peace and more Victories, and make You the happy Restorer of lasting Peace to all Europe.

The following Address was presented to Her Majesty by the Rt. Hon. William Lord Viscount Cheyne, one of the Representatives in Parliament of the County of Buckingham; being introduced the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Bridgewater, Lord Lieutenant and Custos Rotularum of that County.

To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of Your Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the County of Buckingham, and the Grand Jury assembled at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace held for the said County at the Borough of Aylesbury, the Fifth day of October, 1704.

WE Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, being very sensible of the infinite Blessings we enjoy under Your most auspicious Reign, humbly crave Leave to Congratulate the glorious Success of Your Majesty's Arms under the Command of his Grace the Duke of Marlborough, whose Duty to Your Majesty and Love to his Country, most manifestly appeared in his Heroick Actions against the French and Bavarian Army, for whom he, in Conjunction with Your Allies, in a very Critical juncture, lately obtained a complete Victory, to the Security of the German Empire from an impending Ruine, to the Immortal Glory of this Nation, and the Universal Interest of Europe.

We also Congratulate the Success of Your Arms at Sea, under the Command of Sir George Rooke, whose Skill and Conduct in Naval Affairs, and whose Bravery and Undaunted Courage, furnished by his valiant and intrepid Officers and Seamen, have, though under great Disadvantages, forced the French Fleet, much Superior to Your Majesty's, in the utmost Disorder to fly by the favour of the Night, towards its own Ports for Security, with no less Shame to its Admiral than Glory to Yours.

Which infinite Blessings (Madam) are Rewards of Heaven, for Your Piety and Virtue, and Zeal for the publick Welfare of Christendom.

May Your Majesty's Noble and Generous Design of giving Peace to Europe, be happily Effected; May the Interest of the Church of England be by Your Means established; May Your Majesty have a long and prosperous Reign over us; and may the malicious Devices and wicked Practices of Your restless and implacable Enemies be confounded and brought to nought: And as Your Majesty deserves, so may You be the Darling, not only of Your own Subjects, but of all Europe.

The Address which follows was presented to Her Majesty by the Hon. James Herbert and Simon Hawcourt Esqs; the Representatives in Parliament of the Borough of Aylesbury; being introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Bridgewater

To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Chief Officers and Inhabitants of the ancient Borough of Aylesbury, in the County of Buckingham.

WE Your Majesty's most faithful and obedient Subjects, in the humblest manner beg permission to Congratulate Your Majesty on the glorious Success of Your Arms at Land, under the Command of his Grace the Duke of Marlborough, who (having this Year shewed the Greatness of his Judgment in determining upon, and his indefatigableness in accomplishing such a difficult and unheard of March with so great an Army) has, by the Blessing of Heaven, obtained so entire a Victory over the French and Bavarian Forces, so very Beneficial to the Interest of all Europe; that as former Ages never did, so future never will (unless to emulate the Glory of so great a General) dare to tempt the like.

Give us Leave (Madam) also to Congratulate the Success of Your Arms at Sea, under the Command of Sir George Rooke, who in the late Action demonstrated not only his steady Fidelity to his Country, but his true Valour and superior Understanding to the French, against whom he fought under great Disadvantages: and which are so very much to the Honour of England, and the strict such a Terror into the Hearts of Your Enemies, that they will hereafter Excite at the Name of Your Majesty, and dread an Engagement with the Subjects of a Queen whose Zeal for the Religion of the Church of England, is Established in Law, has in many great and generous Instances eminently appeared, and whom GOD has so signally bless'd, that we humbly hope an honourable, firm and durable Peace may, by Your Majesty's Wisdom, be obtained, for the Preservation of the Empire and the Interest of all Europe.

May Your Majesty's Government be ever free from the Sedition and Faction of zealous Pretenders to Religion: May You have the Glory of being the Church of England on such a Basis that all its Indiscretions, Villant and Implacable Enemies, may have no more power to Subvert, than they have desire to Support it: And may Heaven give Your Majesty so particular a Mark of its Favour, that all Your Enterprizes may be Crowned with Success, and that You may have a long peaceable and prosperous Reign over us.

The following Address from the City of Winchester was presented by the Right Honourable the Lord William Powlett and George Rodney Bridges Esq; their Representatives in Parliament.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bayliffs and Commonalty of Your antient City of Winchester.

Most Dread Sovereign, WE Your Majesty's most Dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Bayliffs and Commonalty of Your Antient and Loyal City of Winchester do most humbly crave Leave to Congratulate Your Majesty upon the Glorious Victory obtained by Your Majesty's Arms, under the Conduct of the Duke of Marlborough, in Bavaria: And we most heartily pray That God Almighty will increase his Blessings upon Your Majesty and Your Government; That after many Glorious Victories over Your Enemies, Your Fleets and Armies may remain safe unhurt, to maintain a Terror to those that shall hereafter disturb the Balance of Europe being in Your Majesty's Kingdoms, or to the of disturbing the Tranquillity which next under God we hope to enjoy under Your Majesty's most Glorious and long Reign over us.

And we most humbly beg Your Majesty to believe, we had not been pious late in our Acknowledgment for these Blessings, but that we had Hopes Your Majesty and his Royal Highness would with Your Royal Presence have honoured this City, which Your Royal Uncle King Charles II. thought of making a Royal Seat; where we might have had the Happiness personally to present Your Majesty with our Congratulations and incessant Prayers for the Continuation of Your Majesty's Prosperity and happy Reign over us.

Sealed with our Common Seal, the Seventh Day of October, 1704.

The following Address was likewise presented to Her Majesty.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesites, of Your Majesty's ancient Corporation of the Borough of Brackley, in the County of Northampton.

WHEN all Christendom loudly proclaim the great Blessings they enjoy by Your Majesty's happy Recovery of their languishing Rights and Liberties, with Your Glorious Successes both at Land and Sea; permit us (Dread Sovereign) Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Obedient Subjects, all of us being Loyal Members of the Church of England, which is peculiarly blessed with so pious a Head and Defender, humbly to congratulate Your Majesty upon the unparalleled Victories obtained by Your Majesty's Forces, under the wise and valiant Conduct of his Grace John Duke of Marlborough and Sir George Rooke, which have evidenced so much to the Glory and Happiness of Your Majesty, and Your Kingdoms.

May Your Majesty long reign over the Hearts of a grateful People, and continue a Terror and Scourge to that Haughty and Ambitious Tyrrant and Usurper, the French King, and all Your Enemies; and a Triumphant Protector of the Oppressed; and shall be ever the hearty Prayers of Your Majesty's most Loyal Subjects.

Given under our Common Seal at our Town-Hall this Third Day of October, in the Third Year of Your Majesty's most happy Reign over us.

All which Addresses Her Majesty received very graciously.

Essex, Octob. 6. On the 25th of the last Month a Proclamation was issued here for publick Rejoicings during 3 Days, upon the Occasion of the late Successes of the Arms of Her Majesty of Great Britain and Her Allies at Land and Sea; which was observed with great Solemnity, and all possible Demonstrations of an universal Joy. On the First Instant the Tyger, an English Man of War, came in here from Gibraltar, which Place he left the 21st past, upon Notice that a French Squadron was seen from the Mon-teira, sailing towards the Streights; and upon his coming out, he made to Salt of French ships, standing over towards Ceuta. The next day the Tyger staid near the Streights Mouth, in Hope to have had a fairer Sight of the French Squadron; but none of them appeared. The Tyger in his way hitner took a Spanish Boat belonging to Cadix; the Master whereof reports, That the Marquis de Villadarias was gone; with all the Forces he could get together;
