

to this Scheme (in testimony whereof they have executed the same):

"And whereas we are satisfied that the transfer will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Alwyn, Bishop of Winchester (in testimony whereof he has executed this Scheme), we, the said Church Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice shall be transferred to the said Alwyn, Bishop of Winchester, and his successors in the same Bishopric and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the Bishop of Winchester for the time being."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Winchester.

W. G. Agnew.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 19th day of October, 1954.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme hearing date the 29th day of September, 1954, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Church Commissioners, in pursuance of the Church Patronage Act, 1870, and of the Acts mentioned therein, have prepared the following Scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Weston in Gordano in the county of Somerset and in the diocese of Bath and Wells.

"SCHEME.

"Whereas we are satisfied that Sir Charles William Miles, Baronet, of The Manor House, Walton in Gordano, is the patron or person entitled to present or nominate to the said benefice:

"And whereas the said Sir Charles William Miles desires to transfer the advowson of the said benefice to the Bishop of Bath and Wells for the time being and is consenting to this Scheme (in testimony whereof he has executed the same):

"And whereas we are satisfied that the transfer will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend William, Bishop of Bath and Wells (in testimony whereof he has executed this Scheme), we, the said Church Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice shall be transferred to the said William, Bishop of Bath and Wells, and his successors in the same Bishopric and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the Bishop of Bath and Wells for the time being."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Bath and Wells.

W. G. Agnew.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 19th day of October, 1954.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 24th day of September, 1954, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Church Commissioners, acting in pursuance of the New Parishes Measure, 1943, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme for altering the boundaries of the parishes of Saint Hilda, Hartlepool; Holy Trinity, Hartlepool; and Hart in the diocese of Durham.

"Whereas we are satisfied that it is desirable that the boundaries of the said parishes should be altered in the manner hereinafter mentioned:

"And whereas the Right Reverend Michael, Bishop of Durham consents to the proposed arrangements (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme):

"Now, therefore, we, the said Church Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that from and after the day of the date of publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme the boundaries of the said parishes of Saint Hilda, Hartlepool, Holy Trinity, Hartlepool and Hart shall be altered in the manner described in the Schedule and delineated on the map annexed to this Scheme.

"THE SCHEDULE.

"1. The territory to be annexed to the parish of Saint Hilda, Hartlepool, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Holy Trinity, Hartlepool (coloured pink on the map annexed hereto) which lies to the southeast and the east of an imaginary line commencing at a point on the boundary which divides the parish of Saint Oswald, West Hartlepool, from the parish of Holy Trinity, Hartlepool, in the middle of Cleveland Road and proceeding thence northeastwards along the middle of the last mentioned road to a point opposite to its northeastern end in the middle of Hart Road and continuing thence due northeastwards thereby crossing the Hartlepool Branch Line of British Railways (North Eastern Region) to the sea.

"2. The territory to be annexed to the parish of Holy Trinity, Hartlepool, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Hart (coloured green on the map annexed hereto) which lies to the northeast and the southeast of an imaginary line commencing at a point on the boundary which divides the parish of Holy Trinity, Hartlepool, from the parish of Hart, opposite the western end of West View Road in the middle of Easington Road and proceeding thence northwestwards along the middle of the last mentioned road to a point 100 feet or thereabouts northwest of its junction with the right of way opposite Springwell House and continuing thence 180 feet or thereabouts in a straight line northeastwards to a point in the middle of an unnamed new road (leading to Hart Warren Farm) at its junction with Ocean Road and continuing thence northeastwards along the middle of the unnamed new road and along the middle of a tunnel under the Hartlepool Branch of British Railways (North Eastern Region) to a point in the middle of the footpath leading to Hart Warren Farm and continuing thence first southeastwards and then northeastwards along the middle of the last mentioned footpath to its end and continuing thence in the same straight line to the sea."

And whereas the provisions of the New Parishes Measure, 1943, relating to the preparation and submission of this Scheme, have been duly complied with:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that
