

At the Council Chamber, Whitehall.

The 17th day of June, 1954.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales has duly made an alteration in the Bye-laws of the Institute:

And whereas the said alteration has been submitted to the Lords of the Privy Council for allowance:

Now, therefore, Their Lordships, having taken the said alteration in the Bye-laws into consideration, are pleased to allow the same as set forth in the Schedule to this Order and to order that the same shall come into operation on the 1st day of January, 1955.

W. G. Agnew.

SCHEDULE.

Alteration in the Bye-Laws of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales referred to in the foregoing Order.

Bye-law 81

Delete existing Bye-law 81 and substitute new Bye-law as follows:—

"81. Every articulated clerk, unless he is exempted from so doing under any of these bye-laws, shall before his articles expire present himself for an Intermediate examination to test the progress he has made in professional knowledge but shall not do so before he has completed a period of two years of service or, in the case of a person whose term of service does not exceed three years, before he has completed a period of one year of service: Provided that the Council may, in any case in which it considers there are exceptional circumstances, allow the articulated clerk to present himself for the Intermediate examination before the expiration of the said period of service. For the purpose of this bye-law the Council may deem service to have commenced on the first day of the calendar month in which it in fact commenced."
