de London Gazette.

Publified by Authority.

From Montay September 11. to Thursday September 14. 1704:

Indian, Septemier 13. The following Address has been presented to Her Majesty.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Bishop of Peterborough, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church, and the Archdeacon and Clergo the Diocese.

gy of the Diocele.

By a Tour Majefy's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, beg Leave W to acknowledge in a more particular Mamier Your Majefy's to acknowledge in a more particular Mamier Your Majefy's person the foot the poor Clergesthick Kingdom, in appropriating your whole Revenue of First fruits at Tenhs to their Maintenance, and in opening their Hands to receive, at the Hearts of whers to give further Benefictions.

The Majefy's plaus Zeal and hearty Concern for the Interest of the Course of England, are clearly visible in this your Princely Beneficence where Gerzy, many of which will now enjoy, a more comfortable Subfleuthan was provided at the Reformation, and all fave the Satisfician of beholding that Defelt thus kappily supplied.

The Royal Predecessors have been Defenders of the Faith; Your Maist the Maintainer of it. They paid unto God the Things that were was you give the Things that we devote our selves entirely to Your Maist; You give the Things that we devote our selves entirely to Your Maist Service, teach the People under our Care to do the Jame, and to im with us in Projers and Endeavours, that Peace may be in your and Development of the Ronders.

my service, reacount reopie under our Care to do the Jame, and im with us in Prayers and Endeavours, that Peace may be in your fine and Borders, and Plenteoniness within your Palaces. May that God, who only could inspire so much Goodness, Crown you with a long and happy Reign over us, and after that, with an exceeding sules Glory:

The following Address was presented to Her Majesty by the most limited the Lord High Treasurer.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Bishop, Dean and Prebendaries, of the Cathedral Church of Norwich.

AT it please Your Majesy to give your most Dutisul and Lovai M Subjects, the Bishop, Dean and Prebendanies, of Your Majesy's Cabedral Church of Norwich. Leave to take this Occasion to ouls Gustor the Piety, Justice and Mercy, exercised by Your Majesty through the Cause of your Lise; which have, since your Accession to the Torone, for all the law your Subjects, who have been taught and encouraged unity the Law you have made, in Favour of Religion and Virtue, by we can thing the Ramole.

weey the Laws you have mane, in Favour of Religion and Virtue, by you can finning Example.

In Revard of your Piety, God seems to have takenyou under a note united a Care of his Providence, making you happy in Peace at home, and in the Leyalty and Affection of your People, and prosperus in your drus abroad, which have so greatly contributed, both by Sea and Land, under within just Bounds the Exorbitant Power of Brance. We, with Hearts full of Thankshines and Devotion to God, and of Day and Respect to Tour Sacred Majelfy, do prisine humbly to Computate Tour Majelfy, upon the Glorious and Complete Vistory obtained by Tour Majelfy, upon the Glorious and complete Vistory obtained by Tour Majelfy's Armies, and allies, under the wife, valiant, and study Condact of the Dake of Mariborough.

A Victory, that seems to have given a greater Blow to the French Majelfy's that seems to have given a greater Blow to the French Majelfy to the Preservation, not only of the Established Religion, Laws and Liberties of Your Majelfy's Reasons, but of the Pracessant Religion two where abroad, and the Rights and Liberties of Europe.

Also, it please God to continue his Blessings upon your Majessy. That you may live long, and have the Happiness to accomplish all the great Despury on have undertaken, for his Koncur, and the Good of your Robe.

The following Addess, in which you have already made so Glorious a Pro-

The following Addresses have likewise been presented to Her

To the QUEEN's mast Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Bissiop, and Dean and Chapter of Dur-hin, and others of the Ciergy; together with the Mayor and Address, and other Gentlemen within the City and County.

Aldemen, and other Gentlemen within the City and County.
My itplease Your Majesty,

The Glorious Victories obtained by the Forces of Your Majesty and the allies this Summer, under the Command and Conduct of the Date of Marlborough, call aloud for Thanksgivings to Almighty God, and for our heavy Congratulations to Your Majesty.
Gennary being now cleaved both of its Foreign and Intestine Enetion the Influences of it throughout Europe will undoubtealy (with the Resing) conduce to an Universal Settlement; and more especially in see his your own Imperial Crown, but also that of Austria

Mentily your own Throne is thus Established, the Church of Engthere never want Your Majesty's wonted Zeal for its Support and Pretionier.

The Town Majesty County of This.

The Tour Majefly may daily be bleft with Victory and Success; That own Terms, for an konourable and a tasting Peace, is the unseigned Prayer of Your Majesty's most Loyal and most Duriful Subjects.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.
The humble Address of the Bishop, and Dean and Chapter, and the rest of the Clergy of the Dioccie of Wercester.

The humble Address of the Bishop, and Dean and Chapter, and the rest of the Clergy of the Dioccle of Worsester.

May it please Your Majesty.

The many Evident Proofs which Your Majesty has given of your Zeas for our Holy Religion, and of your Affectionate Care of the Courth Established by Law in this Kingaom, and in particular that late Emineut instance of both, apprecedented by any of your Revenue, for the Augmenting of small Livings, and supporting of many of our poor Brethren; have, if we may suage of the rift by our selves, for the Augmenting of small Livings, and supporting of many of our poor Brethren; have, if we may suage of the rift by our selves, for deeply affected the whole Body of the Clergy, that, as take of our Princes ever better deserved of them, so none over more extinctly Reight in their Hearts, than Turn Migisty doth; who may therefore we assard. That as Dusy swift binas us to teach our People what they owe to so such fifty, next under God, so Affection and Intersticking join, a with it, will more for they engage us no show them the cheerful Proclice of it, in all possibly engage us no show them the cheerful Proclice of it, in all possible instances of a willing and faithful Obedience. We cannot upon this Occasion out our most humble and grateful Acknowledgements of the Divine Goodnels, in not only blessing the Nation with a Queen so the Poisson of the Divine Goodnels, in not only blessing to Restore the Lallance of Europe, which was so happily begun by our late King of Blessed Memory, is to be brought to Persection by tour Majesty's Hands.

Mey he continue your Precious Life for the accomplishing of this stogether with your other Pious Design, so the Reforming of this stogether with your other Pious Design, so the Reforming of this stogether with your ether Pious Design, so the Reforming of this stogether with your ether Pious Design, so the Reforming of this stogether with your ether Pious Design, so the Reforming of this stogether with your ether Pious Design, so the Reforming of the Same

Tour Majesty's Hands.

My He continue your Precious Life for the accomplishing of this; together with your other Pious Designs, for the Reforming of this present Age, and the settling of the Protestant Succession in these Kingdoms for the suture: May you long enjoy the Comfort of them all here, before you receive the Blessed Reward of them in Heaven. So pray, Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects.

The following Address was presented to Her Majesty the 11th Instant by William Fytche and John Compus Esqs; Members of Parliament for the Bosough of Malden, introduced by Mr. Secretary

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the High Steward, Baylists, Aldermen, Capital Burgesies, and Commonalty, of Your Majesty's ancient Berough of Malaen, in the Geunty of Fiex.

Berough of Malaen, in the Country of Effex.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE Tear Mijesty's miss Dutiful and Leyal Subjects, having siefs for render'd our nearty Prasses to reinigry Goa, bog Leave now so for our joyful Congratulations to Your May say for that most signel and writes Victory, unser the happy Conduct of his Grace, the Duke of Mailborough, which, pursuant to your Royal Frodamation, we this asy commencate: An Action so servicingly great, (where at once

Bavaria is subduced, is ancommobied, your Alter affished, and the Em pire preserved) fills the greatist part of Europe with Joy, and the whole with Advarration: An Action so Pelitick in the Design, and so

Prosperus in the Event, will make Posterity at a Loss, whether mist to admire the Wiston of the Undertaking, or the wonderful Conduct and Bravery in the Execution.

Prosperous in the Event, will make Posenty at a Loss, whether miss to admire the Wistom of the Undertaking, or the wonderful Conduct and Bravery in the Execution.

We view with Persure the numerous Felicities of Your Majssy's Austicious Reign; wherein your Princely Care for the Good, and even Concerns on all your suppliers, your Generus Concern for the Welfare of Christendom, your Examplary Piety, your Eminent Zeal for the Preservation of the Church of England, for the Maintenance of its Clergy, for the Suppression of Vice and Prophanously, strive to outshine each other. And we joyfully behold these your Reyal Virtues, throthe Divine Goodness, eminerably reparded with such a Train of Success, as is scarce to be equalled in the Reign of any of your Predessors. Madam, permit us, your cour Faithful Subjects, to renew to Thin Majesty upon this Occasion the Assurances four simm and unchangeable Leyalty; who heartify miss, and shall never cease to pray, That the same Divine Goodness may constantly guard and protest your Sacred Person, multiply and encrease his slessings on your Government, and Continue it long and prosperous, to the inexpressible Satisfaction and Happiness of us, and allyour Subjects, and the General Good and Eenest of Europe.

Given under our Common Seal on Tharsday the 7th of September. In the Third Year of Your Majesty's Reign.

The following Address has also been presented to Her Majesty.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Addicis of the Mayor, Baylists, Burgestes, and other Inhabitants; of the Corporation of Cliffor-Dartmouth-Haranes, in the County of Devon.

May it please Your Majesty.

May it process Your Majesty.

May it process Your Majesty and Duciful and Loyal Subjects, do buintly

Generalizates to Your Majesty the late Glovicus Successes of your

i cc of Her Muley, erfons. have no beat acts of Sale, established Sald Commission yers of the faid Gal, his Inft ent September Continuance of a me Constituente of Tour Major , Sep. 6. 1704. ry graciously.

h Elq; Her Majely lajelty's Arms, and a victory obtained one a Splendid Enternia.

Foreign Ministers re-iperor's Healths were action, the Trimper n the evening there p the Dunwich falled p the Dunwich under feveral laden Colliers bound for Hult, testier Prize and Postsight Colliers are its ight Colliers are its hound for or them, bound be

Iolland.

bis loft in September Beyers projection of the first Sale, and for Notice, That miles be accordingly ingles with the second of the first second of Admiral Ditter of Admiral Ditter e or less of Boarding Diniel) lying it be Part of the Carrie the St. Lewis f Nan lying at Pliments Sold April 5, 1702 Vimento, part of the voisib, part of the al Soap, lying at Brill d april 26, 1704 %

id ship : Sold at the That Execution of ore a ready Profund r; and au orbinial o will permit. posed to Sale the Sin

Partfonouth. at Dubiin. Dublin. at Plineuth. ying at Pliments ng at Plinouth. ed house at Depison nants of God wil plained, and vinitality of four of Mc Miles of four of Mc Miles and Grace; while and and ill underline hed at the Allas on, the Lord Charle, bendary of Glorie, for The Benneters

King's Head by & Tokes may be hide Stepney. All Chip

Miam Baffett dreet sined, and proveile of the High Course of faid Course to see And all fuch Com against John Small meet on Tuellay wan in the Deva ition money: Of waci fued.

Perfors that evelus hands, are farmants, cocks-marker, Lordon

Succession which are now the Wonder of all Europe; and which have fill a she Hearts of those who desire the Peace and true interest of it, with unfleatable Joy and Sainfallion.

May Abnighty God, who hath raised up Your Missessy for such mighty Trings, still presper your generous Endeavours, for the Common Advantage of Unristendom: May he bies Your Majesty wish all the Happiness of this World; and after a long and a sourishing Reign, Crown you with Econul Cirry in that which is to come.

G

The following Address was presented to Her Majesty by the Honourable John Verney and John Wilkins Eless Knights of the chure for the County of Leicester.

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Addros of the Lord Lieutenant, Deputy-Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, Grand Jury, Archdeacon, and Clergy of the County of Leicesier; together with the Mayor, Bayliss, and Burgesses of the Borough of Leicesier.

W. E Your Majesty's most Dutisal and Loyal Subjects, being met together in your Facient Berough of Lecceiver, to offer up in the Publick Assembly our Solemn Praises and Thanksgivings to Aimigely God for the nost Gioricus Success of Your Majesty's Forces by Sex and Land, under the Command of his Grade the Dark of Malborough and Sie George Royke are very desired as impressing this Objectuality by God for the most Gioriaus Success of Your Angests's review by Sea and Land, under the Command of his Gride the Duke of Mathorough and Sir George Rocke; are very destroy of impreving this Opportunity by humbly presenting. Then Majesty with ver unjeigned united Thanks for Your Majesty imparable. It Is seen, so remarkably shown in the Protestion and Defence of our Church and Nation; which we cannot but be deeply significantly in the great Visuality feeling the happy Instances of it: Particularly in the great Visuality over the Common Enemy of Europe; which, next to the Providence of Gos, we must acknowledge as entirely owing to Fur Majesty's great Privience and Wissom, in the Choice of his fact that the Commanders of your Armies and Searce, which hath Jiven than some Choice of the Total Soldiers. Soldiers and Searces, which hath Jiven than some finite a Spirit, as no force or Dangers can withfiand. And we surfer the mails begine to have officers, Soldiers and Searces, with its name further humbly begine to hath stiffy to betwee That we will in any surveyal Stations, to the unasts of our Fower, defend Your Majesty's Sacred Person and Government against all Attempts what so ever Majesty's Sacred Person and Government by Mercies to us, in the Defence of our Courch as by Law Established, by granting Your Majesty along and happy Reign over as

The following Address was presented to Her Majesty by John Gape Esq. one or the Representatives in Parliament of the Borough of St. Albans.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Recorder, and Burgesses, of Your Majesty's Ancient Borough of St. Albans.
May it please Your most Sacred Majesty,

May it picate Your most Secred Majerry,

If then Embassies of Congratulations are hastening from all the Potents and Friends of the Grand Alliance, with Offerings of Praise and Thanks to Your Majesty for the late Surprizing Victory obtained over the United Force of the act and Bavaria, by the Bussies of the Lord of Battels on Your Majesty's Arms, in Cripiunction with two to fryour Alies, under the Command and Counties of his Grace the Duke Marsborough: We Your Majesty's mist Dutiful and Loyal Subjects of this Borough, (who have had the Hower and Happiness a long time to be under the Direction of that Ill-stripes General as our High Seward) think our Column more mearly concerned with the deepelt scale of Zeal think our felves more nearly concerned with the deepest sense of Zeal and Duty, to return our mist hearty Tranks to Almignty God for such a Queen, to Your Mighty for such a General, and to Providence for

And indeed, Madan, fo great Wifton has shired through all your Councels, so much Virtue in all your Actions, and so unprecedented a

Councils, so much Virtue in eu your victions, and so imprecedenced a Charity to the Church in your Liberal Aigmentation of its Minntemance, that we could not doubt of some a stinguishing and unparadied Mercy for such mexampled Goodnes, and Piety.

Therefore we craveleave to turn the Transports of our sey into Ferwency of Prayers; that the sume Provinciance which historic hatboundarfully, his sed your Enterprizes with Triumphan: Success, may enable you to similable the great Purposes of your Royal Soul with equal

And that as you have put a Barrier to the Exorbitant Ambition of France, so you may restore the Liberties of Europe, and establish an Universal Peace and Anity in Christendom, that the present Age may long rejoyce under the happy Instruct of your Government, an all suture Generations call you blessed.

All which Addresses Her Majesty received very gracionsly.

Sherries, September 7. This day being appointed by Her Maje-fly's Proclamation to be observed as a day of Publick Thankighing for the great and glorious Victory wherewith it has pleased Almighty God to bless iler Majesty's Arms over the French and Bavarian Forces; Our Governor, attended by the Garison and Navy-Officers, went to the Chapel, and after Davine Service was ended. Omecrs, went to me Unipel, and after Divine Service was ended, to the Bitteries, where the Governor had provided Wine to drink Her Majesty's, his Royal Highness's, the Duke of Mariborough's and other Healths, winch was done with a Discharge of the Cannon; and he alterwards entertained the Company at Dimer, and gave two Barrels of Beer to the Guaners and Soldiers. In the evening, there was a Bonsire, with Illuminations, Musick, Dancing, and other Divertions.

East-Restord, September 7. This being appointed the Day of Publick Thankfgiving for the Glorious Vict. ry obtained by the Forces of Her Majesty and Her Allies, by the Great Conduct of his Grace the Duke of Marloweagh; the chief of our neighbouring Gentlemen came hither, and accompanied the Bayliss and Aldermen in their Formalities to Church; and after Sermon they returmen in their formalities to Church; and after Sermen they returned to Mr. Bayliff's House, where they and all the Freemen and Burgesses, &c. were magnificently entertained at the Charge of his Grace the Duke of Newcassile, our High Steward, at a very splenoid Dinner: And in the Evening the Rayliss and the rest of ue To him which organ we have de ... . ... ...

the Company went to the Market-place, where there was a gree Bonfire, and Hogsheads of Ale and firong Beer given by the lost of Newcastile's Order to the People, who drank Her Majely Health, his Royal Highness's, the Duke of Mariborough's, and or High Steward's, with loud Huzza's and Volleys of Fire-American Corks Wight concluded with Bonfires in every Street, Magel and so the Night concluded with Bonfires in every Street, Muffet and for the reight concluded with Donnies in every offeet, Mulide Ringing of Bells, and all the Demonstrations of Joy imaginable.

Hull, September 8. Yesterday being the Day of Thanksgiving for the most Glorius Successes of the Arms of Her Majetty and the Concepts Dake of Marthal Inc. for the most Glorius Successes of the Arms of Her Majetty and He Allies, under the Conduct of his Grace the Duke of Marlbotong the Garison was drawn out, and made a Lane from the Town-fill to the High Church, through which the Mayor and the Linutenant Governor, the Recorder, Aldermen, Sherists, and other Public Officers, in-their Formalnies, proceeded, to return Thanks to Governor, the Conduct was over they returned to the Town of the Conduction of the Condu Officers, in-their Formaintes, proceeded, to return manks to God. After Divine Service was over, they returned to the Town-Hall and went from thence to the Market-place, where leveral Higheads of Ale were placed, by Order of his Grace the Duke of New fheads of Ale were placed, by Order of his Grace the Duke of Nez-castle, our Governor, to run through four Spouts for the People, Wine having been provided for the Mayor, the Lieutenant-Governor, and their Company, to drink, where Her Majesty's, his Royl Highness's, the Duke of Marlborough's, and our Governor's Healist were drank: While this was doing the Cannon from the Citads was fired, and answered by the Garison, with a running Fire from the Ramparts. Then the Lieutenant Governor, by the Duke of Newcastle's Order, treated the Mayor and Corporation, the Officer of the Garison, Custom-House, all that had ever been in Office, and the 12 Companies, consisting of many Hundreds of Freemaniali withch was done at the Duke of Newcastle's Charge. His Grace also ordered Money to the Gunners and Soldiers of the Garison to drink Her Majesty's Health. In the evening there were fire-Wonks, Illuminations, Ringing of Bells, Bontires, and all other imaginable Demonstrations of Joy.

Canterbury, September 8. The Thanksgiving Day appointed by Wind to preceed on their Voyage to Newcaitle.

Pars frauch, Sepiember 12. The 7th Instant being the day of publick Thanksgiving, the Mayor and Aldermen met at the Town Hall, to drink Her Majesty's Health; the Standard was holded as the Flatform; all Her Majesty's Ships at St. Hellens hung out the Flags, Streamers and Pendants, which made a most Glorious Project; the great Guns were discharged; and we had Bonsires, and all possible Demonstrations of the Publick Joy upon so Glorious and Happy Occasion. The toth Instant Sir Stassord Fairboine said from St. Hellens, with several Men of War; the rest of Her Majesty's Ships, and the Fleet of outward-bound Merchant Men, continuing at St. Hellens and Spithead.

There are Three Mails dae from Holland.

There are Three Mails due from Holland.

The Governor and Company of Merchants of London Trading into the In Governer and Company of Merchants of London Trading the last East. Indies do bereby give Notice, That their Transfer-Book will be last up from the 19th of this Instant September to the 4th of Other unit, in order to the making out the Warrants for the balf Transf Pagness or Alowance due the 29th Instant; according to the Direction of the General Court of the 27th of April, 1702, which Warrants will be ready to be delivered the Adventurers by the faid 4th of Other.

Nil ) Coa Hi Riemy malifted or ofus. A C

The Admira on every Man to Centure or put to appa Tus Barrel ; coule the End whe the adv d Port not lowing ori or Godet of ou