Whitehall, July 24, 1953.

The following Address was presented to The QUEEN on the occasion of Her Majesty's visit to the London County Hall on Monday, 6th July, 1953:—

To THE QUEEN'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.

May it please your Majesty:—

We, the Chairman, Aldermen and Councillors of the London County Council, desire to offer, on behalf of the people of London, our humble and loyal duty on the occasion of Your Coronation and to express our deep thanks for the opportunity graciously accorded us of welcoming Your Majesty with his Royal Highness the Duke of Edinburgh to our company tonight.

We recall with pride that Your Majesty is a Londoner born and bred and in the name of the people of Your capital, we pledge our warm devotion to Your service and assure You in sincere affection and homage of our whole-hearted support in the discharge of those high duties which You have so newly assumed.

The people of London pray that Your Majesty may long be spared to reign over them in health and happiness and that in all corners of Your Commonwealth and Empire the blessings of peace and prosperity may ever attend Your Reign.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

I thank you most sincerely for this Loyal Address and for the warm and friendly welcome which you have given to my husband and myself this evening.

We shall retain the happiest memories of this occasion and I am glad to be able to thank the people of London, and particularly the children, for the enthusiasm and generosity with which in recent weeks they have displayed their loyalty and affection during my drives throughout the County. You refer to me in your Address as a Londoner born and bred, and I am proud of that description linking me with those who share my love for this great capital.

My husband and I will continue to take the closest interest in your labours for the well-being of the people whom you serve. May God give you wisdom, courage and faith in all your work.

Whitehall, July 24, 1953.

The QUEEN has been pleased to award the Albert Medal to the late Mr. John Robert Walsh in recognition of his gallantry in the following circumstances:—

On the afternoon of 8th February, 1953, a 10 year old boy went on to an ice-covered pond to recover a stick; the ice was about one inch thick, snow was falling and a bitterly cold wind was blowing. When the boy was about 12 yards from the bank the ice gave way and he fell into the water, which was some 30 feet deep. John Robert Walsh, a resident of the district, was walking on the far side of the pond and at once ran to the scene. After removing his outer clothing and his shoes and socks he walked over the ice to where the boy had fallen through, and from a kneeling position he attempted to rescue the boy, but the ice broke under him. As he entered the water he grabbed the boy and held him up. The ice, although too thin to support him, was thick enough to prevent his making a passage to swim back to the bank, and while he was waiting for aid from the bank he lost his hold on the boy and they were both drowned.

In the appalling weather conditions, and with his knowledge of the depth of the pond, Walsh must have known he was risking his life when he went to the boy's rescue. It was the act of a very brave man.
