 and 1930, and the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, relating to the preparation and submission of this Scheme have been duly complied with:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that it shall be and become effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette.

W. G. Agnew.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 11th day of February, 1953.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Supplementary Scheme bearing date the 14th day of January, 1953, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

" We, the Church Commissioners, acting in pursuance of the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, and of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1936, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Supplementary Scheme under Section 11 of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, with reference to the united benefice of Stoke-in-Teignhead and Combe-in-Teignhead in the diocese of Exeter.

" SUPPLEMENTARY SCHEME.

" Whereas an Order of Your Majesty in Council was made on the 22nd day of February, 1952, and was published in the London Gazette on the 29th day of February, 1952, ratifying a Scheme dated the 7th day of February, 1952, for uniting the benefices of Stoke-in-Teignhead and Combe-in-Teignhead, both situate in the said diocese.

" And whereas before the union the benefice of Stoke-in-Teignhead was in the rural deanery of Ipplepen and that of Combe-in-Teignhead in the rural deanery of Moreton and the said Scheme contained no recommendation as to the rural deanery to which the united benefice should belong:

" Now therefore we, the said Church Commissioners, with the consents of the Right Reverend Robert, Bishop of Exeter, and of the Reverend Gordon Albert Carter, being the incumbent of the united benefice (in witness whereof they have signed this Supplementary Scheme) do humbly recommend and propose to Your Majesty in Council that the united benefice of Stoke-in-Teignhead and Combe-in-Teignhead shall belong to the rural deanery of Moreton."

And whereas the provisions of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1936, and the Union of Benefices Rules, 1926 and 1930, and the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, relating to the preparation and submission of this Supplementary Scheme have been duly complied with:

And whereas the said Supplementary Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Supplementary Scheme and to order that it shall be and become effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 14th day of January, 1953, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

" We, the Church Commissioners, acting in pursuance of the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, and of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1936, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme for affecting the union of the parish of Hartwell and the parish of Stone with Bishopstone, being parishes of the united benefice of Stone with Bishopstone with Hartwell, situate in the diocese of Oxford.

" SCHEME.

" Whereas by an Order of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria in Council dated 18th August, 1892, and published in the London Gazette on 26th August, 1892, the benefice of Hartwell and the benefice of Stone with Bishopstone were united to form one benefice with cure of souls:

" And whereas the parishes of the said benefices remain distinct in all respects:

" Now, therefore, we, the said Church Commissioners, with the consent of the Right Reverend Kenneth, Bishop of Oxford, and of the Reverend Robert Francis Dossetor, being the incumbent of the said united benefice (testified by their signing this Scheme) do humbly recommend and propose to Your Majesty as follows, that is to say,

" 1. Union of Parishes. Upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council affirming this Scheme is published in the London Gazette the parish of Hartwell and the parish of Stone with Bishopstone shall forthwith be permanently united together and form one parish for ecclesiastical purposes under the style of 'the United Parish of Stone with Bishopstone with Hartwell'.
