

immediately prior to the taking effect of the Order of 1938 and the parish of Kinwarton with Great Alne and the parish of Haselor so assigned shall continue in all respects distinct.

"(2) Parish Church. The church of Saint Mary and All Saints, Haselor, shall be the parish church of the parish of Haselor.

"(3) Taking effect of union. Upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council affirming this Scheme is published in the London Gazette the union shall forthwith take effect.

"(4) Parsonage house. The parsonage house at present belonging to the benefice of Kinwarton with Great Alne shall be the house of residence of the incumbent of the united benefice.

"(5) Patronage. After the union has taken effect in every series of three successive turns of presentation or nomination to be made to the united benefice the patrons of the benefice of Kinwarton with Great Alne shall have the first and third turns and the alternate patron of the benefice of Haselor with Billesley who was formerly sole patron of the benefice of Haselor (or his successor in title) shall have the second turn.

"2. Union of the benefices of Saint Andrew, Wilmcote, and Billesley.

"(1) Union of benefices. The benefice of Saint Andrew, Wilmcote, and the remaining part, namely Billesley, of the benefice of Haselor with Billesley shall be permanently united together and form one benefice with cure of souls under the style of 'The United Benefice of Wilmcote with Billesley' and the parishes or places forming or comprised in the said benefice and part of a benefice shall be united into one parish for ecclesiastical purposes and the parish church of the parish of Saint Andrew, Wilmcote, shall be the parish church thereof.

"(2) Taking effect of union. Upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council affirming this Scheme is published in the London Gazette the union shall forthwith take effect and the Reverend Aubrey Gilbert Roy Churchill, if he is then incumbent of the said benefice of Saint Andrew, Wilmcote, shall, with his consent (testified by his signature hereto) be the first incumbent of the united benefice.

"(3) Parsonage House. The parsonage house at present belonging to the benefice of Saint Andrew, Wilmcote, shall be the house of residence of the incumbent of the united benefice.

"(4) Patronage. After the union has taken effect in every series of four successive turns of presentation or nomination to be made to the united benefice the patron of the said benefice of Saint Andrew, Wilmcote, shall have the first, second and third turns and the alternate patron of the benefice of Haselor with Billesley who was formerly sole patron of the benefice or Billesley (or his successor in title) shall have the fourth.

"3. Endowments.

Upon the taking effect of the unions hereinbefore recommended and proposed a portion of the endowments of the benefice of Haselor with Billesley namely:—

"(a) a money payment in lieu of tithe charged on lands in the parish of Haselor by virtue of an Award dated the 17th day of June, 1767, made pursuant to an Act of the sixth year of the reign of King George the Third, chapter 2, and amounting to £6 13s. 4d. per annum,

"(b) a capital sum, being part of a larger capital sum at present held by us on behalf of the benefice of Haselor with Billesley, sufficient to produce £182 per annum, shall be annexed to that part of that benefice which under the provisions of this Scheme is to be united with the benefice of Kinwarton with Great Alne and all other the endowments and property of the said benefice of Haselor with Billesley shall be annexed to the remaining part of that benefice which is to be united with the benefice of Saint Andrew, Wilmcote."

And whereas the provisions of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1952, the Union of Benefices Rules, 1926 and 1930, and the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, relating to the preparation and submission of this Scheme have been duly complied with:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that it shall be and become effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette.

W. G. Agnew.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 10th day of February, 1955.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 2nd day of February, 1955, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Church Commissioners, in pursuance of the Church Patronage Act, 1870, and of the Acts therein mentioned, have prepared the following Scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Saint Michael and All Angels, Yeovil, in the County of Somerset and in the diocese of Bath and Wells.

"SCHEME.

"Whereas we are satisfied that Alice May Cole of 'Old Pines', 4 Queens Park West Drive in the County Borough of Bournemouth, Widow, and Wilfrid Leighton of The Manor House, Burnett in the County of Somerset, Chartered Accountant, as surviving personal representatives of the late Marwood Anselm Rauceby Thorold Cole, deceased, are the patrons or persons entitled to present or nominate to the said benefice:

"And whereas the said Alice May Cole and Wilfrid Leighton desire to transfer the advowson of the said benefice to the Bishop of Bath and Wells for the time being and are consenting to this Scheme (in testimony whereof they have executed the same):

"And whereas we are satisfied that the transfer will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend William, Bishop of Bath and Wells (in testimony whereof he has executed this Scheme), we, the said Church Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice shall be transferred to the said William, Bishop of Bath and Wells and his successors in the same Bishopric and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the Bishop of Bath and Wells for the time being."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Bath and Wells.
