

a Scheme bearing date the 7th day of July, 1954, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Church Commissioners, acting in pursuance of the Archdeaconries and Rural Deaneries Act, 1874, and of the Acts mentioned therein have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme which we have prepared with the consent of the Right Reverend William, Bishop of Salisbury (in witness whereof he has signed and sealed the same), with respect to some of the rural deaneries within the archdeaconries of Sherborne and Dorset both in the diocese of Salisbury.

"SCHEME

"As from the first day of January next following the day on which any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme shall be published in the London Gazette and without any assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order:

"(1) The rural deanery of Cerne within the archdeaconry of Sherborne and the rural deanery of Stalbridge within the archdeaconry of Dorset shall cease to exist.

"(2) There shall be transferred to the rural deanery of Beaminster within the archdeaconry of Sherborne the parishes of Evershot, Frome Saint Quinton, and Melbury Bubb now in the rural deanery of Cerne within the same archdeaconry and the parishes of Rampisham and Wraxall now in the rural deanery of Bridport within the same archdeaconry.

"(3) There shall be transferred to the rural deanery of Dorchester within the archdeaconry of Sherborne the parishes of Cerne Abbas, Godmanston, Minterne Magna, Nethercerne, Sydling Saint Nicholas, and Uperne now in the rural deanery of Cerne within the same archdeaconry.

"(4) There shall be transferred to the rural deanery of Sherborne within the archdeaconry of Sherborne the parishes of Buckland Newton, Hermitage, Hilfield, Pulham, and Wootton Glanville with Holnest now in the rural deanery of Cerne within the same archdeaconry and the parishes of Bishop's Caundle, Marsh Caundle, Stourton Caundle, Purse Caundle, Folke, Long Burton, North Wootton, Haydon and Holwell now in the rural deanery of Stalbridge within the archdeaconry of Dorset.

"(5) There shall be transferred to the rural deanery of Sturminster Newton within the archdeaconry of Dorset the parishes of Haselbury Bryan, Stoke Wake, Fifehead Neville with Fifehead Saint Quinton, and Mappowder with Plush now in the rural deanery of Cerne within the archdeaconry of Sherborne and the parishes of Lydlinch, Stalbridge and Stock now in the rural deanery of Stalbridge within the archdeaconry of Dorset and the parishes of Ibberton, Belchalwell and Woolland now in the rural deanery of Milton within the archdeaconry of Dorset.

"(6) There shall be transferred to the rural deanery of Shaftesbury within the archdeaconry of Dorset the parishes of Fontmell Magna, Compton Abbas, and Melbury Abbas now in the rural deanery of Sturminster Newton within the same archdeaconry.

"(7) There shall be transferred to the rural deanery of Blandford within the archdeaconry of Dorset the parish of Durweston now in the rural deanery of Milton within the same archdeaconry and the parish of Iwerne Courtney now in the rural deanery of Sturminster Newton within the same archdeaconry."

And whereas the provisions of the said Acts, relating to the preparation and submission of this Scheme, have been duly complied with:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law upon the first day of January next following the day on which this Order shall be published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Salisbury.

W. G. Agnew.

At the Court at Arundel Castle, the 30th day of July, 1954.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 15th day of July, 1954, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Church Commissioners, acting in pursuance of the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, and the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1952, now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme which we have prepared with the consent of the Right Reverend Ronald, Bishop of Leicester (in witness whereof he has signed the Scheme), for effecting the union of the benefice of Measham and the benefice of Willesley both situate in the diocese of Leicester.

"SCHEME.

"1. Union of Benefices. The benefice of Measham and the benefice of Willesley shall be permanently united together and form one benefice with cure of souls under the style of 'The United Benefice of Measham with Willesley', but the parishes of the said benefices shall continue in all respects distinct.

"2. Taking effect of union. Upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council affirming this Scheme is published in the London Gazette the union shall forthwith take effect.

"3. Parsonage House. Upon the union taking effect the parsonage house at present belonging to the benefice of Measham shall be the house of residence of the incumbent of the united benefice.

"4. Patronage. With the consent of the Trustees of The Martyrs Memorial and Church of England Patronage Trust, being the patrons of the benefice of Willesley, and with the consents of the Reverend Herbert William Hinde, the Reverend Talbot Greaves Mohan, the Reverend Canon Alfred St. John Thorpe, the Reverend Canon Fisher Ferguson, Mary, Lady Bates, John Henry Wenham Esquire, and Robert Keith Agnew Macaulay, Lieutenant-Colonel (retired) in Your Majesty's Army, hereinafter referred to as 'the trustees of the Church Pastoral-Aid Society's Board of Patronage', as patrons of the benefice of Measham, the whole right of patronage of the said benefice of Willesley shall without any conveyance or assurance other than this Scheme be surrendered in favour of the trustees of the Church Pastoral-Aid Society's Board of Patronage to the intent that the whole patronage of the united benefice of Measham with Willesley shall belong to and be exercisable by the trustees of the Church Pastoral-Aid Society's Board of Patronage."

And Whereas the provisions of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1952, the Union of Benefices Rules, 1926 and 1930, and the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, relating to the preparation and submission of this Scheme have been duly complied with:

And Whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that it shall be and become effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette.

W. G. Agnew.

At the Court at Arundel Castle, the 30th day of July, 1954.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 13th day of May, 1954, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Church Commissioners, acting in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1952, and the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme which we have prepared with the consent of the Right Reverend Russell, Bishop of Southwell, (in witness whereof he has signed the Scheme) for effecting the union of the benefice of Nottingham, Saint Matthew, and the benefice of
