

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Measure.

And Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Derby.

W. G. Agnew.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 4th day of November, 1954.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 20th day of October, 1954, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Church Commissioners, acting in pursuance of the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, and the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1952, now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme which we have prepared with the consent of the Right Reverend Harold, Bishop of Saint Edmundsbury and Ipswich (in witness whereof he has signed the Scheme), for effecting the union of the benefice of Grundisburgh and the benefice of Burgh both situate in the diocese of Saint Edmundsbury and Ipswich.

"SCHEME.

"1. Union of Benefices. The benefice of Grundisburgh and the benefice of Burgh shall be permanently united together and form one benefice with cure of souls under the style of 'The United Benefice of Grundisburgh with Burgh', but the parishes of the said benefices shall continue in all respects distinct.

"2. Taking effect of Union. Upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council affirming this Scheme is published in the London Gazette the union shall forthwith take effect.

"3. Parsonage House. Upon the union taking effect the parsonage house at present belonging to the benefice of Grundisburgh shall be the house of residence of the incumbent of the united benefice.

"4. Patronage. In every series of three successive turns of presentation or nomination to be made to the united benefice after the union has taken effect, the patron of the benefice of Grundisburgh shall have the first and second turns and the patron of the benefice of Burgh shall have the third turn."

And whereas the provisions of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1952, the Union of Benefices Rules, 1926 and 1930, and the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, relating to the preparation and submission of this Scheme have been duly complied with:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that it shall be and become effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette.

W. G. Agnew.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 4th day of November, 1954.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 28th day of June, 1954, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Church Commissioners, acting in pursuance of the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1952, and the Diocesan Stipends Funds Measure, 1953, now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme which we have prepared with the consent of the Right Reverend Henry, Bishop of Guildford (in witness whereof he has signed the Scheme), for effecting the union of the benefice of Ockham and the benefice of Hatchford (the church or chapel whereof is situate within the parish of Cobham) and for altering the boundaries of the parishes of Cobham and Ockham, all of which benefices and parishes are situate in the diocese of Guildford.

"SCHEME.

"1. Union of Benefices. The benefice of Ockham and the benefice of Hatchford shall be permanently united together and form one benefice with cure of souls under the style of 'The United Benefice of Ockham with Hatchford', and the parish of the said benefice of Ockham and all that part of the parish of the benefice of Cobham which is described in the First Schedule hereto shall, with the consent of the Reverend Frederick Walter Crooks, being the incumbent of the benefice of Cobham (in witness whereof he has signed this Scheme), be united into one parish for ecclesiastical purposes.

"2. Parish Church. The parish church of the parish of Ockham shall be the parish church of the united parish of Ockham with Hatchford.

"3. Taking effect of union. Upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council affirming this Scheme is published in the London Gazette the union shall forthwith take effect and the Reverend Charles William Wall if he is then incumbent of the said benefice of Hatchford shall with his consent (testified by his signature hereto), be the first incumbent of the united benefice.

"4. Patronage. After the union has taken effect the right of presentation to the united benefice shall be exercised by the patrons of the two benefices alternately, the patron of the benefice of Hatchford having the first presentation to the united benefice to be made after the union.

"5. Diversion of surplus endowment income.

"(a) Subject as hereinafter provided any surplus, calculated by us for the twelve months ending on the 31st March in each year, of the endowment income (calculated as prescribed in the Second Schedule hereto) of the united benefice over and above an annual sum of £700 shall, with effect from the date upon which the union shall take effect, be paid to and be held by us for the benefit of the diocesan stipends fund of the diocese of Guildford.

"(b) The said endowment income and the said surplus and the said annual sum of £700 shall be deemed to accrue from day to day and shall, when we deem that circumstances so require, be apportionable accordingly.

"(c) Any moneys due to us from the incumbent of the united benefice, or, during any vacancy in the united benefice, from the sequestrators thereof, as the case may be (hereinafter called 'the incumbent or sequestrators') upon the calculation of the said surplus shall be paid by the incumbent or sequestrators to us not later than the 30th June in each year and shall be recoverable as a debt due to us.

"(d) For the purpose of ascertaining the amounts of the said endowment income and of the said surplus, we shall have power to require production by the incumbent or sequestrators of accounts and other documents in relation thereto, and the said accounts for the twelve months to 31st March in each year (or where applicable for a part of the year ending on that date) shall be rendered annually to us within six weeks of that date in such form as we shall prescribe; and in the event of failure by the incumbent or sequestrators to produce such accounts or documents we shall have all legal remedies for enforcing production thereof.

"6. Archdeaconry and Rural Deanery. The united benefice shall be in the archdeaconry of Dorking and the Rural deanery of Leatherhead.

"FIRST SCHEDULE.

"The territory to be annexed to the parish of Ockham:—

"All that part (coloured pink on the map annexed hereto) of the parish of Cobham which lies to the south of an imaginary line commencing at a point on the boundary which divides the parish of Wisley from the parish of Cobham in the middle of the River Mole and continuing thence first southeastwards and then northeastwards along the middle of the River Mole to a point opposite the northwestern end of the wall or fence which divides close numbered 512 (on the map) from close numbered 478 and continuing thence first southeastwards and then in various directions along the said wall or fence to its end and continuing thence southwestwards along the wall or fence which forms the south-eastern boundary of close numbered 512 to the
