"SCHEME.

"(1) Union of the chapelry of Keyham and the benefice and parish of Houghton on the Hill.

"(i) With the consent (testified by his signing this Scheme) of the Reverend John William Joyce, as incumbent of the said benefice of Rothley the chapelry of Keyham, being a part of the benefice and parish of Rothley and comprising the whole of the civil parish of Keyham shall be severed from the remaining part of that benefice and parish and shall be permanently united to the benefice and parish of Houghton on the Hill and the united benefice shall be known as 'The United Benefice of Houghton on the Hill and Keyham'.

"(ii) The union shall take effect upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council affirming this Scheme is published in the London Gazette and the Reverend Sidney Freer Winckley if he is then incumbent of the said benefice of Houghton on the Hill shall with his consent (testified by his signature hereto) be the first incumbent of the united benefice.

"(iii) Upon the union taking effect a capital sum sufficient to produce a permanent income of £50 per annum and now forming part of a larger sum held by us, for the endowment of the said benefice of Rothley shall be severed or diverted from that benefice and shall be assigned and annexed to the united benefice of Houghton on the Hill and Keyham.

"(iv) The united benefice shall be in the Archdeaconry of Leicester and the Rural Deanery of Goscote (First Deanery).

"2. Union of the chapelry of Wycombe and Chadwell and the benefice and parish of Scalford.

"(i) With the consent (testified as aforesaid) of the Reverend John William Joyce as the incumbent of the said benefice of Rothley the chapelry of Wycombe and Chadwell being the detached part of the benefice and parish of Rothley which is totally enclosed by the present boundaries of the parishes of Goadby Marwood, Waltham on the Wolds and Scalford shall be severed from the remaining part of that benefice and parish and shall be permanently united to the benefice and parish of Scalford and the united benefice shall be known as 'The United Benefice of Scalford with Wycombe and Chadwell'.

"(ii) The union shall take effect upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council affirming this Scheme is published in the London Gazette and the Reverend Robert Taylor Seivewright if he is then incumbent of the said benefice of Scalford shall, with his consent (testified by his signature hereto), be the first incumbent of the united benefice.

"(iii) Upon the union taking effect a capital sum sufficient to produce a permanent income of £50 per annum and forming part of a larger sum held by us for the endowment of the said benefice of Rothley shall be severed or diverted from that benefice and shall be assigned and annexed to the united benefice of Scalford with Wycombe and Chadwell.

"(iv) The united benefice shall be in the Archdeaconry of Leicester and the Rural Deanery of Framland (Third Deanery)."

And whereas the provisions of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1952, the Union of Benefices Rules, 1926 and 1930, and the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, relating to the preparation and submission of this Scheme have been duly complied with:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved at the Council held under the authority of the said Letters Patent:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth The Queen Mother and Her Royal Highness The Princess Margaret, being authorized thereto by the said Letters Patent, have taken the said Scheme into consideration, and do hereby, by and with the advice of Her Majesty's Privy Council, on Her Majesty's behalf affirm the said Scheme and order that it shall be and become effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette.

W. G. Agnew.

At the Court of Saint James, the 13th day of April, 1954.

PRESENT.

Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth The Queen Mother.
Her Royal Highness The Princess Margaret.

Lord President.
Marquess of Reading.
Earl De La Warr.
Mr. Secretary Lyttelton.
Major Lloyd George.
Mr. Peake.

WHEREAS Her Majesty, in pursuance of the Regency Acts, 1937 to 1953, was pleased, by Letters Patent dated the 20th day of November, 1953, to delegate to Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth The Queen Mother, Her Royal Highness The Princess Margaret, His Royal Highness The Duke of Gloucester, Her Royal Highness The Princess Royal and the Earl of Harewood, or any two or more of them, as Counsellors of State, full power and authority during the period of Her Majesty's absence from the United Kingdom to summon and hold on Her Majesty's behalf Her Privy Council and to signify thereat Her Majesty's approval of anything for which Her Majesty's approval in Council is required:

And whereas the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 26th day of March, 1954, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Church Commissioners, acting in pursuance of the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, and of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1952, now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme which we have prepared with the consent of the Right Reverend Thomas, Bishop of Carlisle (in witness whereof he has signed the Scheme) for effecting the unions of (1) the benefice of Castle Carrock with Cumrew and the benefice of Croglin (now part of the benefice of Croglin with Renwick) and (2) the benefice of Kirkoswald and the benefice of Renwick (being the remaining part of the benefice of Croglin with Renwick) all of which benefices are situate in the diocese of Carlisle.

"SCHEME.

"1. Union of the Benefices of Castle Carrock with Cumrew and Croglin.

"(I) The benefice of Castle Carrock with Cumrew and the benefice of Croglin, being part of the benefice of Croglin with Renwick, shall be permanently united together and form one benefice with cure of souls under the style of 'The United Benefice of Castle Carrock with Cumrew and Croglin' which united benefice shall be in the Archdeaconry of Carlisle and in the Rural Deanery of Brampton, but the parishes of the said benefices shall continue in all respects distinct.

"(II) The union shall take effect upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council affirming this Scheme is published in the London Gazette and the Reverend Arthur Mansfield Cook if he is then incumbent of the said benefice of Castle Carrock with Cumrew shall, with his consent (testified by his signature hereto), be the first incumbent of the united benefice.

"(III) Upon the union taking effect the parsonage house at present belonging to the benefice of Castle Carrock with Cumrew shall be the house of residence of the incumbent of the united benefice.

"(IV) After the union has taken effect in every series of three successive turns of presentation to be made to the united benefice the patrons of the benefice of Castle Carrock with Cumrew shall have the first and second turns and the alternate patron who last presented to the benefice of Croglin with Renwick shall have the third turn.

"(V) Upon the union taking effect (a) the parsonage house and the whole of the glebe property now belonging to the benefice of Croglin with Renwick with the exception of the glebe house which was formerly the parsonage house of the benefice of Renwick and (b) the whole of the endowments and property then belonging to the benefice of Castle Carrock with Cumrew, shall be annexed to and together form part of the endowments of the united benefice.

"2. Union of the Benefices of Kirkoswald and Renwick.

"(I) The benefice of Kirkoswald and the benefice of Renwick, being part of the benefice of Croglin with Renwick, shall be permanently united together and form one benefice with cure of souls under
