And whereas the provisions of the New Parishes Measure, 1943, relating to the preparation and submission of this Scheme, have been duly complied with:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Measure.

And Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Exeter.

W. G. Agnew.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 1st day of August, 1953.

PRESENT.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council. WHEREAS the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 24th day of July, 1953, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Church Commissioners, acting in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1952, and the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme which we have prepared with the consent of the Right Reverend Russell, Bishop of Southwell (in witness whereof he has signed this Scheme), for effecting the union of the benefice of Awsworth with the chapelry of Cossall (now part of the benefice of Wollaton with Cossall) both of which benefices are situate in the diocese of Southwell.

"SCHEME.

"1. With the consents (testified by their signing this Scheme) of the Reverend Herbert Leslie Hobson as the incumbent of the said benefice of Awsworth and the Reverend Michael Faraday Giles as the incumbent of the benefice of Wollaton with Cossall, upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council affirming this Scheme is published in the London Gazette the chapelry of Cossall, being all that detached part of the benefice and parish of Wollaton with Cossall which comprises the civil parish of Cossall shall be severed from the remaining part of that benefice and parish and united to the benefice and parish of Awsworth.

"2. Upon the union taking effect the said benefice and parish of Wollaton with Cossall shall be known as the benefice and parish of Wollaton, and the said benefice and parish of Awsworth shall be known as the benefice and parish of Awsworth with Cossall.

"3. Upon the union taking effect certain parts of the endowments of the benefice of Wollaton with Cossall, namely:—

"(a) a capital sum of £2,965 held by us and representing the net proceeds of the sale of 1.212 acres or thereabouts of glebe land belonging to the benefice of Wollaton with Cossall situate in the parish of Cossall in the county of Nottingham and comprising closes numbered 132 and 133 on the Ordnance Survey Map (1937 Edition), together with the dwelling-house and premises thereon, and

"(b) a further capital sum, being part of a larger capital sum held by us on behalf of the said benefice, sufficient to produce a permanent annual income of £100,

"shall be severed or diverted from the said benefice and shall be annexed to and held by us as part of the endowment of the benefice of Awsworth with Cossall.

"4. The right of presentation to the benefice of Awsworth with Cossall shall belong wholly to the patron of the benefice of Awsworth."

And whereas the provisions of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1952, the Union of Benefices Rules, 1926 and 1930, and the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, relating to the preparation and submission of this Scheme have been duly complied with:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that it shall be and become effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette.
