CENTRAL CHANCERY OF THE ORDERS OF KNIGHTHOOD,

St. James's Palace, S.W.1.

22nd May, 1953.

The QUEEN has been pleased to appoint His Royal Highness The Duke of Edinburgh, K.G., K.T., to be Grand Master and First or Principal Knight Grand Cross of the Most Excellent Order of the British Empire.

CENTRAL CHANCERY OF THE ORDERS OF KNIGHTHOOD.

St. James's Palace, S.W.1.

22nd May, 1953.

The QUEEN has been graciously pleased to approve the award of the British Empire Medal (Military Division) to:—

Petty Officer Samuel John HORLICK, C/JX 154853, H.M.S. BARSOUND.

When H.M. Dockyard, Sheerness was flooded on the night of 1st February, 1953, a ship in dry dock was in danger of capsizing owing to the flood waters pouring into her engine room.

Petty Officer HORLICK organised a party of five ratings and, securing a dinghy which was drifting nearby, boarded the ship. The party had already seen another ship capsize but, in spite of this, and fully aware of the risk they ran, Petty Officer HORLICK led the party below by the aid of candle lanterns. He found where the water was flooding into the engine room and, working for nearly an hour in semi-darkness, the party succeeded in making the ship reasonably watertight.

Petty Officer HORLICK set a splendid example of courage and leadership and showed outstanding initiative and knowledge of what to do to ensure the safety of one of H.M. ships.

REGULATIONS FOR THE RECRUITMENT OF ASSISTANT KEEPER, SECOND CLASS, IN THE ROYAL SCOTTISH MUSEUM, SCOTTISH EDUCATION DEPARTMENT.

1. Sex and Marriage.

(i) Both men and women may compete under these Regulations.

(ii) Married women who have formerly been established Civil Servants and have drawn marriage gratuity (other than those who are widows or divorced, or who are separated from their husbands, or whose husbands suffer without hope of recovery from total physical or mental incapacity) will not be eligible unless they undertake to refund on appointment the marriage gratuity paid. Provided that this undertaking will not be required if the break between the first period of service (including any period of unestablished service immediately following the period in respect of which the gratuity was paid) and the date of re-establishment is more than seven years.

2. Age.

Candidates must be at least 22 and under 26 years of age on the 1st January of the year in which the competition is held, but in special circumstances candidates over 26 may be admitted with the approval of the Civil Service Commissioners. But

(a) a candidate who has served or is serving on a regular (including a regular short service) engagement in H.M. Forces may deduct the period of such service from his actual age;

(b) a candidate who has served or is serving voluntarily in H.M. Forces otherwise than on a regular or short service engagement or who has performed or is performing compulsory national service under the National Service Acts may deduct the period of such service from his actual age, up to a maximum of two years;

(c) candidates who have served in any established post to which they were admitted with the Certificate of the Civil Service Commissioners, or who have served on established conditions except for sick leave and pension in a post to which such a Certificate would normally apply, may deduct from their actual age any time not exceeding two years which they may have spent in such service.

3. Nationality.

Candidates must be British subjects. They must also satisfy one of the following conditions :—

(a) If natural-born British subjects they must either

(i) have at least one parent who is or was at the time of death a British subject; or

(ii) have resided in Her Majesty's dominions and/or been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of their appointment.

(b) If naturalised British subjects they must have resided in Her Majesty's dominions and/or been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of their appointment.

(c) If not qualified under (a) or (b) of this paragraph they must satisfy the Commissioners that they are so closely connected with Her Majesty's dominions either by ancestry, upbringing or residence, or by reason of national service, that an exception may properly be made in their favour.

4. Qualifications.

Candidates must normally possess a good honours degree of a University, in a subject bearing on the particular requirements of the Museum Department in which the vacancy occurs or, in cases where a University degree is inappropriate, a qualification acceptable to the Commissioners.

5. Competition.

Those candidates who from their application forms appear to be most suitable will be summoned to an interview before a Selection Board on which the Scottish Education Department and the Civil Service Commissioners will be represented. The Board will take into consideration the candidates' record of education and experience, any recommendations that they may receive from persons named by the candidates as having direct knowledge of their work in the past, and the candidates' scientific knowledge and personal qualities as shown at the interview; and on their estimation of all the above evidence the Board will frame their recommendations. The decision of the Commissioners will be final.

6. Health and Character.

Successful candidates must satisfy the Commissioners as to their health and character.

7. Candidates trained as Teachers.

Persons upon whose training for the occupation of teacher public money has been spent cannot be appointed until the consent of the appropriate Central Education authority (e.g., the Ministry of Education, the Scottish Education Department, the Ministry of Education for Northern Ireland) has been notified to the Civil Service Commissioners.

8. Canvassing.

Any attempt on the part of candidates to enlist support for their applications through Members of Parliament or other influential persons (except as referees to be named by them in their application form) will disqualify them for appointment. The Selection Board will disregard recommendations from persons who are not personally acquainted with the candidate's work.

9. Fee.

A successful candidate will be required to pay a fee of £4 before the issue of a certificate of qualification for appointment.
