

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday September 28. to Monday October 2. 1704.

Windsor, September 25.

THE following Address from the Town of Seaford was presented to Her Majesty by William Lowndes Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, introduced by the most Honourable the Lord High Treasurer.

To the QUEEN'S most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Bayliff, Jurats, and Freemen, of the Port and ancient Borough of Seaford,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

It being visible, That from the time of Your Majesty's happy Accession to the Throne of Your Ancestors, the Royal Power hath been administered with the greatest Wisdom and Goodness, which (under the Divine Blessing) have produced a Series of Successes, not known in former times, to rejoice the Hearts of all Your good Subjects, and to secure the Liberties of Europe: Be pleased to suffer us (amongst many others) to make our humble Acknowledgement thereof at Your Royal Feet, and to congratulate the Unparalleled Victory lately obtained by Your Majesty's Captain-General, his Grace the Duke of Marlborough; and to give Your Majesty, That, on all Occasions, to the utmost of our Power, we will zealously endeavour to maintain the Character of being Your Majesty's Faithful and Dutiful Subjects.

The following Address was likewise presented to Her Majesty.

To the QUEEN'S most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Jurats, and Commonalty, and others the Inhabitants of the Town of Folkestone, in the County of Kent.

MAY it please Your Majesty to permit us, Your most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, in most humble manner, to congratulate Your most Excellent Majesty, not only upon the Glorious and Unparalleled Victory lately obtained by the Armies of Your Majesty and Your Allies, under the Command of (the greatest of Generals) his Grace the Duke of Marlborough; but also on the double Success of Your Majesty's Royal Navy, first against Gibraltar, and now against the Fleet of the Common Enemy.

The Bravery and Wisdom of Your Majesty's Chief Commanders both by Land and Sea, we are sensible, contributed to these great Victories: We must recognize, That they are chiefly owing to Your Majesty's exemplary Piety and boundless Charity, which engaged the King of Kings to fight Your Battles.

May He in His due time enlarge Your Majesty's Victories over all Your Enemies, and make Your Majesty's Life a lasting Blessing to these Kingdoms.

The following Address has also been presented to Her Majesty.

To the QUEEN'S most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Protestant Dissenting Ministers in and about the City of London.

May it please Your Majesty, Having offered our Solemn Praises to Almighty God, on the Day appointed by Your Majesty's Pious Proclamation; we crave Leave to congratulate Your Majesty upon the Glorious Victories obtained by the Armies under the Command of the Renowned Duke of Marlborough; whose extraordinary Courage, Conduct, and Fidelity, demonstrate Your Majesty's great Wisdom, and Care of Your Kingdoms Happiness, in the Choice of a Captain-General. We joyfully rejoice in the Divine Favour, that hath signally rewarded Your Majesty's firm Adherence to the Protestant Religion; Your Christian Moderation, and earnest Concern for the Union and Welfare of all Your People; by making You the Chief Instrument of Preserving the Reformed Religion, and Liberties of Europe; rescuing the distressed Empire from imminent Ruin, and Reducing the Exorbitant Power of France.

Permit us to assure Your Majesty, That our Principles oblige us to adhere to Your Royal Title, and that from a just Sense of our Duty and Interest, we will fervently pray for Your Majesty's long Life, attended with such Success to Your Arms and Councils, as shall issue in a safe and honourable Peace, the Relief of the Oppressed Protestants abroad, and the Security of the Protestant Succession at home; together with such Unity and Reformation of Manners among all Your Subjects, as become these eminent Favours of Providence.

The following Address from the Town of Rye was presented to Her Majesty by the Rt. Hon. Edward Southwell and Robert Fagg Esqs; their Representatives in Parliament.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Jurats, and Freemen, and others the chief Inhabitants of the Corporation and ancient Town of Rye, in the County of Sussex.

Dread Sovereign,

WHILE all Europe stands amazed at the mighty Progress of Your Majesty's Arms, and does confess to have received their Liberties a second time from an English Queen; we Your most Dutiful Subjects do presume with all Humility to approach Your Throne, and congratulate the late decisive Victory at Hochster, obtained by the Troops of Your Majesty and Your Allies, under the Auspicious Conduct of the Duke of Marlborough: A Victory that has not only retrieved, but greatly advanced the Honour of the English Nation, beyond what it was in the Reign of Your most Illustrious Predecessors.

At the same time that Your Armies were acting Wonders in the Heart of the German Empire, God Almighty has been pleased to give a Glorious Advantage to Your Royal Fleet on the Coast of Spain. The Bravery of Your Officers and Seamen, directed by the Prudence, and inspired by the Intrepidity, of Your Admiral Sir George Rooke, has sensibly convinced Your Enemies, that even Superior Numbers are not sufficient to dispute Your Majesty's Dominion at Sea.

May all Your Majesty's Councils continue to be blessed with Wisdom, and all Your Enterprizes with Success; May You long remain the Support of Your Allies, the Blessing of Your Subjects, and the Terror of Your Enemies; May Conquest ever attend upon Your Arms, and Peace and Liberty upon Your Conquest; And may all that live under the Benignity of Your Government, acknowledge their Happiness with the utmost Demonstrations of Union and Loyalty.

Such are the fervent Prayers of Your most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects.

Windsor, October 1. The following Address from the City of Dublin was presented to Her Majesty by his Grace the Duke of Ormond, Lord-Lieutenant of Ireland.

To the QUEEN'S most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons and Citizens of the City of Dublin, in Common Council assembled.

May it please Your Majesty, We Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave to Address Your Majesty in a most hearty Congratulation for the late Glorious Victory obtained by Your Majesty's Arms, and Your Allies, under the wise Conduct of that great Captain his Grace the Duke of Marlborough.

By this remarkable Success it appears to the World, That Providence has designed Your Majesty's Arms for the most Glorious Ends; to be the great Support of the Alliance, the Terror of France, and the Restorers of Peace to Europe.

We of this City, who have not long since groaned under the Insults of a French Usurpation, cannot but be transported with Joy, to find the Ambition of that Monarch so effectually cur'd by the invincible Power of Your Majesty's Arms.

May Heaven prosper Your great and just Design of reducing the exorbitant Power of France; May Victory still wait on Your Majesty's Arms; may You long live the great Arbitrator of the Western World, the Dread of Your Enemies, and the Glory and Happiness of Your Majesty's Loyal Subjects; And may Your Memory be long transmitted, with the distinguishing Character of The Restorer of the Liberties of Europe, to all Posterity.

The