

be in possession of and to supply the drugs or preparations to which these Regulations apply, was by Notice published in the London Gazette and Edinburgh Gazette on the 5th January, 1951, withdrawn from Arthur Crowley, L.A.H. (Dublin), whose registered address was c/o B.M.A. House, Tavistock Square, London, W.C.1, who had been convicted of offences against the Dangerous Drugs Acts, 1920 to 1932:

And whereas at the same time a direction was given by the Secretary of State that it should not be lawful for the said Arthur Crowley to give prescriptions for the purposes of the Dangerous Drugs Regulations, 1937:

And whereas Regulation 29 of the Dangerous Drugs Regulations, 1953, provides that where the general authority of any person to be in possession of and to supply the said drugs or preparations has been withdrawn the Secretary of State may at any time restore it or may suspend the withdrawal:

And whereas I am satisfied that it is expedient to suspend the operation of the said Notice of Withdrawal of Authorisation in respect of the said Arthur Crowley:

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the powers conferred on the Secretary of State by Regulations 29 of the Dangerous Drugs Regulations, 1953, I hereby suspend, until further Order, the operation of the said Notice of Withdrawal of Authorisation and of the said direction regarding prescriptions.
