

Wallop (now part of the benefice of Cliddesden with Farleigh Wallop) and (3) the benefice of Cliddesden (now part of the benefice of Cliddesden with Farleigh Wallop) and the benefice of Winslade (now part of the benefice of Tunworth with Winslade), all of which benefices are situate in the diocese of Winchester.

“SCHEME.

“1. Union of the Benefices of Upton Grey, Weston Patrick and Tunworth.

“(i) The benefice of Upton Grey, the benefice of Weston Patrick and the benefice of Tunworth, being part of the benefice of Tunworth with Winslade, shall be permanently united together and form one benefice with cure of souls under the style of ‘The United Benefice of Upton Grey with Weston Patrick and Tunworth’, which united benefice shall be in the Archdeaconry of Basingstoke and in the Rural Deanery of Odiham, but the parishes of the said benefices shall continue in all respects distinct.

“(ii) The union shall take effect upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council affirming this Scheme is published in the London Gazette and the Reverend Leonard Whitmill if he is then incumbent of the said benefices of Upton Grey and Weston Patrick shall, with his consent (testified by his signature hereto), be the first incumbent of the united benefice.

“(iii) Upon the union taking effect the parsonage house at present belonging to the benefice of Upton Grey shall be the house of residence of the incumbent of the united benefice.

“(iv) With the consent (testified as aforesaid) of the Right Reverend Alwyn, Bishop of Winchester, being the patron of the benefice of Weston Patrick, and with the consent of the Provost and Scholars (hereinafter called ‘the said Provost and Scholars’) of the Queen’s College in the University of Oxford, (in testimony whereof they have executed this Scheme) being the patrons of the benefice of Upton Grey, the patronage of the benefice of Weston Patrick shall be surrendered in favour of the said Provost and Scholars, and in every series of three successive turns of presentation to the united benefice after the union has taken effect Major Francis Henry Tristram Jervoise, the patron of the benefice of Tunworth, and his heirs and assigns shall have the first turn and the said Provost and Scholars shall have the second and third turns.

“(v) Upon the union taking effect a capital sum sufficient to produce £252 per annum, being part of a larger capital sum at present held by us on behalf of the benefice of Tunworth with Winslade, shall be annexed to and shall be held by us on behalf of the united benefice and shall, together with the whole of the endowments and property then belonging to the benefices of Upton Grey and Weston Patrick, form part of the endowments of the united benefice.

“(vi) (a) Subject as hereinafter provided any surplus, calculated by us for the twelve months ending on the 31st March in each year, of the endowment income (calculated in accordance with the schedule hereto) of the united benefice over and above an annual sum of £621 shall, with effect from the date upon which the union shall take effect, be paid to and be held by us for the benefit of the diocesan stipends fund of the diocese of Winchester.

“(b) The said endowment income and the said surplus and the said annual sum of £621 shall be deemed to accrue from day to day and shall when we deem that circumstances so require be apportionable accordingly.

“(c) Any moneys due to us from the incumbent of the united benefice, or, during any vacancy in the united benefice, from the sequestrators thereof, as the case may be (hereinafter called ‘the incumbent or sequestrators’) upon the calculation of the said surplus shall be paid by the incumbent or sequestrators to us not later than the 30th June in each year and shall be recoverable as a debt due to us.

“(d) For the purpose of ascertaining the amounts of the said endowment income and of the said surplus, we shall have power to require production by the incumbent or sequestrators of accounts and other documents in relation thereto, and the said accounts for the twelve months to 31st March in each year (or where applicable for a part of the year ending on that date) shall be rendered annually to us within six weeks of that date in such form as we shall prescribe; and in the event of failure by the incumbent or sequestrators to produce such accounts or documents we shall have all legal remedies for enforcing production thereof.

“2. Union of the Benefices of Ellisfield and Farleigh Wallop.

“(i) The benefice of Ellisfield and the benefice of Farleigh Wallop, being part of the benefice of Cliddesden with Farleigh Wallop, shall be permanently united together and form one benefice with cure of souls under the style of ‘The United Benefice of Ellisfield and Farleigh Wallop’ but the parishes of the said benefices shall continue in all respects distinct.

“(ii) The union shall take effect upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council affirming this Scheme is published in the London Gazette.

“(iii) Upon the union taking effect the parsonage house at present belonging to the benefice of Ellisfield shall be the house of residence of the incumbent of the united benefice.

“(iv) After the union has taken effect the right of presentation to the united benefice shall be exercised by the patron of the benefice of Ellisfield and the patron of the benefice of Cliddesden with Farleigh Wallop alternately, the Right Honourable the Earl of Portsmouth having the first presentation to the united benefice to be made after the union.

“(v) Upon the union taking effect a capital sum sufficient to produce £261 per annum, being part of a larger capital sum at present held by us on behalf of the benefice of Cliddesden with Farleigh Wallop, shall be annexed to and shall be held by us on behalf of the united benefice and shall, together with the whole of the endowments and property then belonging to the benefice of Ellisfield, form part of the endowments of the united benefice.

“3. Union of the Benefices of Cliddesden and Winslade.

“(i) The benefice of Cliddesden, being part of the benefice of Cliddesden with Farleigh Wallop and the benefice of Winslade, being part of the benefice of Tunworth with Winslade, shall be permanently united together and form one benefice with cure of souls under the style of ‘The United Benefice of Cliddesden and Winslade’ but the parishes of the said benefices shall continue in all respects distinct.

“(ii) The union shall take effect upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council affirming this Scheme is published in the London Gazette and the Reverend Arthur William Badger if he is then incumbent of the benefice of Cliddesden with Farleigh Wallop shall, with his consent (testified by his signature hereto), be the first incumbent of the united benefice.

“(iii) Upon the union taking effect the parsonage house at present belonging to the benefice of Cliddesden with Farleigh Wallop shall be the parsonage house of the united benefice.

“(iv) After the union has taken effect the right of presentation to the united benefice shall be exercised by the patrons of the two benefices alternately, the Right Honourable the Viscount Camrose having the first turn and the Right Honourable the Earl of Portsmouth having the second turn.

“(v) Upon the union taking effect (a) the whole of the endowments and property then belonging to the benefice of Tunworth with Winslade (including the net proceeds of the sale of the parsonage house thereof) with the exception of the capital sum mentioned in sub-paragraph (v) of paragraph 1 of this Scheme and (b) the whole of the endowments and property then belonging to the benefice of Cliddesden with Farleigh Wallop with the exception of the capital sum mentioned in sub-paragraph (v) of paragraph 2 of this Scheme shall be annexed to and together form part of the endowments of the united benefice.

“SCHEDULE.

“For the purpose of this Scheme the endowment income of the united benefice shall without prejudice to the power of decision vested in us by virtue of Section 18 of the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, if any question shall arise, be computed in accordance with our Central Register of Benefice Income, that is to say, by including:—

“(1) all gross secured income payable by us and any other person or body, and

“(2) all gross income received from ground rents, chief rents or other fixed charges, other glebe rents and any letting of the parsonage house or a formally divided portion thereof, and by deducting therefrom:—

“(1) the rates payable on the parsonage house if occupied by the incumbent,
