The following Address has been pre-W Indsor, June 27. The f

The humble Address of the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, of the Cathedral Church of Lincoln, in behalf of themselves, and others of the Clergy of that Diocele.

Cathedral Church of Lincoln, in behalf of themselves, and others of the Clergy of that Diocele!

May it please Your Majesty,

W IE do with Hearts full of Thankfulness both to God and Your Majesty acknowledge the many Evidences Tou have given of a sincere Piety towards God, and of a particular Lova and Favour for this Church of England; especially Your Majesty's late unparalle'd Bounty in parting with Your whole Revenue of Eigh Fruits and Tenths to encrease the Maintenance of the power Clergy, and the great Concern You were pleas'd to express to have it essentially settled in Parliament.

It has been a great Trouble to us to see so many of our Brethren, esticularly in this Diocese, labouring under the Necessities of a very mean Provision, and to hear of the many Prejudices which this has brought to the State of Religion in this Kingdom: But Your Majesty's Royal Bonnty to the Clergy at present, and the Expectation of what surther Bissings we many promise our selves from se Excellent a Queen, raise our Hopes of seeing this Church become every day more a Praise in the Earth.

We of this Diocele, on our part, do humbly beg Leave to assure the best of the Return of all the Duty and Gratitude which god Subjects can pay to so good a Queen; particularly we shall make it our Prajer; That God would give Your Majesty that Homes which he has promised to those that homour him; That You may live long to do good, and so see the good Essente of Your Care in these Kingdoms; And that when You must give up the Care of them, to enjoy the Reward of it in another World, you may have the compercable Prospect of the sing succeeded by a long Race of Protestant Successors; who shall solve very graciously.

Which Address Her Majesty received very graciously.
