

There is nothing in Government that is either great in it self, or and beneficial to Mankind; but we are sure to enjoy from the incomparable Wisdom and consummate Goodness of Your Majesty; The instances whereof need not to be mention'd; they are so many and so clear, that none of Your Subjects, can be ignorant of them. And in return of our Duty, and in a deep Sense of, and unfeigned Thankfulness to Your Majesty for the same; permit us to add our hearty Prayers, that the Divine Goodness would continually protect Your Royal Person, and prosper Your Councils and Arms with success; That Your Enemies may always add fresh Lawrels to Your Head, and new Glories to our Reign; That You may continue the Support of the Protestant Religion, and the Balance of Europe; and that You may enjoy a prosperous, long and happy, Reign over us.

Given under our Common Seal the 27th Day of October, in the Third Year of Your Majesty's Reign. Anno; Domini 1704.

Most Gracious Sovereign, obtained by the Conduct and Bravery of Your Commanders, (the Duke of Marlborough and Sir George Rooke), invite us humbly to beg Leave, That we may approach Your Royal Presence with Expressions of our grateful Acknowledgements for thus securing the Continuance of the many Blessings we enjoy under Your Majesty's wise and auspicious jesty, That we shall always cheerfully and effectually contribute, to the

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Portmen, Chief Burgesses and Freemen, of the Corporation of Orford in the County of Suffolk.

Most Gracious Sovereign,
HAVING glorify'd God for the Success wherewith His Divine Majesty hath blessed Your Arms, we now approach Your Royal Throne, humbly to Congratulate on that Occasion. Your Majesty justifies the Cause of God, and defends the Rights of Europe: Under Your Auspicious Reign, the Honour of England is retrieved: Under Your most Excellent Majesty, (the Instrument that Heaven hath chosen as well for the Comfort as Conservation of England) we see the Prospect of our Happiness. The Wisdom, Valour and Zeal, of Your Renowned General the Duke of Marlborough, and the Courage and Conduct of Sir George Rooke, give all Your loyal Subjects reason to esteem them Commanders worthy of such a Princess, as the good, the just and pious ANNE, Queen and Mother of England.

We hope and pray that Your Majesty may long live; and that as at home Your Subjects find the Effects of Your mild and tender Government, Your Enemies abroad may feel that of Your Power.

In Testimony whereof, we have hereto caused our Common Seal to be affixed, the Sixth Day of November, in the Third Year of Your Majesty's Reign.

The following Address from the Borough of Evesham was presented by Hugh Parker and John Rudge Esqs; their Representatives in Parliament.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Burgesses, of the Corporation of Evesham in the County of Worcester.

Most Gracious Sovereign,
WE Your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, humbly beg Leave to Congratulate Your Majesty upon the Successes of Your Arms, as great and glorious as the Cause they are engaged for:
 Your Majesty's Triumphs are not confined to one Element; but while Your Army, under the Conduct of the Duke of Marlborough, breaks the Ambitious Designs of France, by such glorious Victories as no Age can parallel, Your Fleet too, under the Command of Sir George Rooke, triumphs over that of the common Enemy. These Successes, Madam, are as great and remarkable, as Your Majesty's Piety, that's the occasion of 'em; for 'tis to that we chiefly attribute these Blessings; as a Reward for Your Zeal for the Protestant Religion in general, and Your Care for the Preservation of the Church of England in particular.

May such Successes always attend Your Majesty's Arms abroad, and Peace and Unity Your Affairs at home; and, to compleat our Wishes, may Your Reign over us be as long as 'twill be glorious, being sure, while that continues, of being a perfect happy People.

In witness whereof, we have herunto affixed our Common Seal, this Twenty fourth Day of November, in the Year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and four.

The following Address from the Borough of Plympton in the tenant of that County.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Mayor, Bayliff, Aldermen and Burgesses, of Your Majesty's Loyal Borough of Plympton, beg Leave, with the rest of Your Majesty's Subjects, to Congratulate Your Majesty on the happy Success of Your Arms, commanded by the Victorious Duke of Marlborough.

We assure Your Majesty, no Persons can have a more grateful Sense of the Benefits we enjoy under Your Majesty's Auspicious Government; and we cannot enough admire Your Goodness, in making the Welfare and Happiness of Your People Your only Aim.

We humbly beg Leave farther to assure Your Majesty, That we shall ever act as faithful Subjects, devoted to the Interest of their Gracious Sovereign; and, as much as in us lies, promote Your Majesty's glorious Designs against the common Enemy, who aims at the Destruction of the Liberties of Europe, and in particular of that of our Holy Religion Established among us.

The Six following Addresses being transmitted from Ireland, were presented by the Rt. Hon. Mr. Secretary Hedges.

The humble Address of the Archbishops, and Bishops of Ireland, in behalf of themselves, and their Brethren, the rest of the Clergy.

May it please Your most Excellent Majesty,

WE Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, being deeply sensible of the great Blessings God Almighty hath bestowed on Your Majesty's Kingdoms, do find frequent Occasions of praising God, not only for placing Your Majesty on the Throne of Your Royal Ancestors, but also for Your Adorning the same by Your Majesty's Exemplary Piety, Your Royal Bounty to the Church, Your most wife and steady Government both of Church and State at home; And also for the late glorious Successes of Your Majesty's Victorious Arms, obtain'd under the great Valour and Conduct of the Duke of Marlborough and Sir George Rooke, in Conjunction with Your Majesty's Allies; whereby the Common Cause and Interest of Europe is strengthened and ad-vanc'd, Your Enemies weaken'd and depress'd, and the English Courage preserv'd in its Ancient Glory and Renown.

That Your Majesty may always reap the Reward of Your Piety and Charity, in inward Comfort, in the Love and Obedience of Your Subjects, in continued Victories over Your Enemies, and at last, in a glorious, but late, Immortality, is the unanimous, hearty, and devout Prayer, of Your Majesty's ever Loyal and Dutiful Subjects.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Bishop, Deans and Chapters, and others of the Clergy of the Dioceses of Ferns and Leighlin.

WE the Bishop, Deans and Chapters, and others the Clergy of the Dioceses of Ferns and Leighlin, humbly crave leave to express our Joy on the entire Defeat of the French and Bavarian Forces near Hochstedt, and other signal Successes of Your Majesty's Arms on the Danube, and the Coast of Spain, to the great humbling of the aspiring Monarch; whereby, (we hope) a Foundation is laid for an honourable Peace, and secure Settlement of the Rights and Liberties of Europe, owing, under God, to the Influence of Your Majesty's mature Reflions and Commands, and as the Reward from Heaven of Your Exemplary Piety, and constant Practices of all other Princely and Christian Virtues.
 The Almighty direct and prosper every Step You make towards such a glorious End, give You Victory over all Your Enemies; that You may be long crown'd with the Blessings of Peace in this World, and enjoy an everlasting Crown of Glory in the other.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, Grand Jury, Gentlemen, and Freeholders of the County of Cathberlaugh, in Your Majesty's Kingdom of Ireland.

Dread Sovereign,

PROVIDENCE ordaining Your Majesty the chief Arbitrer of the great Bravery of Europe, Where will You fix the Pillars of the English Cause?

What distant Regions at once do Echo forth Your Triumphs? The Danube and the Mediterranean (such remote Scenes of Your Victorious Actions) do join their Sounds, and loudly tell the World That Your Power to do Justice is Boundless is, as Lewis's Ambition is Usurp and be Arbitrary.

The Battle of Hochstedt, with the Immortal Renown of Your Captain General, How doth it, with shame, convince the Proud Monarch, and his Bankrupt Bavarian Hero, that the golden Forces of the one are no longer the Golden Hopes of the other were but a Dream! What a glorious Figure will this make in History! As it scarce can find a parallel precedent, so 'twill shine with the brightest Lustre to succeeding Ages.
