

The Treasurer of the Household	Passed to his station on the South-east side of the Area beyond the Chair of Estate.
The Comptroller of the Household and the Vice-Chamberlain of the Household	Passed to the seats provided for them in the West Aisle of the North Transept.
The Keeper of the Jewel House	Delivered the Ring and the Armills to the Dean at the Altar and proceeded into Saint Edward's Chapel, by way of the South entrance, and delivered the Sword there, whence he went to his station on the South-east side of the Area.
Rouge Croix Pursuivant	Stood at the North-west Pillar.
Bluemantle Pursuivant	Stood at the South-west Pillar.
The four Knights of the Garter appointed to hold the Canopy for the Queen's Anointing	Passed to the seats provided for them in the South Transept.
The Lord Steward of the Household	Passed to his seat as a Peer in the South Transept.
The Lord Chamberlain of the Household	Went to his station behind the Queen's Chair of Estate.
The Lord Privy Seal	Stood at the North-east Pillar.
The Prime Ministers of the Members of the Commonwealth	Passed to their seats in the Choir Stalls.
The Archbishop of York, his Chaplain, and the bearer of the Cross of York	Proceeded to the Sacrarium, where the Archbishop stood by his Chair on the north side of the Altar and the others went to their stations.
The Lord High Chancellor	Went to his station at the east side of the Theatre.
His Pursebearer	Proceeded to his seat in the West Aisle of the North Transept.
The Archbishop of Canterbury, his Chaplains, and the bearer of the Cross of Canterbury.	Proceeded to the Sacrarium, where the Archbishop stood on the north side of the Altar and the others went to their stations.
Norfolk and Arundel Heralds Extraordinary	Stood at the North-west Pillar.
Windsor Herald and Somerset Herald	Stood at the South-west Pillar.
Lyon King of Arms	Went to his station and thence to the seat assigned to him.
His Royal Highness the Duke of Edinburgh	Was conducted to his Chair in front of the seats of the Lords Temporal in the South Transept.
The Treasurer, the Private Secretary and the Equerry to the Duke of Edinburgh	Passed to their seats in the South Transept.
The Gentlemen-at-Arms (who guarded His Royal Highness)	Went to their appointed places.
The Serjeants-at-Arms	Stood one at the North-west Pillar and one at the South-west Pillar.
Lancaster Herald, Chester Herald, York Herald and Richmond Herald	Stood at the South-west Pillar.
The Lords bearing the four Swords	Went to their stations on the right of the Queen's Chair of Estate, the Sword of State being nearest to the Royal Person.
The Lords bearing the Regalia	After presenting the Regalia to the Archbishop of Canterbury, went to their stations on the south side of the Area.
Clarenceux King of Arms	Stood at the North-east Pillar.
Norroy and Ulster King of Arms	Stood at the South-east Pillar.
The Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod and the Lord Mayor of London	Stood at the South-east Pillar.
Garter King of Arms	Went to his station in the Area.