And whereas the provisions of the New Parishes Measure, 1943, relating to the preparation and submission of this Scheme, have been duly complied with:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Measure.

And Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Oxford.

W. G. Agnew.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 28th day of October, 1955.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 23rd day of September, 1955, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Church Commissioners, acting in pursuance of the New Parishes Measure, 1943, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme for altering the boundaries of the parishes of Great Stanmore and Little Stanmore both in the diocese of London.

"SCHEME.

"Whereas we are satisfied that it is desirable that the boundaries of the said parishes should be altered in the manner hereinafter mentioned:

"And whereas the Right Honourable and Right Reverend William, Bishop of London consents to the proposed arrangements (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme):

"Now, therefore, we, the said Church Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that from and after the day of the date of publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme the boundaries of the said parishes of Great Stanmore and Little Stanmore shall be altered in the manner described in the Schedule and delineated on the map annexed to this Scheme.

"THE SCHEDULE.

"The territory to be annexed to the parish of Little Stanmore:

"All that part (coloured pink on the map annexed hereto) of the parish of Great Stanmore which lies to the north east of an imaginary line commencing on the boundary which divides the parish of Great Stanmore from the parish of Little Stanmore in the middle of Marsh Lane at a point opposite the middle of the southwestern end of Wildcroft Gardens and continuing thence southeastwards along the middle of Marsh Lane to its end and continuing thence in the same direction along the middle of Honeypot Lane (thereby crossing the roundabout at the junction of Marsh Lane and Honeypot Lane) to the boundary which divides the parish of Great Stanmore from the parishes of All Saints, Queensbury and Saint Anselm, Belmont."

And whereas the provisions of the New Parishes Measure, 1943, relating to the preparation and submission of this Scheme, have been duly complied with:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Measure.

And Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

W. G. Agnew.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 28th day of October, 1955.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 28th day of September, 1955, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Church Commissioners, acting in pursuance of the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, and the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1952, now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme which we have prepared with the consent of the Right Reverend Percy, Bishop of Norwich (in witness whereof he has signed the Scheme), for effecting the disunion of the united benefice of Bradfield with Swafield in the diocese of Norwich.

"SCHEME.

"Whereas by an Order of His late Majesty King George the Fifth in Council dated the 21st day of December, 1917, and published in the London Gazette on that day the benefice of Bradfield and the benefice of Swafield were united into one benefice with cure of souls:

"And whereas the Bishop of the said diocese of Norwich has forwarded to us provisional proposals pursuant to the said Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, recommending that the union of the said benefices should be dissolved and that the said benefice of Bradfield should be held in plurality with the benefice of Antingham with Thorpe Market, and that the said benefice of Swafield should be held in plurality with the benefice of Trunch, all of which benefices are in the said diocese of Norwich:

"And whereas effect can be given to the said proposals so far as they relate to the dissolution of the said union by Scheme prepared by us and confirmed by Order of Your Majesty in Council pursuant to the said Union of Benefices Measures, and in so far as they relate to the said pluralities by subsequent Orders made by the said Bishop pursuant to the said Pastoral Reorganisation Measure:

"Now, therefore, we do humbly recommend and propose to Your Majesty in Council as follows, that is to say:—

"1. Disunion of benefices.

"The union of the benefice of Bradfield and the benefice of Swafield in the said united benefice of Bradfield with Swafield shall be dissolved and the said benefices shall thereupon each become a separate benefice with cure of souls within the limits of its separate parish.

"2. Taking effect of disunion.

"The disunion of the said united benefice shall take effect upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council affirming this Scheme is published in the London Gazette.

"3. Parsonage house.

"The parsonage house of the said united benefice shall belong to and be the parsonage house of the separate benefice of Swafield.
