

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Monday March 6. to Thursday March 9. 1703.

St. James's, March 8.

THE following Addreses from the Two Houses of Parliament in Ireland, have been transmitted hither by his Grace the Duke of Ormonde, Lord Lieutenant of that Kingdom.

To the Queen's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled.

WE Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled, of a grateful Sense of the many Blessings we enjoy by your Wise and Just Administration at home, and the Prosperous Success of your Armies abroad, humbly beg Leave to declare our Detestation of the Pernicious Designs which have lately been carried on in Scotland by Emisaries from France, to disturb the Happiness of your Glorious Reign.

And we assure Your Majesty, That we will at all times use our utmost Care to prevent, and our most hearty Endeavours to defeat, all Treiterous Conspiracies against Your Majesty, and to defend your Royal Person and Government, and maintain the Succession in the Protestant Line as limited by Law, against all Opposers.

And since Your Majesty has been pleased to express a just Concern for the Preservation of the Monarchy, and a Zealous Regard to the Welfare of the Established Church; we further declare our unanimous Resolution of assisting Your Majesty in transmitting them securely settled to all Posterity, being fully perswaded, that as the one is the most happy Form of Government, so the other is the best Constituted Church in the World.

To the Queen's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Knights, Citizens and Burgeses of Ireland, in Parliament assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Commons in Parliament assembled, most humbly beg Leave to Congratulate Your Majesty upon the happy Discovery of the late Pernicious Practices carried on in Scotland by the Emisaries of France against Your Majesty's Government, and the Peace of your Kingdoms.

We lie under so high Obligations to Your Majesty, and are so much interested in the Preservation of your Royal Person and Government, that we should be wanting to our selves, if on this and all other Occasions, we should not express our utter Abhorrence of all Plots and Conspiracies against a Queen so Gracious, and so justly beloved to the Love of her Subjects. And we humbly beseech Your Majesty to accept our most sincere Assurances, that we will, to the utmost of our Power, assist and support Your Majesty, and your Government, against all your open and secret Enemies, maintain the Succession of the Crown as settled in the Protestant Line, and the Church of Ireland as by Law Established.

Constantinople, Jan. 8. N. S. On the 30th of October last the Janiziar Aga Obelick Achmet Basha, to whom among other Marks of Favour, the Grand Signior had done the extraordinary Honour of accepting an Entertainment at his House some days before, was together with the late Basha's Baebi, and the Kihaya, Bey of the Janizaries, his Friends and Adherents, sent away upon a Galley into Exile. This Disgrace was very sudden and unexpected, and is imputed to his too eager pursuit of the Office of Grand Vizier, his Insolent Behaviour, and his Presumptuous assuming of too great an Authority, relying upon his Credit and Interest among the Soldiers, and the Support of those who were concerned in the late Revolution. But the Court had the Dexterity to turn his own Arms against himself, taking the Advantage of some Wrongs he was found to have done, the Janizaries. The Government has since fined him in a considerable Sum of Money, and Mehmed Ghelibi Aga has succeeded him in the Command of Janiziar Aga. The 2d of November, the first Publick Divan was held in the Seraglio, at which time an Ambassador from the Turbeck Terrays was admitted to an Audience of the Grand Signior; and upon the same occasion the Janizaries, Topigis and Gebegis, had their Pay distributed to them, which passed without any Disturbance or Signs of Discontent. Thereupon 3 days after the Grand Vizier Achem Achmet Basha, whose Parts and Capacity were very unequal to so great an Office, was deposed, and banished to Nicomedia, now called Ismir, having been forced to refund 300 Purts of the Money he had gotten since his Advancement, and Hassan Basha, the Reisab Casmatan, who has married the Grand Signior's Sister, was made Grand Vizier in his room, who made an end of paying the Soldiery, distributing to the Spahis what was due to them: His Promotion, which is undoubtedly owing to the Sultana Carrig, his Wife, and to the Valida Sultana, the Grand Signior's Mother, was a Surprize to every one; an Opinion having generally prevailed, that his Sultana was unwilling to expose him to the Danger of that high Station, which otherwise she might have sooner procured for him. Many other Changes have since happened in the Ministry, and the most powerful of those that were the Authors or Promoters of the late Revolution are removed from their Employments, which being attributed to the Valida's Management, gives occasion to many to believe, that when Matters are settled according to the Grand Signior's Desire, she will prevail with him to return with the Court to Adrianople. In November 3d Discovery was made of Practices carried on by the Instigation of the late Janiziar Aga's Friends, in order to excite a second Revolt; but the Court had the good Fortune to prevent it in time, by banishing the Spahilar Agai, the late Janiziar Aga's Kihaya, and most of the Commanders of those Forces which the Malecontents had got together in order to bring about the late Revolution. Others of the Accomplices are fled, and strict Enquiry is making after them. There are arrived in this Port 7 Turkish Men of War from the Mediterranean and the Archipelago; some of them from Alexandria, whence they have brought the Hafash, or Treasure of Egypt, amounting to about 500000 Dollars in Money, besides Rice, Coffee, and other Goods for the use of the Seraglio. Three other Men of War are to remain in the Seraglio, till such time as they are relieved by 5, which are fitting out in the Arsenal of this Place, for the Winter Service. The late deposed Sultan Mustapha is dead of a Dioply. About a fortnight ago an Envoy from the Grand Signior to the Emperor, parted hence, with above 30 Persons in his Retinue, for Vienna.

Lisbon, Febr. 23. N. S. The Panther Man of War arrived at Cascais the 3rd inst. with the Prince of Hesse Darmstadt and his Family on board, who came on shore the next day. On the 12th Instant arrived here a small Transport Ship with a Company of Colonel Brudenell's Regiment; and on the 16th came in another with a Company of my Lord Mansel's Officers and Soldiers of these two Companies are now all on shore, and are quartered at Belem, in the Governor's House. The 16th died the Infanta Donna Theresa, eldest Daughter to the King of Portugal, who was about 6 years old; her Loss is so much lamented, that all publick Marks of Sorrow are ordered to be given in the same manner as if she had been of Age; and the Court will go into close Mourning upon this Occasion. The Infanta Donna Francisca, who is now the King's only Daughter, has also the Small-pox, but (as is believed) without any Danger. Our last Letters from Spain say, that a Dividend was making at Seville of the Money that had been sent thither from Szevia, which came by the late Flota; but the whole Sum to be divided amounts to little more than 3 Millions of Pieces of Eight, to the great