HE following Address has been presented to Her Majesty.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Bishop, the Dean and Chapter, Archdeacon and Beneficed Clergy, of the Diocese of Carlile.

May it plcase Your Majesty,

We four Majesty's most Dutiful and ross Obedient Subjetts, hundly beg Leave to present to Your Majesty our most hearty and unseigned Thanks for that unparallet a Goodness which Tour Majesty has been Graciously pleased to express to wards the poorer Vicarages and unendow'd Cures of this Kingdom: 'Tis a Charity, Publick in its Nature; High and Honourable in its Object; and which happily illustrates those many Divine Virtues that are (of themselves) so Conspicuous in Your Maist. Design jest's Reign.

In these remoter Parts of the Nation, there are too frequent Instances of the low Estate of Your Clergy; where those who attend upon Holy Things have a meaner Subsistence than Persons of much inserier Professions: And, as their Condition is deplarable, so this saily to be relieved by Your Moselfy's Royal Bouncy and the Piona Concern of Your Great Council.

That God Almighty, who has been pleased to open Your Generous Heart in so signal an Emanation of unprecedented Charity, would accept Your Oblation, and ever Grown Your Sacred Person and Government with ail Temporal and Spiritual Blessings, is the constant Prayer of, Middin, Your Majesty's most Dutiful and most Grateful Subjects.

Which Addang Times.

Which Address Her Majesty received very Graciously.

Revel, June 20. N. S. Vice-Admiral Pru, who lately failed from hence with a Squadron of Swedish Men of War, and divers Vessels laden with Provisions and Ammunition, for Narva, is returned hither, finding it impracticable to send my Supplies into that Place, which continues closely blocked up by the Musewites both by Sea and Land. He has lost two of his Ships, which were forced on Shore in a Storm whereof one which were forced on Shore in a Storm, whereof one was seized by the Muscovites, and the other was staved to pieces. The Enemy has also blocked up Dorped, and frequently sends out Parties surther into this Province, to ravage the Country and to destroy the Corn.

Sendowir, June 20. The King of Poland sent lately from hence a Detachment of 5000 Saxons and Lichuawiem, under the Command of the Prince of Wiefnowiski, Castellan of Wilna, and a Saxon General, with Orders to observe General Reinschild, who lay within a few Leagues of this Place with a Body of Swedish Forces. They marched accordingly towards his Camp, and on the 18th Instant met with a Detachment of his Troops of 500 Horse, whom they surrounded, fell upon them, and put most of them to the Sword, the Lithuanians giving no Quarter. The King has passed the Weissel with the rest of his Army, and has removed his Camp surrous from hence than it was before. General Radofarther from hence than it was before. General Radomiski has brought over to the King's Interest a great number of the Nobility of the Greater Poland, who were in the Confederacy, and he lately held an Assembly of the Chief of them at Kofwia, wherein several Resolutions are the contractions of the Chief of them at Kofwia, wherein several Resolutions are the contractions of the Chief of them at Kofwia, wherein several Resolutions are the contractions are the contractions of the Chief of them at Kofwia, wherein several Resolutions are the contractions of the Chief of the Ch Resolutions were taken for the better disappointing the Deigns of the Cardinal Primate, and those of his Party. While they were affembled, a small Body of Swd sh Forces came before the Place; whereupon the Nobility marched out, and obliged them to retire.

Limberg, the chief Town of Resseland, with its Ga.

rison, consisting of 700 Men of the Forces of the Crown, has also declared for the King. Monsieur Smiegelski, who commands a Body of the King's Troops in the Palatinate of Posen, has lately gained some Advantages over the Swedish Forces in those Warfaw, June 24. The Heads of the Confederated Nobility met here the 19th Inffant, in order to proceed to the Choice of a new King, but, by reason of the very small appearance of Senators, and other Members of their Assembly, adjourned till the 25th; and it is generally believed the Election will then be put off for some longer time. The Cardinal Primate has received an Express with Letters from the Pope, exhorting him not to proceed any further in that Matter, but rather to endeavour any Agreementation of the but rather to endeavour an Accommodation of the Differences between the King and the Confederates, and the restoring of the Peace of his Country; and the same Express was immediately sent back with the Cardinal's Answer. We hear the King of Poland has removed his Camp from under the Cannon of Sendomir; and it is believed he designs to advance further towards Silefia, in order to facilitate his joining the Reinforcements he expects from Sexony.

Dantzick, June 28. Our Magistrates have given Directions for the making of some Alterations in the Fortifications of this Place, and adding some new Works thereto. The King of Sweden is marching with all his Forces out of Prufis, and passed the Weissel the 26th Instant at Graudentz, in his way to Warsaw.

Bristol, July 4. The Nevis Merchant, Charles Rynion Master, came in here the 2d Instant from the West-Indies, but last from Milsord. This day came in the Spy Gally of London, John Kimber Master, homeward-bound from Luciro in Portugal: She was chasted in her Passage by 3 French Privateers, but had the good fortune to fall in with a Ship of 60 Guns from Genoa, bound to Amsterdam, who protected her.

Tarmouth, July 7. Her Majesty's Ships the Chester and Nightingale came into our Road the 4th Instant from the Southward, with divers light Colliers under their Convoy, bound for Neweastle; since which several more are come in, so that here are now above 300 of more are come in, so that here are now above 300 of them waiting for a fair Wind. Her Majesty's Ship the Bristol, and a Dutch Man of War, which lately came in from Rotterdam with a Fleet of Merchant-men, do still continue here.

St. James's, July 4. This day the Count de Briançon, Envoy. Extraordinary from his Royal Highness the Duke of Savoy, had a private Audience of Her Ma-jesty, and afterwards of his Royal Highness, being introduced to both thefe Audiences by Charles Cottrell Efq; Assistant-Master of the Ceremonies.

The Count de Maffei, Envoy Extraordinary from his Royal Highness the Duke of Savoy, had a private Audience of Leave of Her Majesty, and afterwards of his Royal Highness, being likewife introduced to both these Audiences by Charles Consell Esq; Assistant-Maste:
