

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday November 23. to Sunday November 27. 1704.

S^t. James's, November 26. The following Address was presented to Her Majesty by Sir Richard Vyvyan Bar. and James Bullock Esq; Knights of the Shire for the County of Cornwall, attended by the Members of Parliament, and other Gentlemen of that County; introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Lord Granville, Lord Warden of the Strannaries.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

Permit, Madam; the Landlords, Bounders, Adventurers, and whole Body of the Towns of Cornwall, with Hearts full of all Dutiful Acknowledgements, to approach Your Majesty, who wane Words to express their Gratitude, their Joy, their Admiration, for the wonderful Success of Your Majesty's Arms, under the Conduct of his Grace the Duke of Marlborough, in Germany.

Never was Success greater in all its Circumstances; a Design more wisely formed, more secretly carried on; so effectually supported from home, so vigorously executed abroad; on which no less than the Liberty of Europe depended; A Cause worthy the best of Princes; a Victory worthy the greatest of Generals; which will transmit to all future Ages Your Majesty's Name truly Great; Great for Deliverance, not for Oppression.

But this is not enough, that Your Majesty Triumphs by Land, to complete Your Glory; Your Forces by Sea have likewise done Wonders: A Fleet so much superior in Strength; in so ill a Condition, by being so long out; in such want of Ammunition, by taking Gibraltar, without Gallies, which were of so great Service to the Enemy: All these Disadvantages considered, nothing certainly could equal the Conduct of Your Admiral, the Bravery of Your Officers, the Courage of Your Seamen, during the Engagement, but their Conduct, their Bravery, and their Courage after it, whereby they perfected a Victory, which otherwise, in humane Probability, must have ended in an Overthrow: An Action as great in itself, as happy in its Consequences.

May Your Majesty never want such Commanders by Sea and Land; such Administration in the Management of the publick Treasure, which so much contributes to the Success of Armies and of Fleets.

May Your Majesty never want (what sure You never can) the Hearts, the Hands, the Purse, of all Your People. Had not we (Madam) of this County inherited the Loyalty of our Antecitors, (which Your Majesty has been pleas'd so graciously to remember) such Obligations must have engaged our utmost Returns; and such all of us will ever pay to Your Sacred Person and Government, as with one Voice we daily pray, Long Live Queen ANNE: To whom many Nations owe their Preservation.

The following Address from the Borough of New-castle-under-Line was presented to Her Majesty by - - - - - Offley Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, introduced by his Grace the Duke of Somerset.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bayliffs and Burgesses of Your Majesty's ancient Borough of Newcastle under Line; do unanimously, and with the utmost Sincerity, congratulate Your Majesty upon the late Unparalleled and Glorious Victory, obtained over the choicest Troops of France and Brabant, by the Exalted Courage and Conduct of his Grace the Duke of Marlborough. We esteem this Blessing granted to us as a Reward of Your Majesty's Extraordinary Piety and Virtue.

We beg Your Majesty will not impute our so late Addressing to the want of a true Sense of the many Advantages which will accrue to Your Self and Subjects, from so complete a Victory; but an agreeable Opportunity of having it presented to Your Majesty.

It shall be our daily Prayers, that he who has blessed Your Arms with this mighty Success, will further assist them, to the reducing of France to such a Condition, that it may be no longer able to oppress its Neighbours; and that all her Emissaries here may for ever despair of disturbing Your Majesty, and Your Successors. May Your Majesty see this Speedily accomplished, and live to enjoy a long, healthful and peaceable Reign over us; which is the unexpress'd Desire of us, Your Majesty's most Dutiful Subjects.

Given under the Common Seal of the said Borough; Dated the 17th day of November, in the third Year of Your Majesty's Reign.

The following Address from the Borough of Totness was presented to Her Majesty by Major-General Seymour and Thomas Coulson Esq; their Representatives in Parliament, introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Lord Pawlett, Lord Lieutenant of the County of Devon.

The humble Address of the Mayor Masters and Councilors, and of other the Burgesses and Inhabitants of the Borough of Totness, in the County of Devon.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, being sensible, That nothing less than the total Subversion of the Rights and Liberties of Europe, and the Extermination of our Holy Religion, could have satisfied the Ambition of the French King; could not but with Horrour see him aggrandiz'd in Power by his Usurpation of the Spanish Monarchy, and by the Adherence of such other Powers as he had withdrawn from their Duty and Allegiance. Neither can we cease to adore him, by whom Kings reign, when we consider that he hath given Your Majesty Counsel and Strength for the Benefit, such as the pretended Invincible hath not been able to withstand. Permit us therefore, Dread Sovereign, to congratulate those Great and Glorious Achievements of Your Majesty's Armies and Fleets, by the Valour and under the Conduct of his Grace John Duke of Marlborough and of Sir George Rooke: And may the like Success attend all Your Majesty's Care and Endeavours, for the publick Good, till Peace be Established to Posterity; and all Your Majesty's Subjects become truly sensible of the Happiness they enjoy under the benign Influence of Your Majesty's most Auspicious Reign.

The following Address from the Town of Okehampton was presented to Her Majesty by Sir Simon Leach Knight of the Bath, and Thomas Northmore Esq; their Representatives in Parliament; introduced by the Rt. Hon. John Lord Granville.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Burgesses, Town-Clerk, and Inhabitants, of Your Majesty's ancient Corporation of Okehampton, in the County of Devon.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, with all Humility, crave Leave to congratulate Your Majesty's most Glorious Victory in Germany, against the Combined Enemies to Your Majesty. Your Allies, the Protestant Religion, and Liberties of Europe, under the wise and valiant Conduct of his Grace the Duke of Marlborough, Your Majesty's Captain General; as also upon the Success of Your Majesty's Fleet.

We look upon this Blessing, which God hath vouchsafed You, to be an Earnest of the Reward of Your Piety towards Him; Your Princely Mixture to the poorer sort of Clergy of the Church of England, and Your tender Concern for the Rights, Liberties and universal Welfare of Your People. The Nations Your Majesty rules over are not the only Object of Your Care, but Your extensive Goodness extends its self to recover the languishing State and Condition of Europe.

May Your great Endeavours in such Glorious Enterprises be ever attended with Victory and Success, as they will be always with the Veneration of all good Men: And that it may please the Divine Providence to grant Your Majesty, for the Safety, Peace and Welfare of Your Kingdoms and Dominions, a long and prosperous Reign over us; shall ever be the Prayers of Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Obedient Subjects.

The following Address from the City of Chichester was presented to Her Majesty by John Miller and William Elton Esqs, their Representatives in Parliament, introduced by his Grace the Duke of Somerset.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Lord High Steward, and of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens, of the City of Chichester, in Common Council assembled, the 17th day of November, in the Third Year of Your Majesty's Reign.

MADAM,

Acept us, we humbly beg, amongst the rest of Your Loyal Subjects, to approach Your Royal Throne, with our sincere Congratulations for those great Blessings, which not only this Nation but the whole Confederacy, has received from those mighty Victories, which Your Majesty's first designed, and are now obtained, by the Conduct of that valiant and wise Commander, John Duke of Marlborough, who fought those memorable Battels by Land; as also for the Success of Your Majesty's

...y's Navy, under the Conduct of Sir George Rooke, in taking that important Fortress of Gibraltar, and defeating Your Enemies in the late Battle at Sea; upon which not only the Fate of the House of Austria, but the Peace and Tranquillity of all Europe, depend, and such as will make Your Reign Famous, and Your Arms glorious. That Your Majesty's Councils may continue to be directed by Wisdom from above, Your Rivers and Armies crowned with Victory and Success, and Your People made happy in Your long and prosperous Reign; are the hearty Prayers of Your Majesty's most Loyal and Dutiful Subjects.

All which Addresses Her Majesty received very Graciously.

Rome, Nov. 8. N. S. The Pope is very much pressed, as well by the Cardinals, as by the Foreign Ministers, to fill up the 17 Places in that College which are now vacant; and it is said he has been prevailed upon to think of making a Promotion of Cardinals, and that it may be expected on the 23d Instant, being the Feast of St. Clement, whose Name he bears. The King of Poland has sent him a Manifesto, justifying his Majesty's Conduct, particularly in relation to his causing the Bishop of Posen to be seized, for being a great Promoter of the Troubles in that Kingdom, which is very well approved of here; and the Pope has writ in very pressing Terms, as well to the Cardinal Primate as to several other of the Princes, Senators of Poland, requiring them to return to their Allegiance to their lawful King Augustus. The Elector Palatine has offered his Mediation for accommodating Matters between the Emperor and this Court, which is accepted on both sides; and there have already been several Conferences held for that purpose.

Venice, Nov. 15. N. S. Signior Zen is upon his Departure from hence to Milan, being appointed to succeed Signior Francesco, as Resident there from this Republick. A Gentleman passed lately through this City towards Piedmont, being dispatched from Vienna to the Court of Savoy, with Assurances of their being speedily assisted with a good number of Troops; and the Count de Leiningen, who commands the German Soldiers, and is now posted near Goggione, is making the necessary Preparations, to the end that he may be in a readiness to march as soon as the Reinforcements he expects from Germany are arrived: We hear he has lately received a considerable Sum of Money from Vienna, towards the Charges of that Expedition. The Grand Prior, fearing lest the Germans should attempt to possess themselves again of Ombria, has very much added to the Fortifications of that Place, and has laid the Country round about it under Water, by cutting the Banks of the Po; He has also given Directions for blocking up more closely the German Garrison at Mirandola, which has held out several months, though without any Prospect of being relieved. The Alexander, a Merchant Ship, arrived here this week, being laden with Fish from Ireland. Several Persons lately came from Piemont report, that the French meet with great difficulties in the Siege of Venue, the Rains having begun to fall in those Parts, which do greatly annoy them.

Dublin, November 20. The Duke of Ormond, Lord Lieutenant of this Kingdom, embarked at H. Ly-head the 15th Instant, and set sail about 12 that night, and landed here the next day about noon. His Grace was received at Ring's-End by an extraordinary number of the Nobility and Gentry in their Coaches, and was met at Lazy-Hill by our Lord Mayor, Recorder and Aldermen; the Streets were lined from the lower end of Lazy-Hill to the Castle by two Regiments of the Army, and as many of the City Militia; the great Guns were fired, and there was Ringing of Bells, and all other Demonstrations of the Publick Joy for his Grace's late Arrival. The Transport Ships, having on board the Forces for Portugal, sailed from Corke the 16th, under Convoys of several of Her Majesty's Ships, with a very fair Wind, which has continued so ever since.

Falmouth, Nov. 20. Yesterday sailed hence the Prince Paquer-Boat for Lisbon, and the Tercera of and from London, laden with Corn and Fish for that Place. This day passed by this Port Her Majesty's Ship the Shoreham, and under her Convoy 3 Vessels bound for Liverpool. A Coaster came in here the same day from the Isle of Wight.

Plymouth, Nov. 21. Yesterday sailed hence Her Majesty's Ship the Shoreham, with two Merchant Men bound for Liverpool. This day came from the Downes Her Majesty's Ship the Portland, and under her Convoy the Africa, bound for Virginia, and the Coliant Rachel for Antegoa; the Prosperity and the Friends Adventure, bound hither; and 6 Sail more, which are now off this Port, 5 of them bound for Lisbon and the West-Indies, and the other for Falmouth.

Dartmouth, Nov. 21. Yesterday came into this Road 3 Vessels of and for Topham, from London, laden with Coals: They came out of the Downes Saturday last, under Convoy of Her Majesty's Ship the Portland, with 4 other Ships bound for Topham; and several outward-bound Merchant Men, with which the Portland is sailed to Plymouth.

Turmouth, Nov. 24. This day came into our Roads Her Majesty's Ships the Worcester and Winchester, with a Fleet of Merchant Ships under their Convoy from the Baltick, bound for London, consisting of about 70 Sail.

The Dutch Mails of Tuesday and Friday last are not yet come in.

It being resolv'd, That One hundred Seamen, such as have been disabled in the Service of the Navy, shall be forthwith received and provided for in the Hospital at Greenwich; His Royal Highness, Lord High Admiral of England, &c. has Commanded this Notice to be given thereof, that so all such Persons, whose Conditions Entitle them to the Benefit of the afore-said Hospital, and have not already attended at the Admiralty Office, may attend there on Thursday the 30th of this Month, to make out their Pretensions.

By the Principal Commissioners for Prizes. ON Wednesday the 5th d. y of December next, will be exposed to publick Sale by the Canale, at Salters-Hall in St. Swithin's-Lane, London, the Goods mentioned in the Gazette on the 23d of this Instant November; as also Sugars, White and Brown, Cocoa, Prunns; all by Tug at Butto'ph-Wharfs; and about Eighty five Pounds weight of Pices of Eight. Allotments will be timely printed and dispersed.

Whereas Dr. WILLIAM READ, Sworn Servant in Ordinary to Her Majesty in the Quality of Oculist and Operator for the Eyes, has by several Advertisements given a publick Demonstration, as appears by his daily Generosity, not only in Couching of Cataracts, as he hath, out of his usual Generosity in freely helping the Poor gratis, cured above a Thousand since New-Year's Day last, that were recommended by their Ministers and Churchwardens of their respective Parishes; but hath also lately cured many Hundreds of the most difficult Distempers relating to the Eyes, as appears by two Ladies of considerable Quality, that were cured in the Month of October, 1704. of the Amaurosis, or Obstructions through the Optick Nerves, by the Occasion of inveterate Head-aches. You may have an Account of these Ladies, and many more, at his House in Dabham-yard in the Strand, London. Where you may also see several large Wens that he hath taken off, with many dangerous Cancers, cured large Deformities of Hair-Lips and Wry-Necks, without the Loss of any Blood, after the Application of his Famous Stiptick Waters; which all People may be furnished with at his House, and no where else, every day in the week, where he is constantly to be advised withal.

Just Published, Two Tracts: Tract I. Entituled, De non amandis Ecclesiis, &c. By Sir Henry Spelman Kt. Tract II. The Poor Vicar's Plea for Tythes, &c. By Tho. Ryves; Doctor of the Civil Law, With a Prefatory Account of the Authors, and their Works. Printed for Awnsham and John Churchill at the Black Swan in Paten-Noster-Row.

The Church Catechism Explained, for the Use of the Diocese of St. Asaph. By the Rt. Rev. Father in God, William Lord Bishop of St. Asaph. Printed for Walter Kitulby at the Bishop's-Head in St. Paul's Church-yard.

A Sermon Preached before the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor and Aldermen, and the Citizens of London, in the Cathedral Church of St. Paul's, on Sunday November 5. 1704. By Samuel Bradlow, Rector of St. Mary le Bow, and Chaplain in Ordinary to Her Majesty, Printed for Richard Burrough at the Sun and Moon in Cornhill, near the Royal Exchange.

The Elements of Euclid Explain'd: In a new, but most easie Method: Together With the Use of every Proposition through all Parts of the Mathematicks. Written in French, by that Excellent Mathematician, F. Claud. Francis Milliet de Chales, of the Society of Jesus. Now made English, and a Multitude of Errors corrected, which had escaped in the Original. The 4th Edition. Sold by W. Freeman at the Bible over-against the Middle-Temple Gate in Fleet-street, J. Knapton at the Crown in St. Paul's Church-yard; and W. Keble at the Turk's-Head in Fleet-street. Price 4s.

The Annual Feast for the Gentlemen educated at Merchant-Taylor School, will be held on Tuesday the 12th of December, 1704. at Stationers-Hall. Tickets will be delivered at Garraways Coffee-house in Exchange-Alley, Will's Coffee-house in Cornhill, Mr. Waldorf's, Bookeller, in St. Paul's Church-yard, Mr. Johnson's, Hofer, in Fleet-street, and at Mr. Bernardston's, at the Horn-Tavern in Doctors Commons.

A Commission of Bankrupt being awarded against William Reay, late of London, Grocer; All Persons that owe him any Money, or that have any Goods or other Effects of his in their hands, are not to pay or deliver the same to any Person, but whom the Commissioners shall appoint: But they are desired forthwith to give Notice thereof to Mr. William Belsy, one of the Commissioners, at his House upon Bread-street-hill, London.

A Commission of Bankrupt being awarded against Joseph Smith, of London, Merchant; All Persons that owe him any Money, or that have any Goods or Effects of his in their hands, are not to pay or deliver the same to any Person, but to such only as the Commissioners shall appoint.

A Parcel of extraordinary good Rum and Lime-juice to be sold in Link-Tower-street, near St. Mary-Hill, by John Clarke, Wine-merchant.

A Large Messuage in Fee-Simple, with a Coach-house and Stable, in Abchurch-Lane near Broad-street, London, late the Dwelling House of John Mosyer Esq; deceased, is to be rebuilt; is to be sold to the best Bidder, before Dr. Edisbury, Master in Chancery, pursuant to a Decree of the said Court. Enquire at the said Master's Chambers in Symonds's-Inn in Chancery Lane.

Lost about the middle of July last, going from the Cross Keys Inn in Wood-street, London, to Hereford, a Deal Box, in which was the following Things, viz. a Lease for Three Lives for Tythe; Letters of Administration of the Goods of one Mr. Phillips; Copy of a Bill in the Exchequer Chamber between one Probert and Watkins; a Suit of black Clothes; 3 Shirts; 2 pair of Stockings; 2 Prukes; 3 Cravats; with other Linnen. The Subscription on the Box is thus: [For Mr. John Price of Bailih, to be left for him at Hereford.] Whoever gives Notice of the Box and Things to Giles Cox, the Hereford Carrier, at his House in Hereford, at the Bull and Falcon at Ross, the Red-Lion at Huntley, the Red-Lion at Farnford, the Bull at Dorchester, the Angel at Colebrook, or at the Cross-Keys Inn in Wood-street, London, (so that they may be had again) shall have Five Pounds Reward.

Stolen or strayed the 11th Instant, out of the Grounds of John Alward near Kentish Town, a bay Nag 13 hands and half, full aged, a white Spot in his Mane, a cur Tail, troys all; a dark-brown Mare 14 hands high, a Star in her Fore-head, a Scar on her Hip on her rear side, bob Tail, combed six, and a few white Hairs in her Mane; a bay Nag 14 hands and half, a Star in his Fore-head, W branded on the Shoulder, goes lame on the right Leg behind; a white Mare 14 hands high, full aged, her Mane down, and a whisk Tail; and a dark-brown Mare, full aged, between 13 and 14 hands high, a Star in her Fore-head, all her Paces, a brown Nose, and a ring behind. Whoever seizes them, and gives Notice to Mr. John Alward at Tamam Court near St. Giles's in the Fields, London, shall have a Guinea for each black-brown Mare, and Ten Shillings each for the rest.

Vertical text on the right margin, including names like 'St. J. St. J. Bayly', 'The MA B. Ereg', 'God Alms', 'rims Sa', 'liant Co', 'Harbour', 'Sir Geo', 'the jom', 'force.', 'We c', 'Bliffing', 'Widom', 'Thea', 'of his G', 'servant', 'The f', 'sent b', 'of the', 'The hit', 'The hit', 'Most', 'T. m', 'me more', 'some 200', 'and Suc', 'and Lan', 'a time', 'Pawny', 'hair to', 'for wib', 'By You', 'by the E', 'Your ge', 'part of', 'Your M', 'joined w', 'applied', 'Publick', 'much st', 'have to', 'Royal E', 'brave C', 'made 7', 'is June', 'Bliffing', 'with me', 'Laffing', 'near T', 'hears', 'Obedi